Course Description
This course examines theoretical foundations and applications of evidence-based best practices for students with Autism Spectrum Disorders and Moderate/Severe disabilities including but not limited to social language interventions, social stories, integrated playgroups, positive behavior support, self-advocacy skills, inclusive education, recreation and leisure, and special interventions for young children.
Knowledge Base

The foundation for this course is built upon the research and theories of individuals who originally identified and researched ASD, including Leo Kanner, Lorna Wing, Uta Frith, and Hans Asperger. There are many different methodologies and instructional and behavioral strategies for working with individuals with ASD. The evidence-based best practices for students with ASD defined and reviewed in this course are drawn from the most recent research from the National Professional Development Center on Autism Spectrum Disorders and the works and writings of Ivar Lovaas (Discrete Trial Training and Applied Behavior Analysis), Koegel & Koegel (Pivotal Response Training), Eric Schopler (TEACCH), Rogers, Vismara, & Dawson (Early Start Denver Model), Stanley Greenspan (FloorTime), Mahoney & MacDonald (Responsive Teaching Curriculum), Dunlap, Fox, and Strain (Positive Behavior Supports), Carol Gray (Social Stories), Pamela Wolfberg (Integrated Play Groups), Michelle Garcia Winner (communication and pragmatics) and Tony Atwood (Cognitive Behavior Therapy). First hand experience of life with ASD comes from Stephen Shore, Temple Grandin and others.

Course Goals

This course is intended to assist students to meet the competencies specified in the following CCTC Education Specialist Program Standards and Autism Spectrum Disorders Added Authorization Standards (ASDAA):

Program Standard 11: Typical and Atypical Development

The program prepares candidates to demonstrate comprehensive knowledge of typical and atypical human development from the prenatal stage through adulthood including knowledge of developmental stages and their implications for learning. Candidates will demonstrate comprehensive knowledge of atypical development associated with various disabilities and risk conditions (e.g. visual impairment, autism spectrum disorders, cerebral palsy), resilience and protective factors (e.g. attachment, temperament), and their implications for learning. Candidates will recognize the potential influence of varying cultural factors and practice on development. Candidates will demonstrate skills required to provide information to family members regarding typical developmental expectations as well as the impact of the disability on developmental progress. Candidates will demonstrate skills required to ensure that the intervention and/or instructional environment are appropriate to the student’s chronological age, developmental differences, and disability-specific needs.

Program Standard 13: Curriculum and Instruction of Students with Disabilities

The program provides opportunity for candidates to demonstrate the ability to develop, implement, adapt, modify, and evaluate a variety of pedagogical approaches to instruction, including instructional sequences, unit and lesson plans, that provide students with disabilities with equitable access to the content and experiences found in the state-approved core curriculum. Candidates acquire and demonstrate strategies and best practices to develop differentiated lessons and instructional sequences that are appropriate for individuals with diverse strengths and needs in a variety of educational environments. Candidates must be able to apply these skills as they pertain to their specific area of specialization and credential authorizations across age and grade levels.

ASDAA Standard 1: Characteristics of ASD

The program provides opportunities for the candidate to be able to identify the unique characteristics of students with ASD. The candidate demonstrates unique knowledge of cognition and neurology and the core challenges associated with language and communication, social skills, behaviors, and processing and their implications for program planning and service delivery.
ASDAA Standard 2: Teaching, Learning, and Behavior Strategies for Students with Autism Spectrum Disorders

The program ensures that each candidate is able to demonstrate knowledge, skills, and abilities to become proficient in implementing evidence-based and multifaceted methodologies and strategies necessary in teaching and engaging students with ASD from acquisition through generalization.

ASDAA Standard 3: Collaborating with Other Service Providers and Families

The program will ensure that each candidate teaching students with ASD is able to demonstrate the ability to collaborate as a member of a multidisciplinary team with all service providers and effectively interact with families.

Course Learning Outcomes [CLO]

Course Requirements and Assignments

SJSU classes are designed such that in order to be successful, it is expected that students will spend a minimum of forty-five hours for each unit of credit (normally three hours per unit per week), including preparing for class, participating in course activities, completing assignments, and so on. More details about student workload can be found in University Policy S12-3 at http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/S12-3.pdf.

1) Weekly Reflections

12 reflections @ 5 points each = 60 points (20% of grade) [CLO 1-10]
Candidates will complete weekly reflections based on course readings, course material, and class discussion. Reflection prompts will be posted by the instructor to the course website hyperlink on the day of class. Reflection responses are to be posted to the course website no later than the Tuesday following each Thursday class. Candidates are expected to respond to at least one other posted response from a classmate. Responses should not be a summary of the reading or class discussion, but rather a reflection on how the reading or material presented in class informs the candidate’s practice as a special educator.

2) Completion of Autism Internet Modules (AIM)

6 modules @ 10 points each = 60 points (20% of grade) [CLO 4-8]
Participants will view the Autism Internet Modules at http://www.autisminternetmodules.org Modules are free of charge but each candidate must create an account with an ID and password. Candidates are to view the assigned modules and complete the posttest at the end of the module. The posttest should be saved by the candidate and submitted to the instructor on or before the due date. Candidates must earn a minimum of 80% correct on each posttest. Candidates are to complete the following modules:

a. Structured Teaching  due by 09/18/14
b. Antecedent-Based Interventions  due by 10/09/14
c. Discrete Trial Training  due by 10/16/14
d. Differential Reinforcement  due by 10/23/14
e. Picture Exchange Communication System  due by 10/30/14
f. Social Narratives  due by 11/06/14
3) Classroom Observation and Teacher Interview

40 points (13% of grade) [CLO 1, 4-8, 10]
Candidates are to observe a classroom with students with autism spectrum disorders. The observation can take place in a public or private school setting, and may be conducted in a general education class, resource room, or special day class setting. The observation should last 40 minutes to an hour. Candidates should arrange the observation in advance with the classroom teacher and if needed the school principal. Candidates are to abide by all rules of confidentiality pertaining to all students, and should be mindful not to intrude in student or staff personal work space or obstruct the classroom routine during the observation. During the observation candidates should make note of the strengths and weaknesses of the educational setting, the types of support that are in place for students with ASD, how well the supports seem to be working, and opportunities for the students to engage in social interactions with peers. Candidates will interview the teacher about challenges and rewards of working with students with autism spectrum disorders. Candidates will write a two to three page (double spaced) summary reflection of their observation and interview to address the following areas:

Characteristics of the learning environment
- Type of classroom
- Student staff ratio
- Classroom arrangement, schedule, visual supports, and / or areas to take a break
- Whole group / small group / one on one areas

Discuss the behavior, communication, academic, and social interaction supports that were observed, as well as the teacher’s use of evidence-based strategies that were observed. Interview and discuss the teacher’s greatest challenges and greatest rewards in working with students with autism spectrum disorders. Candidates must conclude the paper with a reflection of how the observation and interview informs their practice as a special educator. Classroom observation and teacher interview paper is due on 10/30/14.

4) Evidence-Based Strategy Research to Practice Group Project
