

Evaluation of the BASW Field Agency and Instructor by the Student School of Social Work, San José State University

This evaluation is designed to help the School of Social Work give serious and thoughtful consideration to the students' impressions of the field work learning experience. Students' viewpoints and comments are helpful as the School considers continued use of the agency and the field instructor.

This evaluation must be completed by every student to receive credit for field work. Return it to your faculty field liaison by May 6, 2008.
