Course Description

Catalog: Practice in improvement of writing skills appropriate to the fields of anthropology and behavioral science. Includes essays, reports, and scholarly communication.

Prerequisite: Completion of core GE, ENGL 1B (with a grade of C or better), satisfaction of Writing Skills Test and upper division standing.

Note: Must be passed with C or better to satisfy the CSU Graduation Writing Assessment Requirement. Students are strongly discouraged from taking this course if they are taking a heavy course load. Success in this course is predicated on handing in homework in a timely fashion and attending all class meetings.

Supplement: This course is required for graduation from San Jose State. Our primary goal is to help students in Anthropology, Behavioral Science, and other social sciences to develop advanced writing skills and to strengthen their communication skills with a variety of specialized and general audiences.
Specific objectives include:
- refining the fundamental researching, organizing, writing, and editing skills that are essential for effectively expressing ideas and data about complex sociocultural topics
- clarifying the appropriate focus, language, style, and format for communicating with different scholarly, professional, and public audiences learning how to conduct independent research by locating, evaluating, synthesizing, and presenting information from a mix of primary and secondary sources, and learning to vet sources for validity. demonstrating the ability to use these skills in a coherent fashion to produce a variety of formal and informal pieces for different audiences.

Writing is an important craft which has applications in all academic and professional fields. It can also be an art. This course concentrates on the craft of writing and promotion of scholarship.

Course Goals and Learning Objectives

GE Learning Outcomes (GELO)
This course qualifies as an Area Z (Written Communication II) course in your General Education requirements. It is designed to enable you to achieve the following learning objectives:

Students shall write complete essays that demonstrate college-level proficiency. Students shall be able to:

1. produce discipline-specific written work that demonstrates upper-division proficiency in:
   - language use
   - grammar
   - clarity of expression
2. explain, analyze, develop, and criticize ideas effectively, including ideas encountered in multiple readings and expressed in different forms of discourse
3. organize and develop essays and documents for both professional and general audiences
4. organize and develop essays and documents according to appropriate editorial and citation standards
5. locate, organize, and synthesize information effectively to accomplish a specific purpose, and to communicate that purpose in writing.

Course Learning Outcomes (CLO)
Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

1. Identify ideas and data related to complex sociocultural topics.
2. Clarify the appropriate focus, language, style, and format for communicating with different scholarly, professional, and public audiences.
3. Conduct independent research by locating, evaluating, synthesizing, and presenting information from a mix of primary and secondary sources.
4. Demonstrate proficiency in use of citations, referencing, and capacity to adapt various citation standards in accordance with academic publishing requirements.

Required Texts/Readings

Textbook
No hard copy text required. You must have a San Jose State Library card with a pin code for accessing material from off-campus. Several instructional readings will be made available through Canvas.

Course Requirements and Assignments

“Success in this course is based on the expectation that students will spend, for each unit of credit, a minimum of 45 hours over the length of the course (normally three hours per unit per week) for instruction, preparation/studying, or course related activities, including but not limited to internships, labs, and clinical practica. Other course structures will have equivalent workload expectations as described in the syllabus.” University Policy S16-9

A total of 500 points for written and quiz work are possible in the course. Note, for all assignments, except quizzes, you may have a grace period of three days. You will get half credit for any assignment submitted after the original due date. I will accept no assignments more than ten days late and no points will be earned. I strongly advise you to keep to the schedule. The assignments are carefully designed to contribute to your research paper and keep you moving forward. The assignments and readings are on the class website. Be prepared. The instructor reserves the right to take class participation into consideration when determining the final grade. Procrastination is not an option in this class!

Grading Information
This course must be passed with a C or better as an SJSU graduation requirement.

Rubrics
Rubrics are specific to individual assignments and are linked to those assignments through Canvas. Please check the rubric for each assignment before you submit it for grading.

Incompletes
Incompletes will be granted only if the instructor has been notified and has approved the Incomplete Contract. Incomplete contracts must be agreed upon before the end of the semester. It is University policy that an Incomplete may not be given to avoid an F grade. Students with missing major assignments (over 50 points) will receive a WU (unauthorized withdrawal). NO WORK WILL BE ACCEPTED AFTER THE LAST DAY OF CLASSES.

Marking Criteria for Written Work
A plus 98> A 94-97 A minus 90-93
An “A” demonstrates excellence in all categories; originality, addressing the tasks effectively, showing effective organization and logical argumentation, use of clear, appropriate and accurate examples and a high level of writing competence and knowledge. Completes the task and consistently does extra work.
B plus 88-89 B 84-87 B minus 80-83
A “B” may show a good level of competence, but uneven development of tasks. It may be generally well organized, uses appropriate examples, displays facility, with a few gaps, in argumentation, and demonstrates a good level of writing and knowledge. Completes the task and does some extra work.

C plus 78-79 C 74-77 C minus 70-73
A “C” may show a fair level of competence but may be uneven. It will address the task adequately, but only with parts of the task. It is adequately organized and may occasionally use examples. Argumentation may be inconsistent and writing and knowledge competence may be unclear.

D plus 68-69 D 64-67 D minus 60-63 F<60
A “D” will demonstrate poor competence with inadequate organization, task and argumentation development and inappropriate examples. It will display difficulty in using adequate academic language and errors in knowledge will be in evidence. A failure will only occur if no effort is made to address the question or topic.

Participation and Miscellaneous Activities
Attendance and participation in class discussions is required.

Classroom Protocol
This course is offered asynchronously for the fall 2020 semester. Therefore, classroom protocols are reduced.

Netiquette We will practice best practices of etiquette when engaged in online discussion.
Inappropriate remarks or behavior will be called out and appropriate actions taken in accordance to University policy.

Late Papers
No late papers will be accepted unless a genuine emergency arises that meets University policy and the student notifies the professor in advance.

Evacuation Procedures
Information from the campus police on evacuating a classroom can be found at:
http://www.sjsu.edu/police/docs/ept/ept_procedures_flyer.pdf
Consent for Recording of Class and Public Sharing of Instructor Material

University Policy S12-7, http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/S12-7.pdf, requires students to obtain instructor’s permission to record the course:

“Common courtesy and professional behavior dictate that you notify someone when you are recording him/her. You must obtain the instructor’s permission to make audio or video recordings in this class. Such permission allows the recordings to be used for your private, study purposes only. The recordings are the intellectual property of the instructor; you have not been given any rights to reproduce or distribute the material.”

In classes where active participation of students or guests may be on the recording, permission of those students or guests should be obtained as well.

“Course material developed by the instructor is the intellectual property of the instructor and cannot be shared publicly without his/her approval. You may not publicly share or upload instructor generated material for this course such as exam questions, lecture notes, or homework solutions without instructor consent.”

University Policies

Per University Policy S16-9, university-wide policy information relevant to all courses, such as academic integrity, accommodations, etc. will be available on Office of Graduate and Undergraduate Programs’ Syllabus Information web page at:
