Course Description

Cultural anthropology is the study of how humans adapt to, interpret and affect the world in which they live. This course is designed to provide you with an overview to the discipline, as well as an appreciation of what it has meant to be human in different places at different times. The course is divided into three major parts:

1. Human Nature and Culture
2. Sociocultural Systems in Cross-cultural Comparison
3. Anthropology and the Modern World

By the end of the class you should have a sense of the anthropological perspective and its merits. After learning some basic concepts and cross-cultural comparisons, we finish the class by showing the practical applications of this perspective in America and elsewhere. Furthermore, you will be gaining first-hand experience in observing the world as an anthropologist giving you an experiential and intellectual appreciation of a perspective which can be used to better understand a variety of academic, professional and community contexts. The course satisfies requirements for the Human Behavior/D(1) Area in the General Education Core, as well as departmental and program requirements in anthropology and behavioral science.

Course Goals

Learning Objectives of the Anthropology Department

Knowledge

- PLO1. Understanding culture as the distinguishing phenomenon of human life, and the relationship of human biology and evolution.
- PLO2. Awareness of human diversity and the ways humans have categorized diversity.
- PLO3. Knowledge of the significant findings of archaeology, cultural anthropology, and physical anthropology, and familiarity of the important issues in each sub-discipline.
- PLO4. Knowledge of the history of anthropological thought and its place in modern intellectual history
- PLO5. Comprehension of migration, colonialism, and economic integration as significant phenomenon shaping global society.

Skills

- PLO6. Ability to access various forms of anthropological data and literature.
- PLO7. Awareness of importance and value of anthropological knowledge in contemporary society, and the ability to apply it to social issues.
- PLO8. Knowledge of the research methods of the sub-disciplines of anthropology, and the ability to apply appropriate research methods in at least one sub-discipline.
- PLO9. Ability to present and communicate anthropological knowledge and the results of anthropological research to different audiences.

Professional Values

- PLO10. Knowledge of political and ethical implications of social research

Class Learning Objectives for this Class

Students who successfully complete this course will:

- CLO1. Be able to understand and apply appropriately the concept of culture to human behavior.
- CLO2. Gain a working knowledge of how cultural anthropologists conduct field research through completing a class project
- CLO3. Be able to recognize and analyze the interaction of social institutions, culture and environment with individual and collective behavior.
- CLO4. Develop a cross-cultural perspective on how humans relate to each other and the material world through symbols;
- CLO5. Have knowledge about several societies in depth using ethnographies; and
- CLO6. Understand the relevance of cultural anthropology for understanding the complexities of modern life both globally and in the Santa Clara Valley.

CLO7. Be able to engage in cooperative learning activities, and identify culturally relevant information resources.

GE Learning Outcomes (GELO)

As an Area D1 (Human Behavior) course, the content and activities are designed to enable you to achieve the following learning outcomes upon successfully completing the course.

GELO 1. Students will be able to place contemporary developments in cultural, historical, environmental, and spatial contexts [as assessed through examinations, ethnographic project and gendered space assignment]

GELO 2. Students will identify the dynamics of ethnic, cultural, gender/sexual, age-based, class, regional, national, transnational, and global identities and the similarities, differences, linkages, and interactions between them.[as assessed through examinations, ethnographic project and social networking assignment]

GELO3. Students will evaluate social science information, draw on different points of view, and formulate applications appropriate to contemporary social issues. [as assessed through examinations and ethnographic project]

Course Requirements and Assignments

Course Assignments

Your final grade will be determined by your grades on a mid-term, a series of written research assignments, an open-note (but not open book) final,

1. Writing Assignment (90 points, Assignment 1, 3-8, 45% of grade): The research assignment is designed to encourage the student to research a culture of personal interest. The final paper should be approximately 2100 words not including cover page and bibliography. The paper will be submitted in sections to be graded individually, corrected by the student, and integrated into one final submission. Each individual section is worth 10 points. (7 sections x 10 points). The final corrected paper is worth 20 points. It is clearly in your interest to submit the individual sections on a timely basis since they constitute 45% of your total grade. Even if you get 100% on your midterm and final you, you cannot get more than a “C-” in this course without submitting the paper sections! Emphasis will be placed on clear and effective communication. Students are encouraged to use on-line resources for research; however, plagiarism will not be tolerated. References should be properly cited and the bibliography should include both book and internet references. Citations and Bibliography should use the Chicago (Turbian) Author/ Date style. This assignment assesses your ability to meet Area D1 Learning Objectives No. 1-5.

2. Ethnographic Interview (10 points, Assignment 2, 10% of grade) For this exercise, you will practice ethnographic interviewing techniques with a partner online with a set format. Your notes will be typed up, spell-checked, proof-read, and submitted in essay format. Use Grammarly to check your paper and submit a screenshot of your Grammarly submission as proof. This assignment assesses your ability to meet Area D1 Learning Objectives No. 1, 4, 5.

3. Open Note (Not open book) Midterm (50 points, 25% of grade)

This assignment assesses your ability to meet Area D1 Learning Objectives No. 1-5.

4. Comprehensive Open Note Open Book Final Exam (50 points,) (25% of grade)

This assignment assesses your ability to meet Area D1 Learning Objectives No. 1-5. University Policy S06-4 (<http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/S06-4.pdf>) states that “There shall be an appropriate final examination or evaluation at the scheduled time in every course, unless the course is on the official List of Courses in which a final is optional.”

Success in this course is based on the expectation that students will spend, for each unit of credit, a minimum of 45 hours over the length of the course (normally 3 hours per unit per week with 1 of the hours used for lecture) for instruction or preparation/studying or course related activities including but not limited to internships, labs, clinical practica. Other course structures will have equivalent workload expectations as described in the syllabus. In our case, additional reading and ethnographic fieldwork, analysis and writing, will comprise the bulk of the outside time needed in this course.

Grading Information

Use <https://www.grammarly.com> or another electronic service to check your writing. All papers will be submitted through Canvas and will be vetted by Turnitin.com.

Incompletes

Incompletes will be granted only if the instructor has been notified in a timely manner and has approved. Students with missing major assignments (over 50 points) will receive a WU (unauthorized withdrawal). NO WORK WILL BE ACCEPTED AFTER THE FINAL

Determination of Grades

A+ 98>, A 94-97, A- 90-93

An "A" demonstrates originality, not merely efficient memory, addresses the tasks effectively, shows effective organization and logical argumentation, uses clear, appropriate and accurate examples and a high level of writing competence and knowledge. Completes the task and consistently does extra work that is self-initiated.

B+ 88-89, B 84-87, B- 80-83

A "B" may show a good level of competence and may even reflect exactly what was discussed in class and texts, but does not contribute original knowledge. It shows uneven development of tasks. Work may be generally well organized, use appropriate examples, display facility in argumentation, with a few gaps, and demonstrates a good level of writing and knowledge. Completes the task and does some extra work guided by the instructor.

C+ 78-79, C 74-77, C- 70-73

A "C" may show a fair level of competence, but may be uneven. Work will address the task adequately, but only with parts of the task. It is adequately organized and may occasionally use examples. Argumentation may be inconsistent and writing and knowledge competence may be unclear. Language may be inappropriately informal in parts of assignment.

D+ 68-69, D 64-67, D- 60-63, F < 60

A "D" will demonstrate poor competence with inadequate organization, task and argumentation development and inappropriate examples. It will display difficulty in using adequate academic language and errors in knowledge will be in evidence. A failure will only occur if no effort is made to address the question or topic.

Late work will only be accepted if the professor has approved the reason. The work will drop one grade as a late penalty in such cases unless otherwise arranged. Extra credit is not given.

Classroom Protocol

To Be Excused if you cannot participate in an exercise, please leave an E-mail message THAT day or earlier, giving your name, class and reason for missing the activity. You will receive full credit (E) as long as the reason is significant and the privilege is not abused. Failure to participate might result in a significant loss of overall points.

You may not collaborate on work in this class. Group study for the midterm and final are permitted, but anything you write on the midterm or final must be in your own words. If the text of answers on the midterm or final are found to be identical to that of another student or cut and pasted from another source, you will receive an "F" on the exam.

Late Papers

No late papers will be accepted unless a genuine emergency arrives and the student notifies the professor in advance.

Consent for Recording of Class and Public Sharing of Instructor Material

University Policy S12-7, <http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/S12-7.pdf>, requires students to obtain instructor's permission to record the course:

- "Common courtesy and professional behavior dictate that you notify someone when you are recording him/her. You must obtain the instructor's permission to make audio or video recordings in this class. Such permission allows the recordings to be used for your private, study purposes only.

The recordings are the intellectual property of the instructor; you have not been given any rights to reproduce or distribute the material.”

- In classes where active participation of students or guests may be on the recording, permission of those students or guests should be obtained as well.
- “Course material developed by the instructor is the intellectual property of the instructor and cannot be shared publicly without his/her approval. You may not publicly share or upload instructor generated material for this course such as exam questions, lecture notes, or homework solutions without instructor consent.”

University Policies (Required)

Per University Policy S16-9, university-wide policy information relevant to all courses, such as academic integrity, accommodations, etc. will be available on Office of Graduate and Undergraduate Programs’ Syllabus Information web page at <http://www.sjsu.edu/gup/syllabusinfo/>”
