

International Human Trafficking In a Globalized World: Strategies For Social Workers

Monday, May 7, 2007

12:00 p.m. – 2:00 p.m.

Martin Luther King Library • Room #225/229

– Light lunch will be provided –

— Featured Speakers —

Nalini Shekar

Director of Advocacy

Next Door Solutions to Domestic Violence

Amy Molica

Coordinator

South Bay Coalition to End Human Trafficking at Community Solutions

Lynnette Parker

Supervising Attorney, Immigration

Katherine and George Alexander
Community Law Center

Topics include:

- Information and social work policy & practice about international human trafficking (HT) of children and women
- Awareness of HT policy in the U.S. (Federal & State) and local application of law
- Identifying trafficking victims/survivors and providing resources
- Strategies for developing appropriate transcultural competency for social work with children and women who are HT victims/survivors

Social Work Forum presented by the San Jose State University MSW students from the ScWk 285 class, Social Work and Social Problems course

Sponsored by Social Work Graduate Student Association, Cultural Heritage Center, Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Library, and San Jose State University