Thank you for your interest in the MFA Program in the Department of Art & Art History at SJSU. The faculty of the Department of Art & Art History are justifiably proud of the accomplishments of our MFA graduates.

Through its excellent facilities and diverse and well-recognized faculty, the program encourages and enables students to develop their technical studio skills as well as the ability to think creatively and critically about their work. An important aspect of professional preparation is the opportunity for students to show their work in one of the several student galleries in the Art buildings.

That the MFA program functions within the context of a liberal arts college is perhaps the strongest indicator of the breadth of competence expected of its students. Graduate students in the School’s MFA programs are given elective options in philosophy, history, literature, theater, music, anthropology, and more. Within the Department itself, the approach to learning is highly interdisciplinary. Faculty routinely share duties across media and disciplines; and the facilities encompass traditional to digital methods. The faculty is equally broad-based: graduate students are encouraged to develop exposure to as many new approaches as will benefit their progress. All areas share similar admissions processes, curricular structure, advancement, and review processes.

Students must take critical seminars and studio classes where their peers and the faculty critique their work. Assigned studios are guaranteed for 5 semesters; these studios and shared spaces provide for focused independent experimentation as well as build community that facilitates peer to peer discourse.

MFA Graduate Programs Overview & Requirements
The MFA program is a 60 unit degree. Most students complete the degree in 5-6 semesters. The coursework consists of graduate seminars, upper division undergraduate studio electives, TAships, and independent studies. There's a lot of flexibility in terms of the elective courses you take for an MFA in Art.

Studios are available for 5 semesters. You are required to install two exhibitions in your 2nd & 3rd years in one of 8 student galleries, but optional exhibition opportunities exist outside of the requirement as well.

If you are interested in teaching, we have Teaching Assistant opportunities, as well as a class dedicated to teaching at the college level. There's also opportunities to teach your own class, but that is dependent on undergraduate enrollment so can't be guaranteed.
More information about each degree program can be found below.

All of the information in this email can be found starting at the above link (though some of the information is easier to find than others). I've copied some of the most pertinent links from our website below (which I know can be hard to navigate).

Step by Step Applications Instructions

- Domestic Steps to Admission: Learn about the steps you will take as you go through the domestic application process at SJSU.
- International Steps to Admission: Learn about the steps you will take as you go through the international application process at SJSU.

Application Requirements

There are two independent sets of admission requirements; one set is managed by the University Office of Graduate Admissions and Program Evaluations (GAPE) and required for ALL SJSU graduate applicants. More information on University requirements (including deadlines) can be found here: SJSU Graduate Application Information

The other set of admission requirements is managed by the Department or School for the Degree Program the student is applying to. For a Graduate Degree granted by the Department of Art & Art History, students submit a single application through the Cal State Apply website. Once completed, students' applications are first reviewed by GAPE. If the students' applications meet University Admission Requirements, their applications are then sent to the Department of Art & Art History for review to determine eligibility for the Degree Program.

FAQs

1) I am an international student, I graduated with a BA from a University in the United States, do I still need to do TOEFL, or can it be waived?
If you have completed your undergraduate degree at SJSU (or any institution within an English Speaking Country) then you are exempt from the TOEFL requirement (for more info see link below). The TOEFL is a University requirement, not a departmental one, so you should follow up with an advisor for University Admissions in our GAPE office to confirm your Universities Eligibility.

2) Will some of my classes from my previous degree transfer?
Course credits for classes taken as an undergraduate can not count toward a graduate degree if they counted toward the undergraduate degree. More info here.
3) Can my recommendation letters be from my former employers, co-workers, or people I’ve done projects with?

Ideally your Three (3) Letters of Recommendation would come from Art faculty, Artists, Curators, or Institutional Art Administrators you’ve worked with recently. But if former employers would have insight into your artistic/creative process then those letters could be acceptable.

4) I have a BA, would this degree allow me to apply to the MFA program?

The equivalent to a Bachelor of Fine Art (BFA) degree in the applicant’s designated area of graduate emphasis is recommended. At least 6 upper-division units in art history are required.

5) I graduated from SJSU do I need to send my Official transcripts?

SJSU students do not have to submit SJSU transcripts with your application. See step-by-step required documents for admission at Want to Apply.

6) For the portfolio, what is the maximum and minimum number of images we can submit? Do we put this images in a zip file or separate files?

Portfolio requirements will vary for each program. Please view the requirements here: Portfolio Requirements: Master of Fine (MFA) Art and Art History-CalApply.

7) For Portfolio, are you looking for skill or more like style/expression or both? My area of expertise? Should all images have the same theme and be cohesive or are you just looking for the breadth of my work?

Portfolios are reviewed by program area. Please view the requirements here: Departmental Application Requirements by Area of Concentration. The Area Coordinator for the program you are applying to (linked above) will be able to answer this question with more detail.

8) What is the format for the letters of recommendation?

Your letters should be submitted in PDF file format. If you ask your previous professors (I recommend that you do), they will likely be very familiar with the format. For recommenders who might be less familiar with formats for academic letters of recommendation, please suggest that they use this format. You should request the letter 4 weeks before the application due date. Here are some pointers for asking for letters of recommendation:

- How to Ask a Professor for a Letter of Recommendation
- Daily Serving, Help Desk: Recommendations for References

9) How should I format my resume?

For your resume (usually called a Curriculum Vitae, or CV, in academic & artistic contexts), follow the College Art Association Guidelines: VISUAL ARTIST CURRICULUM VITAE: RECOMMENDED CONVENTIONS
