BASW Mid-Semester Evaluation of Student by Field Instructor
School of Social Work ~ San José State University
To be completed After the First Month of each Semester

Student’s Name:____________________________________________________________________________
Agency’s Name:____________________________________________________________________________
Field Instructor’s Name:______________________________________________________________________
Faculty Field liaison’s Name __________________________________________________________________
Semester:____________________ Date:_________________________________

1. List the assignments this student has been given thus far:

___________________________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________________________

2. Comment briefly on the student’s capacity to: integrate into your agency system; his/her work habits; relationships with agency staff and other students; capacity for independence; and capacity to work with transcultural population.

___________________________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________________________

3. Comment on the student’s capacity to apply social work knowledge in a skillful manner and in keeping with the social work code of Ethics.

___________________________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________________________

4. Discuss any early concerns of your about this student’s investment in this learning experience.

___________________________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________________________

5. Are there any specific recommendations you could make to the School regarding this student’s performance in the field so the BASW Coordinator and/or Faculty Field Liaison could be of assistance to him/her?

___________________________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________________________

Field Instructor Signature:____________________________________________________ Date:____________
Student Signature:________________________________________________________________________ Date:________________________