San José State University - San José, California

ANNOUNCEMENT OF POSITION AVAILABILITY

Subject to Budgetary Approval

Specialization: Director, Doctor of Audiology Program
Job Opening ID (JOID): 24834
Rank: Associate Professor or Professor

Qualifications:
The Lurie College of Education at San José State University invites applications for the position of Director for the Doctor of Audiology Program. The Director will provide visionary leadership for the Doctor of Audiology Program and must have a substantive record of published research, teaching effectiveness, and professional achievements. Prior experience in academic administrative positions is preferred. The successful candidate will have a Ph.D. in Audiology or doctorate in a related field. The successful candidate should have achieved and maintained a current Certificate of Clinical Competence in Audiology (CCC-A) from the American Speech-Language-Hearing Association or should be a Fellow of the American Academy of Audiology and must meet qualifications for appointment as a tenured full professor (rank of associate professor with at least three years of experience will be considered). Applicants should demonstrate awareness of and sensitivity to educational goals of a multicultural population as might have been gained in cross-cultural study, training, teaching, and other comparable experience.

Responsibilities:
The Lurie College of Education is currently developing the Doctor of Audiology Program with anticipated student matriculation in the Fall 2020 semester. The Director will play a major role in developing and maintaining multiple aspects of the program, including faculty recruitment, student success, departmental policies, program learning outcomes, research and clinical facilities, and the curriculum. Specific responsibilities for the Director include: 1) facilitating professional development activities and providing mentorship for faculty, 2) collaborating across university departments to develop inter-professional training opportunities for students, 3) completing all accreditation reporting requirements for ACAE and CAA, 4) advocating for the Doctor of Audiology Program with university administration, 5) supporting an evidence-based research agenda for the Doctor of Audiology Program. The candidate must address the needs of a student population of great diversity – in age, cultural background, ethnicity, primary language and academic preparation – through course materials, teaching strategies and advisement.

Salary Range: Commensurate with qualifications and experience.

Starting Date: August 15, 2019

Eligibility: Employment is contingent upon proof of eligibility to work in the United States.

Application Procedure:
For full consideration, send a letter of application addressing the qualifications of the candidate for the position, statement of teaching philosophy, research agenda and leadership style, curriculum vitae, up to three publication reprints, and at least three original letters of reference with contact information by January 11, 2019 to http://apply.interfolio.com/57715 or Dr. June McCullough, Recruitment Committee Chairperson at june.mccullough@sjsu.edu. This position will remain open until filled.

Please include Job Opening ID (JOID) on all correspondence.
This position is an excellent opportunity for scholars interested in a career at an institution that is a national leader in graduating URM students. San Jose State University has achieved HSI (Hispanic Serving Institution) and AANAPISI (Asian American and Native American Pacific Islander Serving Institution) designation; 40% of our student population are first-generation students and 38% are Pell-qualified. As a result, the university is ranked fourth nationally in increasing student upward mobility.

San José State University is California’s oldest institution of public higher learning. The campus is located on the southern end of San Francisco Bay in downtown San José (Pop. 1,000,000), hub of the world-famous Silicon Valley high-technology research and development center. Many of California’s most popular national, recreational, and cultural attractions are conveniently close. A member of the 23-campus CSU system, San José State University enrolls approximately 30,000 students, a significant percentage of whom are members of minority groups. The University is committed to increasing the diversity of its faculty so our disciplines, students and the community can benefit from multiple ethnic and gender perspectives.

San José State University is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer. We consider qualified applicants for employment without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, age, gender, gender identity/expression, sexual orientation, genetic information, medical condition, marital status, veteran status, or disability. This policy applies to all San José State University students, faculty, and staff as well as University programs and activities. Reasonable accommodations are made for applicants with disabilities who self-disclose. Note that all San José State University employees are considered mandated reporters under the California Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act and are required to comply with the requirements set forth in CSU Executive Order 1083 as a condition of employment.

A background check (including a criminal records check) must be completed satisfactorily before any candidate can be offered a position with the CSU. Failure to satisfactorily complete the background check may affect the application status of applicants or continued employment of current CSU employees who apply for the position.
