STUDENT CONSENT & RELEASE FORM
Observation, Printed Material, Photography, Audiotape, and Media Recordings

Consent is hereby granted to the Kay A. Armstead Center for Communication Disorders at San José State University in San Jose, California, to observe, use printed materials, take photographs, make audiotape recordings, take videotape recorder television sound and pictures and take other types of media recordings (hereafter referred to as “recordings”) of ____________________________, singly or in a group for purposes set forth hereafter.

It is understood that said observation, printed materials, photographs, audiotapes and recordings are to be used for the purpose of instructional telecasting, both open or closed circuit; for the publication of educational and/or marketing materials; and/or for other teaching purposes by San Jose State University.

It is agreed that I shall not have any right, title, or interest in the printed materials, photographs, audiotapes or recordings nor shall there arise or vest in me any cause of action for damages for injuries, other than physical injury which may be proximately caused by negligence, and without contributory negligence on my part, by virtue of the making of said photographs, audiotapes and recordings in the manner and for the purposes herein described.

All parties hereby agree to comply with the foregoing terms.

Student Signature ____________________________________ Date: ____________

Witness Name (please print) _____________________________________________

Signature of Witness ____________________________________ Date: ____________