

COLLEGE OF SOCIAL SCIENCES

Curriculum Committee Meeting

Wednesday May 12, 1999

MINUTES

Present: Schwarz, David (Assoc. Dean); Asuncion, Arlene (Psychology); Barnes, Judith (Communication Studies); Chu, Betty (Economic); Do, Hien Duc (Social Sciences); Hill, Patricia (Social Science); Jensen, Billie (History); Jurmain, Robert (Anthropology); O'Malley, Rachel (Environmental Studies); Peter, Ken (Political Science); Ray, Carol (Sociology); Redfern, Bernice (Library); Rooks, Curtiss (Social Science); Wood, Andrew (Communication Studies).

Absent: Helgren, David (Geography).

- Minutes: 4/14/99, m/s/p, unanimously.
- AAS 187: Multiracial Asian Americans in the Process of Asian American Ethnic Community Formation: m/s/p, unanimously.

The committee suggested that the Asian American Studies program consider shortening the name of the course. In addition, they pointed out that the attendance requirement on the greensheet needed to be eliminated in order to be in compliance with university policy.

- Comm Studies 181, Internet Communication: m/s/p, unanimously.

The committee pointed out a minor typo on page 2 of the proposal (delete "experimental") and correct the point totals in the greensheet.

- Comm Studies 196: Effective Listening: m/s/p, unanimously.

The committee made two suggestions regarding this course.

1. Contact College of Business and Psychology for possible course overlap and/or to recruit students to the course.
2. Include more bibliography or a reader as part of the weekly readings in the greensheet.