

The Department of Accounting and Finance has numerous scholarships available, each with different requirements. Please carefully read the list below.

To apply, use the link below to complete the Qualtrics survey by March 25, 2020:

https://sjsu.qualtrics.com/jfe/form/SV_9SkQ7CchlEaplr

Outstanding Accounting Student: $1,500. Recipient must be a senior concentrating in accounting with a minimum GPA of 3.4.

Outstanding Accounting Information Systems Student: $1,500. Recipient must be a senior concentrating in accounting information systems with a minimum GPA of 3.4.

Outstanding Corporate Accounting and Finance Student: $1,500. Recipient must be a senior concentrating in corporate accounting and finance with a minimum GPA of 3.4.

Kyle Williams Memorial Scholarship. Award varies, but averages $2,500. Recipient must be a member of Beta Alpha Psi, maintain a high GPA, and write a personal statement.

Ivy and Kenneth Laverty Scholarship. Award varies, but averages $1,500. Recipient must be a mature student with a good GPA.

Allen Undergraduate Accounting Scholarship. $1,500. Needs based scholarship for students who have a minimum 2.0 GPA, are first generation college student (first in family to attend college), or non-traditional students.

Mark and Kathy Loveless Scholarship. Award may vary, but averages $5,000. Recipient must be a veteran with current or past active duty military service, concentrate in accounting, and maintain a high GPA.

Wayne H. and Frances G. Towne Scholarship. $1,000. Recipient must be a full-time accounting student with a GPA of 3.0.

Michael Williams Honorarium Scholarships. $1,100 each. At least six scholarships awarded to accounting students in honor of Prof. Mallory McWilliams, Prof. Arnold Pahler, Prof. Louis Fischel, alums Bruce Levin, Michael Honeycutt and Lisa Zaccheo Allen. Recipients must have completed the course in financial auditing or cases in corporate accounting and finance, be working students, and be engaged with SJSU.

Other Scholarships

Financial Women of San Francisco. The Financial Women of San Francisco (FWSF) offers 10 scholarships to Bay Area women studying finance/accounting and have a passion for leadership and giving back to their communities. Undergrads receive $5,000 and grad students receive $10,000. Recipients are asked to attend a luncheon in their honor in June of the current year and The Financial Woman of the Year luncheon in September of the same year. Apply at www.FinancialWomenSF.org