College of Education Mission Statement
The mission of the College of Education at San Jose State University is to prepare educators who have the knowledge, skills, dispositions and ethics that ensure equity and excellence for all students in a culturally diverse, technologically complex, global community.

Department of Special Education Mission Statement
The Department of Special Education prepares professionals to be effective educators, leaders in the field, and lifelong learners. We accomplish this goal in collaboration with other departments and community partners. Together we promote equity and excellence in our curricula and instruction by infusing evidence based best practices endorsed nationally.

Knowledge Base
This course is designed to address the California Commission on Teacher Credentialing requirement that new teachers or Interns be provided university support while in the teacher preparation program. Each Intern holds an “on-the-job-training” teacher position that requires coursework in the area in which they are teaching and support from a University Supervisor and from a district/school appointed Support Provider. Research from studies by Billingsley, Boe, the New Teacher Project and the Department of Education provided evidence that teacher support in the first years on the job is correlated for some groups with teacher retention in the job.

Description of Course
This course is designed for Interns from each of the Education Specialist credential programs who are in their 2nd and 3rd semesters, and/or who are not currently in a supervision courses, EDSE 105 or the last directed teaching course. Supervision will be provided during this meeting. Interns will discuss challenging aspects of their jobs and will problem solve solutions to case studies that describe common situations from former Interns in the program. Collaboration and effective practices for collaborative group work is addressed in the class. The Interns update and reflect about their Induction Plan goals. The goals for this class are for the Interns to learn to collaboratively interact with others on a team to problem solve situations, and to provide support to each other.

Pre-Requisites
1. Employment as an Intern teacher of students (k-graduation) with mild to moderate, moderate to severe, young children with disabilities or deaf or hard of hearing students
2. Intern Credential in Mild to Moderate Disabilities, Moderate to Severe Disabilities, Early Childhood Special Education
3. Enrollment in the Collaborative Intern Program
4. Not enrolled in a supervision class this semester (EDSE 105 or student teaching)

Grading Procedure
EDSE 105X is a Credit/No Credit class. Credit for EDSE 105X will be earned if the Intern participates (the entire time) in each of the five seminars over the semester, and turns in assigned homework assignments.

Program Standard 4: Effective Communication and Collaborative Partnerships
The program provides instruction in communicating effectively with (1) individuals with disabilities and their parents, and primary caregivers, (2) general/special education teachers, and co-teachers, related service personnel, and administrators, (3) trans-disciplinary teams including but not limited to multi-tiered intervention, Section 504, IEP/IFSP/ITP. The program provides opportunities for the candidate to establish and work in partnerships to design, implement, and evaluate appropriate, integrated services based on individual student needs. The program informs candidates of the importance of communicating effectively with the business community, public and non-public agencies, to provide the cohesive delivery of services, and bridge transitional stages across the life span for all learners.

University Policies

Academic integrity

Your commitment as a student to learning is evidenced by your enrollment at San Jose State University. The University’s Academic Integrity policy, located at http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/S07-2.htm, requires you to be honest in all your academic course work. Faculty members are required to report all infractions to the office of Student Conduct and Ethical Development. The Student Conduct and Ethical Development website is available at http://www.sa.sjsu.edu/judicial_affairs/index.html. Instances of academic dishonesty will not be tolerated. Cheating on exams or plagiarism (presenting the work of another as your own, or the use of another person’s ideas without giving proper credit) will result in a failing grade and sanctions by the University. For this class, all assignments are to be completed by the individual student unless otherwise specified. If you would like to include your assignment or any material you have submitted, or plan to submit for another class, please note that SJSU’s Academic Policy S07-2 requires approval of instructors.

Campus Policy in Compliance with the American Disabilities Act

If you need course adaptations or accommodations because of a disability, or if you need to make special arrangements in case the building must be evacuated, please make an appointment with me as soon as possible, or see me during office hours. Presidential Directive 97-03 requires that students with disabilities requesting accommodations must register with the Disability Resource Center (DRC) at http://www.drc.sjsu.edu/ to establish a record of their disability.

Assignments and Grading Policy

Students will be expected to attend each of the five seminars, participate in the Case Study session in which a Case Study will be read, and a problem solving collaborative activity with other Interns in the class will be conducted. Students will summarize the sessions on a worksheet, and this will be shared with the class. If a student is unable to attend a seminar, a make-up assignment can be negotiated with the instructor that will involve working with the Case Study with at least two others from the school. Students will get credit (CR) for this course for attendance and participation in the five class sessions.
