Catalog Description

Transcultural Generalist Practice with client systems, particularly individuals and families, at micro, mezzo (messo), and macro levels. Assessment, planning, and implementing intervention within a professional relationship, utilizing a strengths perspective focusing on Latinos, African-American, and Asian-Americans.

Course Description

This foundation course emphasizes system and ecological perspectives within a problem-solving framework. Students will gain knowledge and skills in professional social work practice, including engagement, assessment, intervention and evaluation of clients at multiple levels (micro, mezzo, and macro), with an emphasis on micro practice. Social work interventions will be examined from bio-psycho-social-spiritual, and evidence-based contexts. A transcultural focus to social work practice emphasizes interventions with diverse populations, including Latinos, African and Asian Americans, women, gays, lesbians, older adults, and other marginalized populations. The threshold of the course is intended to promote economic and social justice by having students engage in reflective and critical thinking, evaluate their own practice, and utilize alternative approaches to promote human well-being within social work practice.

SW 220 is a foundation course that focuses on individuals. Students enroll in it concurrently with SW 230 (Field Practicum). Next semester, SW 221 will focus on groups (families), organizations, and communities.

LEARNING EXPERIENCES AND CLASSROOM PROTOCOL

This course includes didactic lectures, interactive learning exercises, and seminar-style discussion. Please note in order to save resources the School of Social Work is moving toward the distribution of class syllabi and handouts via electronic means (e.g., email and internet).

Students are expected to maintain professionalism; this includes preserving the confidentiality of clients/cases (discussed in class or written in assignments) and their professional peers (e.g., FFLs, FI, and fellow students). Professional development includes consultation with fellow students. This includes being respectful of each other's opinions, perspectives and ideologies; refraining from disruptive behavior; and using each other as resources. I ask you to consult with me when you do not understand what is covered, open yourself to asking questions, and be engaged in your learning. Please communicate with the instructor regarding any concerns about the course and your progress in it.

I take very seriously the responsibility of grading your work and will always strive to be fair in my evaluations. Please know that I provide a lot of feedback and often will edit in the spirit of helping improve the quality of your work. If your work will result is less than a B-, I will on a one-time basis allow you to rewrite and resubmit. This will help you practice, as well as obtain higher points (grade). Note, however, that a rewrite does not qualify for the full assignment points. My guidelines on contested grades is as follows: If you disagree with a grade, I require you to wait at least one day after receiving your work before contacting me to discuss the matter. During this time, I ask that you read and consider my comments carefully. It would help if you rewrote your paper or exam using the feedback and or editing I provided. I also ask that you have ready specific reasons why you believe the grade to be inaccurate, and to come prepared to discuss the grade you think you deserve. I will take your thoughts seriously and will listen earnestly to each request and judge it on its merits.

Dropping and Adding

Students are responsible for understanding the policies and procedures about add/drops, academic renewal, etc. Refer to the current semester's Catalog Policies section at <http://info.sjsu.edu/static/catalog/policies.html>. Add/drop deadlines can be found on the current academic calendar web page located at http://www.sjsu.edu/academic_programs/calendars/academic_calendar/. The Late Drop Policy is available at <http://www.sjsu.edu/aars/policies/latedrops/policy/>. Students should be aware of the current deadlines and penalties for dropping classes.

Also, note that a student missing a session where material for the Group-Project Exercises is covered, cannot participate in the assignment nor receive points.

Assignments

Your grade will be determined from evaluations of the following:

- Social Work Practice Portfolios (two portfolio assignments @ 5 points each)
This assignment is intended to help the student reflect on his/her professional social work identity and skills development. The two main themes of the assignments are: (1) practice philosophy, and (2) skills in the delivery of social work services to diverse populations from a transcultural social work perspective. Guidelines are attached.

Due: Session 3, 9/7 & Session 7, 10/5

10 points

- Midterm Exam
The midterm exam will cover material discussed in class and reading assignments. This will be a take-home exam related to the assigned text reading, material covered in class and social work practice skills (conducting a bio-psychosocial assessment). The exam will be sent out via email on 9/28. You will have 3 weeks to complete it. There is no extension (or rewrite) for this assignment.

Due: Session 9, 10/19

20 points

- Group-Project Exercises (3 exercises @ 10 points each assignment)
This assignment offers the opportunity to practice psychosocial assessment, DSMIV diagnosing, and social work intervention skills. With the use of the DSMIV as a tool, three (3) vignettes provided by your instructor will be completed within a group of no more than 4 student members, and submitted as a group assignment. A lottery system will be used to assign students to the group. This is a group-grade assignment. Additional guideline will be provided by the instructor.

Due:

Session 9, 10/19

Session 11, 11/2

Session 13, 11/16

30 points

- Final Paper
This paper consists of an assessment, DSM diagnosis, and intervention (treatment plan) of a client served at the agency where you are completing your internship. It would be preferable that the client represents someone different from the student, regarding social group membership: ethnicity, race, sexual orientation, age, class, disability, etc. A case will be provided for those who do not have cases assigned at their internship.

The final paper (with guidelines) will be sent out via email on Session 12, 11/9. There is no extension or rewrite for this assignment.

Due: Session 15, 11/30

25 points

- Participation

Professional development includes class attendance since it is the main form for acquiring new knowledge and skills, and consulting with class members (especially the members of the group assignment). As part of class participation students are expected to critically analyze information that is presented/discussed, bring examples and applications of the concepts being covered, be prepared to discuss readings, and provide additional insights on issues from their own special knowledge, professional expertise and internship experience. It is expected that the student assume responsibility for her/his learning, and the quality and success of this course. With this in mind, please note that cell phones and laptop computers can only be used for class-related activities. Please let me know if you are “on call” and required to check your cell calls. The use of laptops and cell phones (including texting) for personal purposes, chronic tardiness, absence from the group assignment meetings, and disruptive behavior and/or inattentiveness will be reflected in the participation grade. To minimize class disruptions please arrive on time. Class attendance will be usually taken and recorded during the first part of class sessions. Students should notify the instructor in advance if they are not able to attend class or if they need to leave class early (See Student Handbook for additional information).

School of Social Work Writing Policy

The Instructor will return assignments ungraded if at least five unique errors are found in grammar, punctuation, sentence structure, spelling, typos, APA style, or other basic writing errors. Late penalty points may apply, as specified in the syllabus. A unique error is an error that will be counted 1 time. For example, if a possessive apostrophe is left off of a word 5 times in a paper, it will be counted as 1 error (i.e. a possessive apostrophe error). It is the student's responsibility to make corrections throughout the paper and ensure there are no additional instances of the error in the paper before re-submitting the paper and submitting next assignments.

Practice Portfolio Assignments

ScWk 220 – Fall 2011

10 points (5 points each)

See Assignment due date on syllabus

The Practice Portfolio provides an opportunity for you to clarify your beliefs and opinions about social work practice and professional development. Each component of this assignment serves as a means of self-reflection and that of communication between you and your instructor. The feedback that your instructor will provide is to help you further refine your ideas.

Completion of your Portfolio is a developmental process—as your professional identity grows, your beliefs presented in these assignments will evolve. Your portfolio also will characterize you as a social worker to other professionals, such as internship supervisors and employers.

During the term you will submit two portfolio papers. These are:

- I. Practice Philosophy, and
- II. Diversity and Transcultural Perspective.

The Practice Portfolio is about you. It is about your professional development. This paper is subjective. In grading this assignment, your instructor will look for how you integrate your professional ideas and is NOT looking for a restatement of your readings or what others say about practice concepts. In this assignment, you are being asked to present your own ideas and beliefs, which will be further developed as you study and practice social work. In these assignments, you are presenting who “you” are as a professional. It is almost as if what you write is what you might tell a future employer during an interview.

Each paper is expected to be 1 or 2 pages in length. Descriptions to guide your work are as follow:

- I. Practice Philosophy (see syllabus for due date)
 - To help you prepare for this section, you may want to review the NASW Code of Ethics found in the appendix of the Miley, O’Melia and Dubois text or at www.naswdc.org
 - This portfolio assignment is a statement of your personal philosophy about social work practice. This philosophy should be based upon professional ethics and values for practice. While this philosophy also may reflect personal values, it is important for every professional to distinguish between professional ethics and personal beliefs.
 - Here are some questions to help you develop this section:
 1. What do you believe is the goal of social work practice?
 2. Why have you become a social worker?
 3. How does the profession of social work enhance society?

4. How does who you are as a person and a professional influence your practice philosophy?

II. Diversity and Transcultural Perspective (see syllabus for due date)

- The transcultural social work perspective promotes commitment of social work professionals to advocate for social justice and build upon the strengths of diverse cultures to enhance the well-being of individuals, families, organizations, and communities.
- This Portfolio is a statement about what diversity and transcultural social work, as related to the School of Social Work Masters in Social Work program, mean to you, and how it informs your professional vision and practice?
- You might want to consider poignant examples of how diversity shapes who you are and influenced your professional choices.
- Here are some additional questions to help you develop this section:
 1. What is transcultural social work (also use the School of Social Work's definition)?
 2. How do you develop and maintain cultural competence?
 3. How has diversity shaped who you are as a person and as a professional?
 4. How do you foresee diversity influencing your professional social work practice?

See APA Format and Writing Requirements on syllabus for more information.

San José State University
Social Work Programs Evaluation and Grading Criteria

Instructors in the Social Work program promote and evaluate critical thinking* and communication† skills to help students achieve academic and professional excellence. These skills encompass one’s ability to organize ideas, reason concretely and abstractly, and apply objective and subjective reasoning to ideas, situations, and theories.

One method to evaluate students’ critical thinking and communication skills is via written assignments. The Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association (APA; 5th ed.) is a format guide widely used in many social work assignments. However, alternate formats may be expected for writing assignments such as, but not limited to, process recordings, case or progress notes, court reports, and biopsychosocial and family assessments. Please refer to your course syllabus for guidance on APA assignment requirements. If you need writing or editing assistance, please consult with your instructor.

Grades are calculated based upon the scale below:

98-100	A+	87-89	B+	77-79	C+	67-69	D+	59 or less	F
93-97	A	83-86	B	73-76	C	63-66	D

FIRES EARTHQUAKES AND OTHER DISASTERS:

- Call 911 or use a blue light telephone to summon University Police assistance for all campus police, fire or medical emergencies. Give your name, the nature of the emergency and your specific location. Stay on the line until the University Police Dispatcher tells you to hang up.
- Use extinguishers for minor fires. If a fire appears uncontrollable, close all room doors to confine the fire and evacuate the area or building.
- Remain calm during an earthquake. “Duck and cover” under a desk or table or stand in a doorway or against an interior wall. Move away from exterior wall windows, overhead lights, etc. Wait at least two minutes after shaking stops before leaving a building. Move to a clear area well away from structures or overhead hazards such as trees or power lines.
- Help disabled persons evacuate the building. Follow instructions of Building Emergency Team members and University Police.
- Tune to radio station KSJS 90.7 FM for campus information.

MEDICAL EMERGENCIES:

- Call 911. Give your name, the nature of the emergency and your specific location. Tell the University Police Dispatcher what assistance you need (ambulance, paramedics, etc.)
- Assist the victim until help arrives. If you or someone in the area is trained in CPR perform CPR or Rescue Breathing if necessary. Stop the bleeding with direct pressure to the wound. Do not move a victim unless his or her life is in immediate danger. Do not leave victims unattended.
- For first aid, report in person to the Student Health Center weekdays from 8:00 am to 5:00 pm or call University Police at 924-2222.
- Leave by the nearest safe exit when you hear the building emergency alarm (fire alarm) or if you are told to do so by University Police or a Building Emergency Team member.
- Take keys, books, wallets or billfolds, prescription medicines and important personal belongings with you in case this building cannot be reentered immediately. Move at least 150 feet away from all structures.
- Use the stairs. Do not use elevators — in case of fire or earthquake many elevators stop in place and you may be trapped.
- Reenter a building only when University Police or Building Emergency Team members tell you that it is safe to do so.
