

AFROTC Detachment 045

Mission

To produce exemplary servant-leaders of character for the U.S. Air and Space Forces to lead our country in 21st century operations.

Vision

To create a culture of Spartan Airmen bound by character, teamwork, and excellence.

Priorities

- 1. Character Development – To instill integrity, service, and excellence so deep into each Spartan Airmen that it can't help but overflow into every interaction, changing their community and world for the better, one person at a time.*
- 2. Teamwork Integration - To develop skillsets aligned with effective leadership and followership motivated by an identity in the team rather than self.*
- 3. Academic Development – To develop warrior-scholars stimulating innovation into the 21st century.*

"The society that separates its scholars from its warriors will have its thinking done by cowards and its fighting by fools."

-Thucydides (c. 460 – c. 400 BC)
