San José State University
San José, California
ANNOUNCEMENT OF POSITION AVAILABILITY
Subject to Budgetary Approval
Director of Field Education

Job Opening ID (JOID): 013111

Rank: Full-time, temporary position

Qualifications:
Applicants must have a MSW from an accredited university, and knowledge of and experience in social work field education. Two years post-master’s practice experience is required. Practice and teaching experience with ethnic populations is highly desirable, particularly those ethnic populations of the Southwest, Latinos/as, African Americans, Asian American, and/or Native Americans. Applicants should have awareness of and sensitivity to the educational goals of a multicultural population as might have been gained in cross-cultural study, training, teaching and other comparable experience.

Responsibilities:
Full-time, temporary position with primary responsibility for coordinating the Field Education program for both the graduate and undergraduate programs. Candidate must address the needs of a student population of great diversity – in age, cultural background, ethnicity, primary language and academic preparation – through course materials, teaching strategies and advisement. Responsibilities may also include teaching graduate or undergraduate social work courses, and advising students. In addition to coordinating the field education program, candidates are expected to participate in curriculum development, and providing service to students and the University. A candidate’s service and professional endeavors should support the transcultural mission of the undergraduate and graduate social work programs in the School of Social Work.

Salary Range: Commensurate with qualifications and experience.

Starting Date: August 21, 2008

Eligibility: Employment is contingent upon proof of eligibility to work in the United States.

Application Procedures: For full consideration send a letter of application, curriculum vitae, statement of teaching interests/philosophy and research plans, and at least three original letters of reference with contact information by January 25, 2008 to:
