COURSE REQUIREMENTS

GRADES

You determine the grade you earn in this seminar. The assumption is because you are professionals your grade will be an A. You determine if the grade is lower. All assignments are required as well as regular attendance. If you are critically engaged-identifying new questions, demonstrating curiosity, assuming diverse perspectives and challenging assumptions as well as participating through personal engagement, praxis, personal reflections and completing assignments at a timely, thoughtful, reflective and professional level, you will earn a grade of A or credit for a credit/no credit course.

ATTENDANCE AND PARTICIPATION IN THE SEMINARS.
The expectation for all graduate seminars is that educational leaders will attend and participate in all of the presentations, large and small group activities, and reading and writing assignments. If a professional conflict or an emergency intervenes, professional courtesy requires that the graduate student notify the instructor of the course in advance. If conflict warrants it, the student may request a substitute learning assignment from the instructor and the work may be made up by the date set by the instructor. If no advance notice is given (cutting a class), then the work cannot be made up and a lower letter grade should be expected.

ESSENTIAL QUESTIONS

What leadership skills are needed to develop, implement and evaluate specialized programs to meet the needs of diverse student populations?

What is my professional and personal action plan to assure and assess my continual growth as an effective leader in the areas of specialized school programs and student advocacy?

LINK THEORY TO PRACTICE
Students will apply theoretical concepts of this course to practice at their worksites.
