Department of Administration and Higher Education
“The vision of the Educational Administration Program is to prepare courageous, reflective leaders who will guide their educational communities to create and sustain schools in which all students and staff use their minds and hearts well.”

The School Administrator: Leader in the Community
EdAd 205 (3 units)

Course Description
EdAd is a core course leading to the Preliminary Administrative Services Credential and/or the Masters Degree in Educational Administration/Supervision. The focus of the course is the development of a knowledge base and skills in order to develop a stronger relationship and increased collaboration between our ever-increasing diverse schools and communities.

Course Purposes
The course will prepare prospective administrators to become knowledgeable of the cultural/socio-economic makeup of our students/communities (national, state, regional, local), and to develop the attitudes and skills necessary to involve and utilize the total community resources in the enterprise of schooling.

OUR EDUCATIONAL LEADERSHIP THEMES:
Administrative Concepts and Management Strategies
Role of Schooling in A Democratic Society
Building Equity in Diverse Communities
Managing and Leading Change

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

GRADES

You determine the grade you earn in this seminar. The assumption is because you are professionals your grade will be an A. You determine if the grade is lower. All assignments are required as well as regular attendance. If you are critically engaged-identifying new questions, demonstrating curiosity, assuming diverse perspectives and challenging assumptions as well as participating through personal engagement, praxis, personal reflections and completing assignments at a timely, thoughtful, reflective and professional level, you will earn a grade of A or credit for a credit/no credit course.

ATTENDANCE AND PARTICIPATION IN THE SEMINARS.

The expectation for all graduate seminars is that educational leaders will attend and participate in all of the presentations, large and small group activities, and reading and writing assignments. If a professional conflict or an emergency intervenes, professional courtesy requires that the graduate student notify the instructor of the course in advance. If conflict warrants it, the student may request a substitute learning assignment from the instructor and the work may be made up by the date set by the instructor. If no advance notice is given (cutting a class), then the work cannot be made up and a lower letter grade should be expected.

Essential Questions

What is the impact of the changing student/community demographics on my school or district?

What leadership skills will be required to provide educational leadership in a very diverse/pluralistic setting? Which skills do I now possess? Which skills will I need to develop?

What is my specific professional and personal action plan to assure and assess my continual growth as an effective leader in the area of school-community relations?

Link theory to practice

• Students will apply theoretical concepts of this course to practice at their worksites
