Are you finding yourself struggling to afford food while attending SJSU? You are not alone.

Free Food Resources

Hall ...........................................
FOB
DBH
CP
HOV
KING
IS BBC
Boccardo Business Administration ................
ADM
CVA
Art Building......................
ART
Center ....................................
A
HB
CAR
ASH
CYA
CVC
CVB
CC
ENG
DH
House ....................................
DC
Library ....................................
CYB
Complex..................................
CL

Associated Students Community Garden ...............................................................................................372 East San Salvador St.

Breakfast Club .....................................................................Student Services Center 600/ 9th Street Parking Garage 10am-1pm
Food For Thought ...................................................................................Student Wellness Center Lounge, 1st Floor. 10am-5pm
Student Housing ................................................................................ For students living on campus only, inquire with your RA
Business Success Center .....................................................................................................Boccardo Business Center (BBC) 008
Associated Students General Services Center ..................................................................................... Student Union East Wing
Student Wellness Center ................................................................................................................... Wellness Lounge, 1st floor

Food Shelf locations vary based on normal business hours for each department M-F 8-5pm.

The SJSU Student Hunger Committee

Our mission is to address food insecurity within our campus community, in efforts to empower San José State University students to succeed academically. We are a collaboration between Associated Students, Counseling Services, Current Students, University Chapel, Financial Aid, Housing, Spartan Shops, Student Health Center, Student Affairs and other concerned parties and individuals.

You can make a difference. Donate online today. To learn more or donate, visit sjusu.edu/food