Pupil Personnel Services Credential

This manual provides a guide for students pursuing the School Social Work Pupil Personnel Services Credential (PPSC) at SJSU. The State of California regulates four types of PPSCs:

1. School Counseling,
2. School Psychology,
3. School Social Work, and
4. Child Welfare and Attendance (largely relates to truancy issues).

Successfully completing the MSW School Social Work sequence makes one eligible to apply for the California State PPSC in two areas: 1) School Social Work, and 2) Child Welfare & Attendance. These credentials are awarded and administered through the California Commission on Teacher Credentialing (CCTC) — not SJSU. Once obtained, these credentials must be renewed every five years through the CCTC. California public schools typically require these credentials for one to be employed as a preschool through 12th grade school social worker. The SJSU MSW PPSC program is accredited by the CCTC. The CCTC assigns one department on each university campus as the coordinator of credentials and usually, this is the education department, as it is at SJSU. For this reason, when students reach the point of applying for the credential, they will be interfacing with the Education Department’s Credentialing Office.

This manual includes social work departmental forms and information sheets at the end. These will be referenced with specific notations. CCTC and SJSU Credentialing office forms are not duplicated in this manual, but are referred to by website address. Students are encouraged to familiarize themselves with the CCTC and SJSU Credential Office websites (www.ctc.ca.gov and <http://www.sjsu.edu/education/credential/index.html>).

PPSC Staff

The PPSC Program has an appointed coordinator. Currently, this is Katie Galvin, the MSW program Field Director. In addition, Dick Evans, LSCW, PPSC serves as the Faculty Field Liaison. Julie Auslander, LSCW, PPSC will teach the School Social Work Sequence for the 2008-2009 academic year. Their contact information is as follows:

School Social Work: The Context and the Discipline

Many incoming MSW students are unfamiliar with the field of school social work, despite its existence since the 1900’s. Then, often called “visiting teachers,” school social workers served at the intersection of home and school, just as they do today. In 1978, the National Association of Social Workers (NASW) set forth its first set of Standards for School Social Work Services; most recently updated in 2002. These can be found at http://www.socialworkers.org/practice/standards/NASW_SSWS.pdf

In many states, school social work holds a relatively strong presence. In California, the use of school social workers varies by geographic area, a particular district’s commitment to the social work role, and budget constraints. Proposition 13 drastically cut funding for services across the state. Some districts use school social workers heavily, while others hire primarily school counselors. Gains have been made regarding the education of administrators and legislators about the role of school social workers. This is largely the result of efforts by the California Association of School Social Workers (CASSW).

School social workers tend to be in frontline K-12 service positions. Some serve one or two schools in a district, while others will have large numbers of schools or full district responsibility. In addition, specific target programs on school campuses addressing such issues as drop-out prevention may hire school social workers. Tasks may include individual, family, group, classroom, school-system, district-wide, or community-wide intervention, depending on the nature of the challenge. School social workers frequently work with underserved and oppressed people and communities. In a large sense, the school social worker provides a link between the student, school, home, and community. The overall objective is to help students achieve their potential in a context of biopsychosocial wellbeing.

Reasons that school social workers like their jobs include the frontline and preventative nature of the position; the ongoing job stimulation; the potential for advocacy and change; the chance to work cross culturally; the variability in service delivery setting (office, classroom, playground, home, etc.); the opportunity to bring the social work perspective to the educational team; and the school calendar schedule. For some, school social work can feel isolating, as there is often only one social worker at a school site, and time is required to become an accepted/trusted part of any school team. Some MSWs serve in schools without being district employees and instead work for a contract agency such as county mental health or a community based organization.

Obtaining the SSW & CWA PPSC at SJSU

There are essentially three components to successfully attain the school social work credential at SJSU:

- I. developing a PPSC Portfolio,
- II. completing MSW course and field work, and
- III. submitting a PPS credential application.

I. Developing a PPSC Portfolio

The SJSU MSW program maintains a PPSC Portfolio for all PPSC students. The PPSC Portfolio reflects and records student learning. It becomes important for verification of credential application documents, and is essential if PPSC holders move out of California and want to obtain PPSC equivalency in another state. For these reasons, treat the PPSC Portfolio requirements with seriousness. Even though this portfolio is maintained in the PPSC office, students are advised to keep a copy of all documents for their own records. Maintain a PPSC file at home or office. It will be invaluable for credential application, renewal, and in case of unforeseen loss of any records at the university or state.

To begin a PPSC Portfolio, one must first join the School Social Work Sequence. To do this, students MUST:

1. be sure the foundation year internship is NOT IN A SCHOOL-BASED SETTING,
2. attend a PPSC information meeting in the fall of the foundation year,
3. read this manual on the website,
4. submit a Notice of Intent to Pursue the PPSC (see form section) before January 31 of the foundation year, and
5. submit a Personal Statement (see instruction section) by January 31 of the foundation year.

Eventually, the PPSC Portfolio will need to include the items listed in the chart below. The due dates are also noted, as well as the parties responsible for completing the documents. The student is ultimately responsible for seeing that copies of all documents be submitted for the portfolio, except for the Exit Review which is filled out with the PPSC Coordinator.

Table of Required PPSC Portfolio Documents

Description of Required PPSC Portfolio Documents:

Items with an asterisk (*) require additional fees; current CTCC fees may be found at <http://www.ctc.ca.gov/credentials/leaflets/cl659.pdf>

Notice of Intent to Pursue PPSC: Announces student's commitment to joining SSW sequence (see Forms).

Personal Statement: An essay articulating student's interest in SSW (see Guidelines).

*TB Clearance: A copy of negative TB Test or equivalent. Most schools will require this before the second year internship. A copy of this is acceptable. For the PPSC Portfolio, the TB test should be no more than 2 years old.

PPSC Learning Agreement: Learning agreements completed specifically for SSW internship; one is for SSW credential, one is for CWA credential; these are separate from the learning agreements completed for the regular field program (see Forms); both must be signed by student, Field Instructor (FI) & Field Faculty Liaison (FFL). Second year students are required to complete these PPSC Learning Agreements as well as the regular MSW Field Program Learning Agreement.

Journal of Field Experience: Student's experiential account of required field experiences (see Guidelines).

*CBEST Results: The California Basic Educational Skills Test (CBEST) must be passed before applying for the PPSC credential. This is a test required of all teachers in California, assessing math, reading, and writing skills. Students should take this early in the MSW program, to allow time for retesting if needed. Test results will be sent to the student, who should submit a copy for the PPSC Portfolio. Test information, schedules, and study guides may be found online at <http://www.cbest.nesinc.com/>. Most social work students report that it is helpful to review mathematics basics before taking the exam.

*Certificate of Clearance: This is a document that is processed after Live Scan Fingerprinting is completed. SSW placements will require students to be fingerprinted prior to the internship, but this cannot be used for the PPSC application. A new fingerprint check must be run. If students already have a teaching credential, a copy of the credential may be submitted in place of this document. To obtain the Certificate of Clearance, one must:

1. Submit the Live Scan Form to the fingerprint processing location one is using (SJSU Police offers this: appointments preferred 408-924-2172). The form can be obtained at

<http://www.ctc.ca.gov/credentials/leaflets/41-LS.pdf> (or see forms). Save your copy of this form (called "Request for Live Scan Service" 41-LS). Some years, it is required that this is submitted with the Certificate of Clearance at the time of PPSC application. Note: This form has the appropriate address to which results are to be sent—use this form only. Do not worry that it says "Teaching Credential" instead of "PPSC." Fees for Live Scan vary; shop around. At SJSU fees included:

$20 SJSU + $24 FBI + $32 CA DOJ + $15 Child Abuse Check + $15 Firearms Check = $106

2. Apply for the Certificate of Clearance at https://teachercred.ctc.ca.gov/cctc_phase3/InteractionMgr?interactionmgr.interaction=Enter_GeneralApplication (has been about $30.00). When the application has been cleared and completed, the student will receive an email explaining where to go to print out the Certificate of Clearance. Print at least 3 copies. One will be needed for the PPSC Portfolio; one for the PPSC application; and one for personal records. The University's application instructions for a certificate of clearance can be found at the SJSU Credential Services website, under a heading called "How to apply for a Certificate of Clearance" at <http://www.sjsu.edu/education/credential/fingerprint.html>.

Evaluation of Candidate in School Placement: An evaluation form completed by the SSW internship FI, and to be discussed with the student and the FFL. A copy must be submitted for the PPSC Portfolio. This is a separate evaluation from the regular program field evaluation form (See forms). Students must receive "Excellent," "Very Good," or "Good" ratings. Ratings of "Fair" or "Poor" will require remedial planning/conferencing between the student, FI, and FFL, to include the PPSC Coordinator, if indicated.

PPSC Field Hours Verification: A form verifying internship hours (see forms).

Copy of SJSU Transcript: The official MSW transcript will not be available until a few weeks after graduation however this is needed for one to apply for the PPSC. The transcript will also be needed for the PPSC Coordinator to complete the Exit Review to verify that the candidate passed all required coursework, and that the MSW was awarded with a cumulative GPA ≥ 3.0 . The transcript for the PPSC application must be official, but does not need to be in a sealed envelope. The copy for the PPSC Portfolio does not have to be official. Official transcripts must be requested in writing and are free. The form can be accessed at <http://www.sjsu.edu/registrar/services/transcripts/index.htm>. Unofficial transcripts can be viewed and printed from MySJSU. If a student has an incomplete from any program at SJSU on their transcript, they cannot be awarded the MSW degree. Be sure to clear up all incompletes, even if it is not a required course for the MSW degree.

Exit Review Form: At the end of the MSW program, the PPSC Coordinator meets with each PPSC student to generate an Exit Review Form, which verifies that all program requirements were fulfilled. It is the responsibility of the student to make sure that this meeting takes place. This completed form is needed when the student makes PPSC application (see Forms).

Additional Forms that May be Used in the PPSC Portfolio

Contact Information Update Sheet: Students are encouraged to use this form to update their PPSC Portfolio if their contact information changes, such as email, address, phone, cell, or name.

Application for Credential Authorizing Public School Service (CTCC form 41-4): This is the official PPSC application. It is not required in the PPSC Portfolio, however, students are encouraged to submit a copy for their PPSC Portfolio, so it is clear that the application has gone forward, and to aid in future paperwork requests, such as out-of-state equivalencies. This form is at the CTCC website; specifically at <http://www.ctc.ca.gov/credentials/leaflets/414.pdf>.

Forms to Help Organize the PPSC Sequence

PPSC Student Timeline: A task-focused timeline to serve as a PPSC student guide (see forms).

PPSC Program Planning Form: Some students find this sequence planning form helpful. It is not required. Although it used to be required for credential application, information is now included in Exit Review Form (see forms).

PPSC Log for Student's Records and PPSC Checklist: Created as a tools for students to keep track of their portfolio contents and progress through the program.

II. Completing MSW Course and Field Work

Students must demonstrate competencies as set forth by the CCTC PPSC Standards. There are generic standards shared by all PPSC categories (including counseling and psychology) and specific standards for School Social Work (SSW) and Child Welfare & Attendance (CWA). These represent the guiding principles for the curriculum, along with the Council on Social Work Education (CSWE) guidelines. Students are occasionally requested to complete surveys to fulfill assessment requirements to maintain PPSC accreditation with the CCTC.

In addition to the satisfactory completion of all MSW program requirements, school social work sequence students must take the following 3 classes during their second year (fulltime students):

1. Fall Semester: SW 270 Policy Practice in Schools
2. Spring Semester: SW 263 Social Work and the Law
SW 271 Social Work in Educational Settings

Students must complete their second year field work (SW 232-233, Social Work Practice III-IV) in an educational setting. The specific requirements of the PPSC field experience are outlined below.

Field Hour Requirements

For the PPSC in School Social Work and Child Welfare & Attendance students must have:

- A minimum of 1000 hours of field education, which include:
 - 450 school site hours supervised by a PPSC Practitioner. (The SJSU School of Social Work requires this practitioner to also be an MSW two years post graduation. Exceptions to this must be discussed with the PPSC Coordinator and Field Director.) Of the 450 school site hours:
 - 350 must be completed at one age level (preschool, elementary, middle/jr.high, high school);
 - 100 hours completed at a different age level; and
 - at least 100 hours must be with at least 10 students who are racially/ethnically different than the intern;
 - 150 additional hours required for authorization in Child Welfare and Attendance that must relate to laws affecting child welfare, attendance, student rights, discipline, or child labor, with stipulations that:
 - a minimum of 90 of these hours must be completed in a school setting with direct contact with pupils;
 - a minimum of 30 hours are in interdisciplinary experiences outside of education such as juvenile, justice, child mental health, child welfare, child health, social services, or CBOs; and
 - the remaining 30 hours can be at the discretion of the university supervisor;
 - remaining hours which come from the student's first year internship in a non-school setting.

III. Submitting a PPSC Application

After MSW graduation and all program requirements have been fulfilled, students apply for the actual PPS Credential. They must wait until their official transcripts are available (usually late June, early July) showing their

MSW was awarded. Remember there are fees attached to the CBEST, Fingerprinting, Certificate of Clearance, and Credential Application. Directions for submitting an application for the credential can be found at the SJSU Credential website <http://www.sjsu.edu/education/credential/index.html> . Students are advised to walk required forms to the Credentialing Office if possible, although they will accept them by mail. However, they request that all forms arrive together. Do not have transcripts sent separately. The office is located at 107 Sweeney Hall; credential application packets are available there. The packets contain the forms that are available online. For the application, MSW PPSC applicants will be required to have:

- Information Coversheet: Available at <http://www.sjsu.edu/education/credential/forms.html>
- Official SJSU Transcript (does not need to be in a sealed envelope)
- Official Undergraduate Transcript (not always required, but students are advised to have on hand if you obtained undergraduate degree at university other than SJSU)
- Certificate of Clearance
- CBEST results
- Exit Review Form from School of Social Work PPSC Coordinator

There is a checklist available online at <http://www.sjsu.edu/education/credential/forms/PPS%20Clear.pdf>

Students will be required to pay a $25 dollar processing fee for each credential, online. There is a link at <http://www.sjsu.edu/education/credential/forms.html>

Generally, it takes 2-4 weeks to obtain the credential after application is completed online. There is a Frequently Asked Questions sheet on the credential website under the "Contact Us/Questions" heading.

When graduates finally obtain the credential, they are encouraged to send a photocopy to the SJSU MSW PPSC office to place in their PPSC Portfolio for record keeping purposes.

When graduates apply for their first school social work position, before they have obtained their official PPSC, employers will often want proof that the PPSC application is in process. Save a copy of application forms for this purpose.

Credentials must be renewed through the CCTC every 5 years.

- a PPSC Journal of experiences in the school-based practicum,
- PPSC specific Learning Agreements for both the School Social Work Authorization and Child Welfare & Attendance Authorization (these are in addition to the regular MSW Second Year Field Education Learning Agreements);
- an Evaluation of Candidate in School Placement as completed by the field instructor;

- pass the CBEST (California Basic Educational Skills Test);
- obtain a TB test;
- obtain live scan fingerprinting (separate from any that is required for your internship);
- obtain a Certificate of Clearance or provide a copy of emergency teaching permit or multiple/single subject teaching credential
