Course Description

Graduate seminar focusing on issues and practices of writing about contemporary art, including artist statements, exhibition catalogs and art criticism. This three unit course is an opportunity for graduate students to refine professional writing skills in both artistic and curatorial practices and to articulate and contextualize their own art practice and art historical research.
interests. The course is a synthesis of discourses between artists, art historians, creative researchers, and writers.

Students will develop individual essays, including a final paper to meet professional standards in contemporary art practice. This is a workshop for constructive feedback about your writing and for sharing knowledge and questions about the field of fine art and visual culture. This is also an opportunity for students to sharpen their ability to think critically about their own work through the use of writing.

Discussions of readings will be complemented by student presentations of their own writing. Peer discussion and dialog are a significant component of the course.

Course Format

Following SJSU’s alignment with the Santa Clara County Public Health Department state public health guidelines, for Fall 2020, Art 200W will be a synchronous, online course.

We will meet online weekly. For the most part, our weekly meetings will be a focused on understanding and debating the material through small group discussion, general class discussion, and assigned student activities and presentations. Students should be prepared and arrive on time at the beginning of class. The default class format is to use the first forty-five minutes–hour for discussion of topical readings and or other educational resources (i.e., film, online media); the second forty-five minutes–hour the focus is to work on in-class writing exercises, grammar and writing style issues or questions, and or peer/instructor editing and review. Please note in the course schedule when meetings are optional.

Course materials such as syllabus, handouts, notes, assignment instructions, etc. can be found Canvas Learning Management System course login website at http://sjsu.instructure.com. You are responsible for regularly checking with the messaging system through MySJSU on Spartan App Portal http://one.sjsu.edu to learn of any updates. For help with using Canvas see Canvas Student Resources page http://www.sjsu.edu/ecampus/teaching-tools/canvas/student_resources. SJSU Peer Connections at https://peerconnections.sjsu.edu/ continues to operate and are ready to provide support to help you navigate your remote learning tools. Additionally, the eCampus office can also help answer technical questions for students about navigating Canvas, Zoom, Google Chat, or other new technologies associated with their classes (408-924-2337): https://www.sjsu.edu/ecampus/

Course Goals

This course is a seminar with a strong workshop component, so in-class writing, editing, peer review, instructor feedback, and discussion are essential. Students in this course will write a minimum of 30 pages, including an individually written, 3,000 word, Chicago Manual of Style (CMS) formatted final paper. Students are expected to explore their own goals and develop ideas through the processes of critical reading and writing.

Course Learning Outcomes (CLO)

Course Skill Learning Outcomes
CLO1 - verbally interpret a variety of texts by artists, critics and theorists; apply knowledge of reading examples to their own writing.
CLO2 - express (explain, analyze, develop, and criticize) ideas effectively, including ideas encountered in multiple readings and expressed in different forms of discourse;
CLO3 - articulate their own artistic or art historical intentions; CLO4 - write clearly, effectively, and critically to accomplish specific artistic or curatorial goals and address specific audiences according to standards of professional practice in art;
CLO5 - organize and develop essays and documents for both professional and general audiences, including appropriate editorial standards for citing primary and secondary sources;
CLO6 - employ a variety of voices, discourses and rhetorical modes, both in relation to certain kinds of artwork and in relation certain professional contexts and audiences.

Course Content Learning Outcomes

Upon successful completion of this course, students will have mastered:
CLO7 - a set of rhetorical strategies for discussing contemporary art;
CLO8 - some major issues and discourses in contemporary art;
CLO9 - the ability to contextualize their own practices within the global community;
CLO10 - an understanding and appreciation for the significant parallels and antecedents for their own professional practices

Required Texts/Readings

Textbook

There is no required textbook for this course. You may use other English textbooks or online sources for specific writing style and grammar issues.

Other Readings

Required course readings will be distributed through Canvas and made available as PDFs or online links. The reading materials will include required readings that support the assignment (designated “main text”) and a noted, “selected text” that is significant to the topic. For each assignment, there will be support material such as videos and art press articles for further exploration.

Other technology requirements / equipment / material

Students are expected to review SJSU technology requirements and be prepared for working in an online environment. Students are expected to participate in required class meetings, discussions, and activities via Zoom. Course delivery is via SJSU Canvas Learning Management System, so students need to be prepared to interface with this platform and be familiar with its functionality such as knowing how to upload assignments and setting up notifications for communication, etc. Laptops and other equipment can be checked out for loan in person or online at IMS by students, faculty, and staff:

Course Requirements and Assignments

University Policy S16-9, Course Syllabi (http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/S16-9.pdf) states that: “Success in this course is based on the expectation that students will spend, for each unit of credit, a minimum of 45 hours over the length of the course (normally three hours per unit per week) for instruction, preparation/studying, or course related activities, including but not limited to internships, labs, and clinical practica. Other course structures will have equivalent workload expectations as described in the syllabus.”

Assignments

Although this is not the focus of the course, the writing assignments support the content requirements for SJSU's Department of Art and Art History master’s degree thesis papers. Because this writing class is a seminar, in addition to submitting work online via Canvas, depending on the assignment, you will be asked to participate in in-class peer and instructor review editing and feedback. Specifics regarding assignment submission will be communicated in class, on Canvas, and on your assignment instruction sheet. During class, students must be prepared to share and discuss their response to the reading/writing assignments and also be ready to explore and address writing issues. This way we can share knowledge about how to meet writing challenges such as grammar, organization, tone, and audience.

Participation in class discussion, exercises, and peer reviews (20%) CLO1, CLO2, CLO3, CLO6, CLO7, CLO8, CLO9, CLO10

Writing response (approx. 1-3 pages) to specific course readings that align with writing projects (30%) CLO1, CLO2, CLO3, CLO4, CLO5, CLO8, CLO9, CLO10

Writing projects specific to genres in writing and content development (i.e., narrative essay, formal analysis, critiques, and reviews) (20%) CLO3, CLO4, CLO5, CLO6

Research Paper: the completion of a 3,000 word, CMS style formatted final writing project and discussion/presentation (30%) CLO1, CLO2, CLO4, CLO5, CLO8

Assignment Format

In general, papers must be formatted following basic academic formatting: 1” margins, 12 point type, double-spaced, page numbers, name upper right hand corner, date, and assignment name (See this visual example on page #2 of this PDF http://writing.umn.edu/sws/assets/pdf/quicktips/academiceassystructures.pdf). The Research Paper will have its own CMS formatting that will be discussed in class.

Final Examination or Evaluation

“Faculty members are required to have a culminating activity for their courses, which can include a final examination, a final research paper or project, a final creative work or performance, a final portfolio of work, or other appropriate assignment.” University policy S17-1, http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/S17-1.pdf
Students will participate in a final exam, project, and or activity that will meet the final exam requirements for the course.

Grading Information

The course can only be taken for a letter grade. Grades will be based on in-class participation/exercises/peer review (20%), specific 1-3 page writing assignments based on course readings (20%), more lengthy writing-related projects (30%), and the completion of an individually written, 3,000 word, CMS style formatted final Research Paper (30%). Students can access their grades through Canvas. “All students have the right, within a reasonable time, to know their academic scores, to review their grade-dependent work, and to be provided with explanations for the determination of their course grades.” See University Policy F13-1 at http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/F13-1.pdf for more details.

Determination of Grades

Participation in class discussion and activities (20%)

A guideline for performance:

A=Excellent work, energetic participation, engaged demeanor, sustained effort throughout the semester.
B=Good work, proficient participation, involved demeanor, attentive effort
C=Average work, adequate participation, standard effort
D=Below average work, minimal participation, inconsistent effort
F=Unsatisfactory work, participation, effort

As a guideline, will be 20 points total: 10 for content/class discussion; 10 for organization/preparedness. Scale: 20=excellent; 18= very good; 17=good; 16=sufficient. A specific rubric will be created and presented in class and or posted on Canvas.

Writing response to reading assignments (20% of grade)

20 point scale guidelines

20 insightful content, engaged; precise, clear writing, complete
18, 17 engaged, clear writing, complete
16, 15 satisfactory engagement, fairly clear writing, fairly complete

Writing Projects (30% of grade)

Projects will have specific rubrics presented in class and or posted on Canvas.

Final Paper presentation and discussion (30% of grade)

A specific rubric will be created and presented in class and or posted on Canvas.

Final grades will be assigned according to University policy from A to F as outlined in the SJSU catalog. All work must be finished and turned in according to ascribed deadlines and instructions.

Late work policy

SPECIFIC DUE DATES AND SUBMISSION REQUIREMENTS FOR ALL ASSIGNMENTS ARE GIVEN IN CLASS AND POSTED ON CANVAS. www.sjsu.edu/at/ec/canvas/ It is your responsibility to keep up with coursework, assignment instructions, and be aware of announcements and changes. If you miss class for any reason, you are responsible for acquiring coursework information from a fellow student or review the material on Canvas. If you cannot make it to a class meeting, please do not email me to find out what you missed before reviewing what has been communicated on Canvas.

Late papers and coursework will not be accepted except under special circumstances and require a signed doctor's note or other legal documentation. Any issues with submission requirements and arrangements for alternative work delivery need to be discussed with and agreed to by me before the assignment deadline. For example, do not post it late on Canvas or send separately via email, after the due date. PLEASE MANAGE YOUR TIME.

Incompletes

Except in cases of documented emergencies, incomplete grades are not given in this course. It is the responsibility of the student to bring pertinent information to the attention of the instructor immediately (i.e., not at the end of the semester) regarding the unforeseen reason(s) for requesting an Incomplete. An Incomplete will not be considered if the student has completed under 80% of the coursework. An Incomplete will not be considered if the student has made no effort to communicate with the instructor regarding their emergency situation. Documentation includes doctor's notes and or signed letters from legally established institutions and or professional individuals involved in the student's situation. More information regarding Incompletes can be found in the course catalog at http://info.sjsu.edu/static/catalog/grades-incomplete.html and at the SJSU School of Information Department website https://ischool.sjsu.edu/incompletes

Other:
All papers must be original to this class (no "recycling"), meet all requirements of each assignment, and properly reference all outside sources (including Internet sources) for credit.

There are no extra credit options for this course.

Classroom Protocol

From Student Rights, Responsibilities and Conduct

See University Policy F15-12, Attendance and Participation:

“Students are expected to attend all meetings for the courses in which they are enrolled as they are responsible for material discussed therein, and active participation is frequently essential to ensure maximum benefit to all class members. In some cases, attendance is fundamental to course objectives; for example, students may be required to interact with others in the class. Attendance is the responsibility of the student.

Participation may be used as a criterion for grading when the parameters and their evaluation are clearly defined in the course syllabus and the percentage of the overall grade is stated.

View the policy in its entirety here: F15-12.pdf

Zoom class meeting coordinates will be communicated via Canvas at the beginning of the semester via “Announcements” and also listed on the Canvas “Syllabus” section. Students are responsible for understanding how to use the platform, preparing for online discussion and activities, and for arriving on time to class.

Zoom Etiquette

- This is a virtual classroom, therefore, appropriate classroom behavior is expected.
- Please prepare your work space to the best of your ability.
- Be prepared to be on camera for class discussions and group work. Make sure your video is on so your teacher and peers can see you.
- Log into your class or meeting from a distraction-free, quiet environment.
- Please keep your audio on mute until you want to speak. This will help to limit background noise. Consider using a headset with an external mic for best hearing and speaking capabilities.
- Close unneeded applications on your computer to optimize the video quality.
- If you would like to speak or answer a question, use the “Raise Hand” feature. Then unmute yourself after you are called on by your teacher.
- When you are speaking, let others know that you are finished by saying something like, “That’s all,” or “I’m done,” or “Thank you,” so that everyone knows you have finished your comments.
- If you would like to use the chatbox, remember that it is public, and a record of the chat is kept and archived.
- Keep paper and a pen or pencil handy to take notes.
- Be mindful of your background lighting. If you are sitting with your back to a window, you may be silhouetted by the light coming through. Your overhead light might also need to be adjusted for the best image quality.
- Please take care of your personal needs (appropriate dress, basic hygiene, eating, chewing gum, talking to others in your home, etc.) prior to entering a Zoom classroom. As an act of courtesy, please eat your food outside of class time, off camera.
- Please do not use profanity or inappropriate language.
- Remember to sign out or “leave the meeting” when the session is finished. If you need to leave early, ask permission first.

Zoom Meeting Transcripts

Zoom allows participants to communicate with group messages to all of the meeting participants and/or to send private messages to individual participants.
Although it seems reasonable that private messages stay between two people, please be aware that all of the group messages and all private messages will be included in the meeting transcript.

Zoom Meeting Attendance Report  Zoom provides a roster of people who attended the meeting along with the times they joined and left the meeting.

University Policies
Per University Policy S16-9, relevant information to all courses, such as academic integrity, accommodations, dropping and adding, consent for recording of class, etc. is available on Office of Graduate and Undergraduate Programs’ Syllabus Information web page at http://www.sjsu.edu/gup/syllabusinfo/. Make sure to visit this page, review and be familiar with these university policies and resources.
