

2011 SACNAS Community Day

“Inspiring high school students to become scientists”

Join us on:

Date: October 29, 2011

Location: San Jose Convention Center's South Hall

Time: 8:30 am to 2:00 pm

Event Description:

The 2011 SACNAS Community Day is designed to provide local high school students and members of the extended San Jose community the opportunity to explore science, technology, engineering and mathematics (STEM) in an interactive community environment.

Community Day Features:

- Exhibits and activities hosted by:
  - ◊ NASA AMES Research Center
  - ◊ The Tech Museum
  - ◊ Local University Institutes
- Hands-on science experiments
- Interact with undergraduate students
- Learn about scientific research
- Meet college recruiters
- Much more!

Registration deadline: October 4, 2011

Register online at sacnas.org

For more information or questions, please contact
Rene Moreno at rene@sacnas.org

Co-sponsored by:

NASA AMES
Research Center

Santa Clara University

Advancing Hispanics/Chicanos
& Native Americans in Science

Tel. 831-459-0170 ■ Fax 831-459-0194
P.O. Box 8526 ■ Santa Cruz ■ CA 95061-8526
info@sacnas.org ■ sacnas.org