Course Description

Psychology of Prejudice will focus on the psychology of prejudice, inequality, & discrimination. While there are many aspects to prejudice (i.e. very broad-ranging social and political consequences for individuals and groups), the purpose of this course is to explore the psychology of prejudice and discrimination in the US, the psychological factors involved, and the psychological effects on individuals and groups.

From both theoretical and experiential perspectives, we will explore issues relating to those who hold prejudiced attitudes and those who are targets of those attitudes. We will examine prejudice relating to race, ethnicity, gender, sexual orientation, age, etc.

Class sessions will include lectures, presentations by students in the class, in-class writing, discussions, and films. Activities that focus on prejudice and diversity will be an important part of classroom events. The class will engage in small group and individual experiential exercises designed to facilitate intrapersonal and interpersonal awareness of issues related to prejudice, discrimination, racial/ethnic identity, etc.

Prerequisites for the course are: 1. Completion of Core GE; 2. Satisfaction of Writing Skills text (WST); 3. Upper division standing (60 units); 4. Completion of, or coregistration in, 100W; and 5. Completion of Psyc 1 (General or Introductory Psychology).

Students will be given an opportunity to investigate topics in psychology related to prejudice and to practice applying critical thinking skills. Within the context of psychology, broad topic areas include (among others):

- stereotypes: formation, functions, maintenance, change
- the underlying psychological processes of prejudice: development & maintenance
- “old-fashioned” vs. “modern” racism
- ageism & sexism
Some class sessions will involve group discussions – either in small groups or in the whole class group. Therefore it is imperative that students read before each class and come prepared to actively participate in class discussions. The success of this class is directly dependent on participation by students.

 NOTE: Many topics in this course may evoke strong emotions. Within the framework of individual expression, students are expected to show respect for others and their viewpoints, even when those views are opposed to those of the student.

Learning Outcomes and Course Goals

SJSU Studies (AREA S) GE Learning Outcomes (GELO)

One of the main goals of this Area S course is that:

“Students will study the interrelationship of individuals, racial groups, and cultural groups to understand and appreciate issues of diversity, equality, and structured inequality in the U.S., its institutions, and its cultures”.

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

GELO #1: Describe how identities (i.e., religious, gender, ethnic, racial, class, sexual orientation, disability, and/or age) are shaped by cultural and societal influences within contexts of equality and inequality.

GELO #2: Describe historical, social, political, and economic processes producing diversity, equality, and structured inequalities in the U.S.

GELO #3: Describe social actions which have led to greater equality and social justice in the U.S. (i.e., religious, gender, ethnic, racial, class, sexual orientation, disability, and/or age).

GELO #4: Recognize and appreciate constructive interactions between people from different cultural, racial, and ethnic groups within the U.S.

GE Course Content Learning Outcomes

All courses in Area S of SJSU studies must also include the following Content Objectives to promote the above student learning outcomes:

Diversity -- Issues of diversity shall be incorporated in an appropriate manner

Writing -- Written assignments should include both in-class and out-of-class writing, giving students practice and feedback throughout the semester. Evaluative comments must be substantive, addressing the quality and form of writing. A single final term paper would not satisfy the requirement. A minimum of 3000 words of writing is required in a language and style appropriate for the discipline.

Civic learning -- Courses shall address the civic relevance of the topic in an appropriate manner.

Values clarification -- Students should demonstrate their ability to articulate and discuss their values, understand the source of those values, and engage in civil discourse.

Explanation of how course activity/assignments will be used in assessment of Area S Learning and Content Outcomes

GELO #1: Describe how identities (i.e., religious, gender, ethnic, racial, class, sexual orientation, disability, and/or age) are shaped by cultural and societal influences within contexts of equality and inequality

Activities/Assignment(s) used in assessment:

1. Media watch analysis -- One of the main goals of this assignment is to give students the opportunity to examine how one major cultural influence (i.e., the media) affects identities within our society. Students’ ability to analyze, discuss, and critically evaluate these media influences in their individual papers will be used to assess this objective.

GELO #2: Describe historical, social, political, and economic processes producing diversity, equality, and structured inequalities in the U.S.

Activities/Assignment(s) used in assessment:

1. Interview assignment -- The purpose of this paper is to allow students to interview a person who has been the target of prejudice/discrimination to get a “first-hand” account of their experiences. The content of students’ introduction section of their papers will be evaluated to assess their ability to describe the various processes outlined in this learning objective. The introduction section will be used specifically for this purpose since students will be required to describe the relevance of these processes to their interview findings.

2. In-class writing -- Students’ performance on two in-class writing assignments will also be used to assess this learning objective. Specifically, the writing assignments on the Japanese internment camps during WWII and on “Racial profiling” are particularly relevant since they seem to relate most directly to processes described under this objective.
3. Class participation (Tunnel of Oppression activity/paper—Spring semesters only) -- Students’ reflections about and responses to questions about their visit to the “Tunnel of Oppression” will also be used to assess this objective. As described earlier in the greensheet, this particular activity is specifically designed to increase students’ awareness of these processes and their impact on equality and inequality in the U.S.

GELO #3: Describe social actions which have led to greater equality and social justice in the U.S. (i.e., religious, gender, ethnic, racial, class, sexual orientation, disability, and/or age)

Activities/Assignment(s) used in assessment:

1. In-class writing -- Students’ performance on the in-class writing assignment regarding the topic of Affirmative Action will be used in assessment of this objective. In particular, students’ understanding of this issue, their ability to describe the arguments for and against it, and their knowledge of how it has impacted minorities and society as a whole will be evaluated.

GELO #4: Recognize and appreciate constructive interactions between people from different cultural, racial, and ethnic groups within the U.S.

Activities/Assignment(s) used in assessment:

1. Out-of-class writing (Stereotype reduction paper) -- Students’ performance on the Stereotype reduction paper will also be used in assessing this objective. In this paper, students will be required to describe at least three strategies they believe would be successful in reducing their negative stereotypes and/or prejudices about another social group and clearly explain the reasons they believe these strategies would be effective.

Content Objective #1: Diversity -- Issues of diversity shall be incorporated in an appropriate manner.

Activities/Assignment(s) used in assessment:

1. In-class writing -- Students’ performance on the in-class writing assignment regarding “Diversity in the Bay Area” will be used to assess this objective. In this assignment, students will explore whether or not the racial/cultural/ethnic diversity of the Bay Area makes prejudice/discrimination more or less likely.

Content Objective #2: Writing -- Written assignments should include both in-class and out-of-class writing, giving students practice and feedback throughout the semester. Evaluative comments must be substantive, addressing the quality and form of writing. A minimum of 3000 words of writing is required in a language and style appropriate for the discipline.
1. Interview paper, Media watch analysis, in-class writing, and out-of-class papers -- Students’ performance on all writing assignments will be used to assess this content objective. It should also be noted that students are highly encouraged to seek instructor feedback regarding the major writing assignments in the course to help improve their writing skills.

Content Objective #3: Civic Learning -- Courses shall address the civic relevance of the topic in an appropriate manner.

1. In-class writing -- Students’ in-class writing assignments will be reviewed to assess their ability to describe how the paper topics (i.e., racial profiling, affirmative action, etc) impact individuals as well as society as a whole.

2. Class participation (Tunnel of Oppression activity/paper) -- Students’ understanding of how the issues presented in the Tunnel impacts society will also be assessed in this activity.

Content Objective #4: Values Clarification -- Students should demonstrate their ability to articulate and discuss their values, understand the source of those values, and engage in civil discourse.

1. Out-of-class writing (Reflection paper) -- Students’ performance on the Reflection paper writing assignment will be used to assess this content objective. In this paper, students are asked to write about their own prejudices, what they are, their development, their effects on themselves and on others, how and why they’ve changed or stayed the same.

2. In-class discussions -- Students’ participation in in-class discussions will also be used to assess this objective.

 NOTE: All Area S Learning and Content Objectives will also be assessed through the Pre and Post assessment tests given at the beginning and end of the course. Students’ performance on these tests will be used only to measure whether or not these objectives were met. Students’ scores will not be used in computing their final course grade.

Explanation of how Pre and Post Assessment tests will be used in Assessment of Area S Learning and Content Objectives

1. To assess Learning Outcomes 1-4, multiple-choice items designed to measure students’ understanding of the various factors and processes outlined in each learning objective will be included in the assessment tests. Students’ performance on questions specifically related to each learning objective will be identified. Students’ scores on these items at the beginning of the semester will then be compared with their scores at the end of the term to gauge whether taking this course increased their understanding of each of these processes.

2. To assess students’ understanding of whether or not the Learning and Content Outcomes were met, the following activities/measures will also be included in the assessment tests:

a. Student ratings -- In the Post-Assessment test, students will also be asked to rate (on a likert-type scale) the extent to which they believed each Learning and Course Objective was met.

b. Student opinions of how course activities/assignments related to Learning and Content Objectives

In addition to their ratings, students will be asked to indicate which course activity/assignment they believed to be most relevant to each learning/content objective and to describe why they thought it was effective or ineffective in meeting the goals of each objective. This activity will not only help to measure students’ understanding of the objectives and their goals, but it will also aid in making changes/modification/improvements to the course itself.

NOTE: “Courses to meet Areas R, S, and V of SJSU Studies must be taken from three different departments or distinct academic units.”

Course Learning Outcomes (CLOs): Upon successful completion of the Psychology of Prejudice course, students will be able to:

- CLO 1: Recognize and describe how prejudice shapes the experiences of people who are most often the targets of prejudice in the U.S. (i.e., racial, ethnic, gender, age, sexual orientation, etc).
- CLO 2: Recognize and describe the underlying psychological processes which, in conjunction with societal forces, lead to the development and maintenance of stereotypes and prejudice.
- CLO 3: Apply critical thinking skills to identify and analyze prejudicial beliefs and behaviors
- CLO 4: Articulate the effects of stereotypes and prejudice in their own experiences.

Program Learning Outcomes (PLOs): Upon successful completion of the psychology major requirements…

- PLO1 -- Knowledge Base of Psychology -- Students will be able to identify, describe, and communicate the major concepts, theoretical perspectives, empirical findings, and historical trends in psychology.
- PLO2 -- Research Methods in Psychology -- Students will be able to design, implement, and communicate basic research methods in psychology, including research design, data analysis, and interpretations.
- PLO3 -- Critical Thinking Skills in Psychology -- Students will be able to use critical and creative thinking, skeptical inquiry, and a scientific approach to address issues related to behavior and mental processes.
- PLO4 -- Application of Psychology -- Students will be able to apply psychological principles to individual, interpersonal, group, and societal issues.
• PLO5 -- Values in Psychology -- Students will value empirical evidence, tolerate ambiguity, act ethically, and recognize their role and responsibility as a member of society.

Required Texts/Readings

Textbook

Course Requirements and Assignments

SJSU classes are designed such that in order to be successful, it is expected that students will spend a minimum of forty-five hours for each unit of credit (normally three hours per unit per week), including preparing for class, participating in course activities, completing assignments, and so on. More details about student workload can be found in University Policy S12-3 at http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/S12-3.pdf.

Your grade in the course will be based on the following:

1. Examinations (50 pts each. 3 exams = 150 pts total)

There will be 3 in-class exams and they will consist of 30 multiple choice questions and 2 short answer essay questions. Exams will be designed to measure your knowledge and understanding of the material discussed in lecture as well as your textbook. Each multiple choice question will be worth 1 point and the essay questions will be worth 10 points each. So each exam will be worth a total of 50 points. The final exam will not be cumulative and will be based only on the material covered after Exam 2.

You will need a SCANTRON 882E, a #2 pencil, and a good eraser for each exam. No bluebook is necessary.

NOTE: THERE WILL BE NO MAKE-UP EXAMINATIONS GIVEN.

2. Activity Assignments

Each student will participate in two activity assignments -- individual interview and a media-watch analysis. These 2 assignments will be organized around the spheres ('isms) which we are investigating in this class, i.e. race, gender, sexual orientation, abilities, and age.

Students will choose which spheres they would like to investigate in each assignment with the following limitation: for each student, each of the two activity assignments will involve work on different spheres. For example, Student A chooses to do the media watch investigation of issues of race and does an interview with a person with a disability. This will help assure that each student has a chance to actively learn about different spheres of prejudice.
The interviews will be completed and graded individually. However, the media analysis will have both a group and an individual component. For the group aspect of the analysis, the whole group will receive the same grade. The individuals will receive a separate grade for the individual component.

The two activities are described below.

a) Interview Assignment (Maximum page length = 5 pages. Individual paper = 20 pts)

Your assignment is to choose someone from a target group to interview about their personal experiences with prejudice, discrimination, inequality, tolerance, etc. The interview should focus on their perspective as a target group member, e.g. person of color or gay/lesbian or person with a disability, or person with multiracial identity, etc.

To prepare for the interview, I will provide you with a written guide to doing a good interview. In addition, you should find, read, and discuss in your paper at least 3 journal articles of your choice. In this discussion, it is important for you to describe how the content and/or findings of these articles are relevant to the experiences of the person you are interviewing. You should include discussion of these relevant articles in the Introduction and/or Discussion sections of your interview paper (see description of these sections below).

Also, students will spend some time in class in small groups helping each other devise interesting and appropriate interview questions. I will form the in-class groups on the basis of your choice of interview. For example, all students choosing to interview someone about their experiences with prejudice as a person with a disability will be grouped together. The questions that the group creates will be submitted to me prior to interviews.

The person you interview may or may not be a relative or friend of yours. Arrange a time free from interruptions and other people in a setting comfortable for the person being interviewed. Take careful notes during the interview or tape it (with permission from the person being interviewed) and review it later.

 You will turn in a 4-5 page typed summary of the interview and your reactions. The written summary should include the following 5 sections and will be worth a total of 20 points:

♦ Introduction - explain who you chose and why; their relationship to you; which articles you read in preparation for the interview and discuss why you chose to include those specific articles in your paper. Also discuss any historical, social, political, and/or economic factors that may have contributed to any prejudice/discrimination your interviewee has experienced

♦ Methodology - setting, procedures, etc.; i.e. who was present; whether you taped, took notes, etc; any unusual aspects, e.g. their brother joined you half way through; in other words, anything that might influence your findings

♦ Findings - content of the interview, i.e. questions and responses (you can do this in a summary narrative format or in a question/response format)
Responses to the interview – yours and the subject’s; be sure to include your emotional responses as well as your cognitive responses

Discussion -- discuss class readings and/or class lectures about prejudice and their relevance to your findings in this interview, describe findings of any articles that are relevant to your interview and their implications for your findings

Reference page – cite the articles that you discussed in your paper

b) Media watch analysis (Individual reference page with justifications = 15 pts & Group Poster of findings = 10 pts)

You and members of your group will observe and record how people from the sphere you are assigned to investigate are portrayed on television, the movies, or in print advertisements. A detailed description of the assignment will be presented to you later in class.

For the group portion of this assignment (worth 10 pts), each group will:

1) perform planned observations;
2) prepare a Poster describing their methodology, stating their research questions/comparisons, & briefly summarizing their findings.
   Guidelines for the Poster will be provided.

For the individual portion of this assignment, each student will prepare a Reference Page with justifications (worth 15 pts) -- 5 page maximum. This Reference page should include

1) 3 – 5 scholarly articles/references for your media analysis
2) A BRIEF summary of the findings of these articles
3) A concise discussion of WHY you chose the article/reference and how The article relates to your project and your own media findings.

3. In-class writing (10 pts). Several times during the semester, you will be asked to write about your own opinions, beliefs, values, and reflections about videos we will watch in class and/or "controversial" topics relevant to the issues of prejudice, discrimination, equality, and/or inequality. Some of the topics you may be asked to write about include “racial profiling”, “same-sex marriages”, “affirmative action,” and the Japanese internment camps during WWII. In addition to writing about your own values regarding these topics, you will also be asked to discuss the civic relevance of this topic for the “real” world. In other words, I want you to discuss what you think the implications are of each of these topics for people in general and for society as a whole.
4. Out-of-class writing (10 pts total). In addition to the in-class writing, you will be required to write two short papers (maximum 3 pages each). These include:

   a. Stereotype reduction paper (5 pts). This assignment will be a paper describing a negative stereotype/prejudice you may have about another group and discussing how you might reduce this it. To write this paper, you must first read Chapter 9 in your text. Then you will describe your negative attitudes about a particular group and where you think your prejudice comes from. Most importantly, you must discuss at least 3 specific techniques/strategies that you believe will be effective in reducing your negative prejudice and clearly explain why you think these ways would be successful. Maximum length of this paper is 3 typewritten double-spaced pages.

   b. Reflection paper (5 pts). In this paper, you will describe your reflections on what you learned in this class about your own prejudices -- what they are, their development, their effects on you, how and why they’ve changed this semester or why they’ve stayed the same, etc. Please also include any feedback you have about the class/assignments/activities, etc. This can include the things you liked/disliked about the course, things that you would like to have learned more about, etc. Maximum length of this paper is 3 typewritten double-spaced pages. This will be due about one week before the last class.

5. Class participation (15 pts total). Because this is in part an experiential class, attendance and participation are crucial. You cannot participate if you do not come to class. Thus, absences will diminish the level of participation you can achieve in the class, and will reduce your grade. Many classroom activities and discussions will supplement the reading and students are responsible for all material, assignments, and explanations given in class, even if they were absent.

   a. Other misc. classroom activities. You will also be given points based on your own participation in various classroom activities throughout the semester. This may include small group (5-6 people) discussions & attendance at the poster presentations & panel discussions.

   NOTE that University policy F69-24 states, “Students should attend all meetings of their classes, not only because they are responsible for material discussed therein, but because active participation is frequently essential to insure maximum benefit for all members of the class. Attendance per se shall not be used as a criterion for grading.”

Important Notes:

1) To receive complete credit on your papers, you must pay careful attention to grammar, spelling, sentence construction, etc. Spell and grammar checkers do not catch all errors - you must PROOFREAD IT! Even better, have someone else proofread it. Papers that contain many spelling and grammatical errors will result in substantial point reduction.

2.) STUDENTS ARE STRONGLY ENCOURAGED TO SEEK INSTRUCTOR FEEDBACK ON THE MAJOR WRITING ASSIGNMENTS (Interview paper, Media analysis report) IN THIS COURSE.
I would be happy to look over rough drafts of your papers and give you feedback about the content and quality of your writing to help you get the best grade possible on your writing assignments.

 However, I can only give you meaningful constructive feedback if you give me your rough draft at least 1 WEEK prior to the paper’s due date! I cannot read and give feedback on drafts that are submitted to me right before the paper is due. Also, you need sufficient time to address any feedback and/or problems with your paper before it is due.

So to receive feedback on your papers, please plan ahead and give me your drafts early (see course schedule for rough draft turn-in dates) so you can take advantage of this opportunity to improve your papers.

3) Papers handed in late will be lowered by one full grade for each day late (e.g. an A paper would become a B; a B paper would become a C, etc).

4) Note that part of the media analysis will be done in groups. It is up to group members to decide how to best distribute the work load equally among the individual group members. The entire group will get the same grade on the group portion of this assignment so it is important that each member of the team do all they can to contribute to the group product.

NOTE that University policy F69-24 at http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/F69-24.pdf states that “Students should attend all meetings of their classes, not only because they are responsible for material discussed therein, but because active participation is frequently essential to insure maximum benefit for all members of the class. Attendance per se shall not be used as a criterion for grading.”

Note that “All students have the right, within a reasonable time, to know their academic scores, to review their grade-dependent work, and to be provided with explanations for the determination of their course grades.” See University Policy F13-1 at http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/F13-1.pdf for more details.

Classroom Protocol

Please practice the following guidelines to help the class run more smoothly as well as to limit the amount of distractions that occur.

1. Please TURN OFF all cell phones & DO NOT TEXT during class time. If you receive an important call/text during class, please step outside of the classroom should you need to respond.
2. Please REMOVE all head/ear phones during class. DO NOT LISTEN TO MUSIC, SURF THE WEB, CHECK YOUR FACEBOOK, INSTAGRAM, TWITTER, ETC. during class time.
3. If you arrive late, please come in as quietly as you can and sit in the back of the room.
4. If you have to leave early, please do so quietly and sit next to the door so you don’t distract other people.
5. Don’t talk when your instructor is speaking or when other students are asking questions.
6. Please be respectful of other people’s experiences and comments even though you might not agree with what they are saying.

USE OF LAPTOPS IN THE CLASSROOM

Laptops are permitted in the classroom for NOTE-TAKING PURPOSES ONLY. If you use a laptop to take notes, please sit at the back or on the sides of the classroom so that your screen will not be a distraction to the rest of the students in the class.

Use of laptops for any other purposes (e.g., non-class related activities like emailing friends or surfing the web) will not be permitted. Students not abiding by these guidelines will be asked to turn off their laptop and will not be allowed to bring it into the classroom in the future.
University Policies

General Expectations, Rights and Responsibilities of the Student

As members of the academic community, students accept both the rights and responsibilities incumbent upon all members of the institution. Students are encouraged to familiarize themselves with SJSU’s policies and practices pertaining to the procedures to follow if and when questions or concerns about a class arises. See University Policy S90–5 at http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/S90-5.pdf. More detailed information on a variety of related topics is available in the SJSU catalog, at http://info.sjsu.edu/web-dbgen/narr/catalog/rec-12234.12506.html. In general, it is recommended that students begin by seeking clarification or discussing concerns with their instructor. If such conversation is not possible, or if it does not serve to address the issue, it is recommended that the student contact the Department Chair as a next step.

Dropping and Adding

Students are responsible for understanding the policies and procedures about add/drop, grade forgiveness, etc. Refer to the current semester’s Catalog Policies section at http://info.sjsu.edu/static/catalog/policies.html. Add/drop deadlines can be found on the current academic year calendars document on the Academic Calendars webpage at http://www.sjsu.edu/provost/services/academic_calendars/. The Late Drop Policy is available at http://www.sjsu.edu/aars/policies/latedrops/policy/. Students should be aware of the current deadlines and penalties for dropping classes.

Information about the latest changes and news is available at the Advising Hub at http://www.sjsu.edu/advising/.

Consent for Recording of Class and Public Sharing of Instructor Material

University Policy S12-7, http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/S12-7.pdf, requires students to obtain instructor’s permission to record the course and the following items to be included in the syllabus:

- “Common courtesy and professional behavior dictate that you notify someone when you are recording him/her. You must obtain the instructor’s permission to make audio or video recordings in this class. Such permission allows the recordings to be used for your private, study purposes only. The recordings are the intellectual property of the instructor; you have not been given any rights to reproduce or distribute the material.”
  - It is suggested that the greensheet include the instructor’s process for granting permission, whether in writing or orally and whether for the whole semester or on a class by class basis.
  - In classes where active participation of students or guests may be on the recording, permission of those students or guests should be obtained as well.
- “Course material developed by the instructor is the intellectual property of the instructor and cannot be shared publicly without his/her approval. You may not publicly share or upload instructor generated material for this course such as exam questions, lecture notes, or homework solutions without instructor consent.”
Academic integrity

Your commitment, as a student, to learning is evidenced by your enrollment at San Jose State University. The University Academic Integrity Policy S07-2 at http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/S07-2.pdf requires you to be honest in all your academic course work. Faculty members are required to report all infractions to the office of Student Conduct and Ethical Development. The Student Conduct and Ethical Development website is available at http://www.sjsu.edu/studentconduct/.

Campus Policy in Compliance with the American Disabilities Act

If you need course adaptations or accommodations because of a disability, or if you need to make special arrangements in case the building must be evacuated, please make an appointment with me as soon as possible, or see me during office hours. Presidential Directive 97-03 at http://www.sjsu.edu/president/docs/directives/PD_1997-03.pdf requires that students with disabilities requesting accommodations must register with the Accessible Education Center (AEC) at http://www.sjsu.edu/aec to establish a record of their disability.
