Course Description

This course will discuss and analyze social problems from a critical perspective, using sociological analysis. We will examine the definition(s) of social problems, including how and why some issues are socially constructed and defined as social problems, while others are not. Some of the selected contemporary social problems to be studied and discussed will be racism, sexism, poverty, homophobia, and other issues related to discrimination and diversity. In addition other issues will include environmental degradation, demographic changes, education, crime, homelessness, and other social, political, and economic issues.

Course Goals and Specific Learning Objectives

Goals: The purpose of this course is to introduce students to the study of current social problems facing American society today. During our studies we will introduce and apply some core sociological theories and concepts to better contextualize and understand social problems, to further develop our sociological imaginations, and to discuss and devise social solutions. This will be approached in the context of using value systems, social groups, economic structures, and political institutions. The specific learning objectives are as follows

Required Texts/Readings

Students have many options relating to the required textbook. Students can rent or buy new and used textbooks, or use an E-book. As long as students use the proper edition, the choice of format is up to students. Textbooks offered at our campus bookstore are for convenience, but there is no requirement that class textbooks be purchased from the campus bookstore. The textbook is also available from other sources, if you so choose. Be sure to purchase the proper edition of your textbook.

Reading should be done prior to coming to class. (Usually 1-2 chapters per week) Students will be better prepared to discuss the material, and better prepared for asking questions about material that needs more explanation. See reading schedule on Class Calendar page. Students are expected to use the proper edition of the assigned textbook. Older editions may not contain all the information that is listed on your exam study guides, and students that use the wrong textbook will be solely responsible for obtaining the missing information.

Classroom Protocol

Office Hours: My designated office hours are for you to come and talk with me about this course. This is your opportunity to come and talk to me outside of class.

This is primarily a lecture-based class. Classes consist mainly of lectures and discussions. These may be supplemented by some videos, homework, and small group work. Taking class notes during lecture is encouraged. Lectures are designed to clarify and expand upon the required readings. Student participation is highly encouraged, and all perspectives are welcomed.

Classroom Technology Policy:

- Cell phones should be put away during class hours….they should not be on the desk
- Cell phones can be a distraction to the student and to other classmates
- If a student must text, email, or answer the phone, they should do so outside of the classroom
- Laptops should be for class work only…. Please do not misuse this privilege.
- Students that violate the technology policy may be asked to leave the classroom

Class Attendance & Participation: Attendance to class sessions is an important part of the learning process. Sharing ideas with other class members, class discussions, and instructor lectures are fundamental to classroom education. Participation is an essential feature for learning. Participation may include active listening, note taking, small group discussions, classroom discussion and in-class exercises, homework and writing assignments. Small-group and open class discussion are useful venues to explore a variety of social issues and topics. Attend and participate in these activities. These assignments are designed to encourage regular class attendance, and to give students incentive to stay current with the class readings and their sociology studies. Excessive tardiness to class and/or leaving early before class has ended is rude behavior, to the instructor, and to other members of the class. Participation in class discussion is encouraged, but talking when others are speaking is also disruptive behavior. Please be courteous, rather than engage in the manner described.

* Also, there are times when we may discuss sensitive topics during class, or topics of controversy for which people may have extremely divergent views. Open discussion and debate is encouraged, but maintaining an atmosphere of mutual respect towards all that are in the class is of the utmost importance
Grading Policy and Assignments

Grade scale: 300 total points (4.0 grade scale)

- 294-300 pts = A+
- 276-293 pts = A
- 270-275 pts = A-
- 264-269 pts = B+
- 246-263 pts = B
- 240-245 pts = B-
- 234-239 pts = C+
- 210-233 pts = C
- 204-234 pts = C-
- 198-203 pts = D+
- 171-197 pts = D
- 170–below = F

*( Plus / Minus ) grading is used to differentiate grades that are close to the boundary between grade levels. If a student is a couple of points away from a higher grade level { e.g. B+ / A- } the instructor will use an exam average to determine which direction the grade should go.

( A+) and (A) have the same grade value on a 4.0 grade scale. Other plus / minus grading will be used to assess student performance.

In the college classroom, grading is an institutional requirement. There is no perfect grading system, however, it is a necessity for this college and this classroom. The instructor’s goal in grading is to assess the student’s understanding of core subject matter as measured by a written exam. Grading is objective, based on exam scores and the quality of work produced in any graded class assignments. Grading is not subjective based upon how hard a student tries, or how much time is spent in studying. Unfortunately for some students, the reality is that grades in this class are based upon results and not necessarily a reflection of effort. There is no extra credit available in this class.

Graded material: Final class grades in this class are based entirely upon exam & quiz scores, and the writing assignment.

Your Final Class Grade is composed of four elements

- Exams- 200 points
- Writing- 60 points
- Quizzes- 40 points

1. Writing Assignment: (6 pts. each paper) (60 points total) ALL PAPERS DUE BY 9:00 AM

   - Paper #1 due: September 3
   - Paper #2 due: September 10
   - Paper #3 due: September 17
   - Paper #4 due: October 8
   - Paper #5 due: October 15
   - Paper #6 due: October 29
   - Paper #7 due: November 14
   - Paper #8 due: November 21
   - Paper #9 due: November 26
   - Paper #10 due: December 3

This course has a (minimum) 1500 word writing requirement in the language and style appropriate for this discipline. This is a GE class requirement, and all students must comply. This will be accomplished by way of a series of small papers. See CANVAS for a more detailed writing assignment handout. All papers must be submitted to CANVAS on the deadline date. Late papers will have a late penalty.

* Late papers will receive a 20% late penalty; papers over one week late will not be accepted unless prior arrangements are made in advance.

NO RE-TAKE EXAMS ALLOWED ON ANY MIDTERM, IN ORDER TO GET A BETTER GRADE

4. Extra Credit (None available beyond what is listed)

More detailed information on a variety of related topics is available in the SJSU catalog at http://info.sjsu.edu/web-dbgen/narr/catalog/rec-12234.12506.html. In general, it is recommended that students begin by seeking clarification or discussing concerns with their instructor. For this class, all assignments are to be completed by the individual student unless otherwise specified.
