

College of Social Sciences
Curriculum Committee
Wednesday, April 11, 2007
3:00 PM

MINUTES-REVISED

Present: Vásquez, George (Assoc. Dean and Committee Chair); Paul Kauppila (Library); Asha Weinstein (Urban and Regional Planning); Anne Marie Todd (Communication Studies); Asim Zia (Environmental Studies); Constantine Danopoulos (Political Science); Pat Don (History); Marcos Pizarro (Mexican American Studies); David Asquith (Sociology); Mark McCoy (Anthropology).

Guests: Chuck Darrah (Anthropology); Roberto Gonzalez (Anthropology).

I. Approval of Minutes, 02/14/07: m/s/approved unanimously.

II. Announcement: AVP Cooper's "Greensheet Checklist" distributed to the committee.

III. Changes to Anthropology Major, Undergraduate Curriculum, and MA Program Curriculum: m/s/approved, unanimously.

IV. Change to the Behavioral Science majors and new capstone course proposal, Anth/Psych/Soci 193: m/s/approved, unanimously. Anthropology to consult with other concerned departments.

V. Anthropology 130, Kin, Kith, Communities: The Anthropology of Social Organization: m/s/approved, unanimously. Greensheet to indicate due dates for assignments.

VI. Anthropology 134, Systemic Leadership: m/s/approved, unanimously. The terms of the student contract should be featured in the body of the greensheet.

VII. Anthropology 147, Gifts, Markets, and Money: m/s/approved, unanimously.

VIII. Anthropology 163, Coastal and Island Societies: m/s/approved, unanimously. Add bibliography to the greensheet.

IX. Anthropology 165, Historical Archaeology: Heritage Management: m/s/approved, unanimously. Greensheet should indicate that an incomplete grade can be given only when two thirds of the course's work has been completed. Additionally, a selected bibliography should be attached to the greensheet.

X. Anthropology 296, Method and Theory: m/s/approved, unanimously.

XI. Anthropology 296, Heritage Management: m/s/approved, unanimously.

XII. Other: Paul Kauppila to interface with Bernice Redfern, the Library Liaison for Anthropology regarding availability of funds for new course book requirements.