ANNOUNCEMENT OF POSITION AVAILABILITY

Subject to Budgetary Approval

Part-Time Lecturer: ART EDUCATION

Department of Art and Art History

Qualifications:
Candidates should possess a Master of Arts Degree in Art Education or equivalent degree and a demonstrated record of 2-5 years of successful college level teaching in addition to equivalent experience teaching art in K-12 public schools. The candidate should hold or be qualified to hold a California Single Subject Credential in Art. The successful candidate will have demonstrated the ability to teach all levels of Art Education classes to both art education students and other undergraduates through a solid foundation in visual, analytical, communication, and teaching skills as well as having a thorough knowledge of the single subject credentialing requirements for elementary and secondary art teachers. The candidate should demonstrate the ability to interact and/or collaborate with colleagues in a multidisciplinary and cross-disciplinary environment and demonstrate a command of image making and visual exploration using electronic media and traditional media. The Candidate should also have a strong working knowledge of the California Visual and Performing Arts Framework and Content Standards and its application to the development of curriculum. Candidates should demonstrate knowledge of both the theoretical and practical constraints and possibilities of classroom teaching.

Responsibilities:
Candidate must address the needs of a student population of great diversity – in age, cultural background, ethnicity, primary language and academic preparation – through course materials, teaching strategies and advisement. The Candidate will teach a range of courses in the Art Education area to students in our BA Art--Preparation for Teaching major and to others interested in art education, including courses in theories of art education and in studio art. Additional responsibilities will include the supervision of field experiences and student teaching at both the junior and secondary level.

Salary Range: Commensurate with qualifications and experience.

Starting Date: January 22, 2014

Eligibility: Employment is contingent upon proof of eligibility to work in the United States. A lecturer in Art Education must hold a California Single Subject Credential in Art.

Application procedures:
For full consideration, send a letter of application, curriculum vitae, statement of teaching interest/philosophy, contact information for three references, 20 examples of student work with reflection on that work, a variety of unit/lessons plans (including scope and sequence of semester plan), student handouts, assessment criteria--on a CD/DVD in executable Macintosh files. Please provide SASE if return of materials desired. Deadline for application: August 31, 2013.

Chair, Art Education Search Committee
Department of Art and Art History
San José State University
One Washington Square
San Jose, CA 95192-0089

San José State University is California’s oldest institution of public higher learning. The campus is located on the southern end of San Francisco Bay in downtown San José (Pop. 945,942), hub of the world-famous Silicon Valley high-technology research and development center. Many of California’s most popular national, recreational, and cultural attractions are conveniently close. A member of the 23-campus CSU system, San José State University enrolls approximately 29,000 students, a significant percentage of whom are members of minority groups. The University is committed to increasing the diversity of its faculty so our disciplines, students and the community can benefit from multiple ethnic and gender perspectives.
San José State University is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer. We consider qualified applicants for employment without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, age, gender, gender identity/expression, sexual orientation, genetic information, medical condition, marital status, veteran status, or disability. This policy applies to all San José State University students, faculty, and staff as well as University programs and activities. Reasonable accommodations are made for applicants with disabilities who self-disclose. Note that all San José State University employees are considered mandated reporters under the California Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act and are required to comply with the requirements set forth in CSU Executive Order 1083 as a condition of employment.

A background check (including a criminal records check) must be completed satisfactorily before any candidate can be offered a position with the CSU. Failure to satisfactorily complete the background check may affect the application status of applicants or continued employment of current CSU employees who apply for the position.

The latest San José State University Safety 101 Uniform Campus Crime and Security Report is available. You may request a copy of San José State University’s annual safety report by contacting the University Police Department at (408) 924-2222 or by visiting the University Police Department website at (http://www.sjsu.edu/police).