

SJSU's Sustainability Matters Series:

Where Does our Food Come From?

- Food, Farming & SJSU

Tuesday, November 10th, Noon - 1:30
M.L. King Jr. Library, Room 227
Students, faculty, and staff invited!

Sustainable food will be served -
Attendees enter a drawing for a
FREE CSA box of locally-grown, organic produce!

>> How has SJSU moved towards a more sustainable food system?

>> How do our choices impact other parts of the planet?

>> What else can we do?

Add your insights to the discussion between a local grower, a nutritionist, Spartan Shops, & an expert on sustainable agricultural systems...

Panelists:

Eugene Cordero, Assoc. Professor of Meteorology & co-author of Cool Cuisine

Marjorie Freedman, Asst. Professor of Nutrition & Food Science

& founder of Spartan Smart Cart

Jay Marshall, Spartan Catering, Executive Chef

Jeff Pauley, Spartan Dining, Dining Services Director

Tony Serrano, Alba Organics, General Manager

Moderator: Rachel O'Malley, Assoc. Professor of Environmental Studies