Course Description

An intermediate level course investigating the unique possibilities afforded by contemporary digital imaging. Includes preparation of images for presentation via print, video, and/or web. Emphasis upon incorporating digital tools with ongoing development of student work.

Course Format

Technology Intensive, Hybrid – This is a blended, online and on-campus course

About half of our meetings will take place on Zoom. About half will take place on campus in IS 219. You must have your own laptop computer to take this course and will need your laptop with you for most class meetings. Macs are preferred and will make life easier, since demos are given on a Mac. You must also have the latest edition of the Adobe Creative Suite. As an SJSU student the software is FREE for you! For this course you will need Adobe Photoshop, Premiere Pro and possibly Lightroom as well, if you already use it to organize your images. Follow the instructions at this link to download your free software:

<https://www.sjsu.edu/ecampus/software-tools/teaching-tools/video-creative/adobe/students.php>

Most class meetings that take place on Zoom will be synchronous. I will send you the link prior to our first meeting. The link is also available on Canvas, as is the link to my office hours. Critiques, some demos and activities, and printing will take place in IS 219. Printing on campus is both free, and has added educational value since you will print the images yourself. I strongly urge you to make use of this resource if at all possible. Masks (covering both mouth and nose) will be required. Gloves and sanitizing wipes will be used, and we will practice social distancing (6' apart). Alternatives will be arranged in place of in-class activities for students who cannot or prefer not to come to campus. If this is the case, you must make me aware of your circumstances at the start of the semester. Be forewarned that printing will be costly if you choose an outside service.

Course Materials - Location

Assignments, Readings, Handouts - <https://sjsu.instructure.com/courses/1430988>

Course materials such as your syllabus, assignment instructions, handouts, notes, etc. can be found at the above link or on Canvas Learning Management System course login website at <https://sjsu.instructure.com/>.

Your Username is your 9-digit SJSU ID number. Your password is your SJSU-One account password.

Canvas is a fairly stable platform. If you make a habit of downloading assignments regularly, you will always have them, whether Canvas is active or not. Materials for assignments (technical handouts, readings, etc.) are available in the Files folder on Canvas. Assignments are located there, and also in the Assignments area of Canvas. I urge you to leave your Canvas notifications ON for this course. That way you will be reminded of upcoming assignments and deadlines.

Course Learning Outcomes (CLO)

Course Skill Learning Outcomes

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

1. Further develop knowledge of camera operation and how to insure correctly exposed imagery
2. Gain proficiency in or further develop Photoshop skills
3. Gain proficiency in or further develop digital video editing skills in Premiere Pro or similar application
4. Learn to use our professional printers and print beautiful, successfully color managed images

Course Content Learning Outcomes

Upon successful completion of this course, students will have mastered:

1. A greater understanding of both historically significant and contemporary artists using digital media through attending lectures, participating in readings/discussions and attending field trips
2. The ability to use digital skills to complete fine art projects with interesting content and strong concepts
3. A firm understanding of the variables involved in digital output (printing)
4. An understanding of the importance of presentation and present your work in a professional manner (whether traditional or experimental)
5. The ability to work within deadlines
6. By the end of the course, students will develop a small body of very finished, professionally presented work with strong, thoughtful content

Course Goals

The tools for digital image making are relatively recent innovations in a long line of inventions created for business and/or technological purposes prior to their adoption by the artistic community. This heritage is shared with other media such as darkroom photography, film, video, printmaking and printing. Even oil paint was once a new technology. Like all practical tools, in the hands of artists, digital imaging possesses the potential to push far beyond the realm of practical production; to inform, move, provoke and manifest the landscape of dreams. This course will provide an introduction to Adobe Photoshop and basic file management practices. It will also offer the skills necessary to complete time-based video projects with video applications such as Premiere Pro. This course will additionally introduce you to the work of many prominent artists/inventors in digital media, as well as an overview of the current issues, concerns and interests circulating in the digital community.

Students in this course will:

You will be encouraged to bring the interests, ideas and the skills you have acquired over a lifetime into your work, acting as artists and inventors, expanding on ideas previously explored, and developing an individual direction. Experimentation, risk taking, and sharing knowledge and skills (teaching) will be required of each individual. Consider yourself a member of a team, working closely with your colleagues. Discussions and critiquing sessions, constructive criticism and creative problem solving will be rigorously pursued with the ongoing objective of promoting the intelligence of the work of every member of the class.

Art is not created in a vacuum. The artist is not a divinely inspired being who creates intuitively outside of culture, but an active consumer and producer of culture. Art is a form of communication. Understanding the content of imagery, considering intended audience and intent, recognizing the importance of working within a group (or movement in art history lingo), and taking responsibility for the power which images possess are all part of a vocabulary which has the potential to make you a more eloquent “speaker.”

Reading/writing Assignments & journals

A reading assignment with study questions and a class discussion will accompany each of the three main projects you will be assigned in this class. A written response (worth Reading/Writing credit) will be due on the day of the discussion. If you do not attend the discussion you will not receive full credit for the response papers unless you acquire permission to do so in advance in the case of a legitimate reason for your absence. Technical readings and online tutorials will also be assigned. You will have one graded quiz in response to technical readings, and an end of the semester Artist Statement, both of which will be part of your Reading/writing grade.

Journals: Part of your Reading/writing work will also involve keeping a daily journal. I am asking you to photograph yourself each day and keep the photographs there in your journal (yes, I am asking you to take a daily “selfie”). Quality is not important. Use the camera in your phone, laptop or a digital camera and create a blog or digital journal. Instant cameras or prints are fine for those of you who prefer analogue journals. I am using the word “journal” in the loosest possible sense. What I require is that you make marks in it each day. This could be a few words noting what you're thinking about, lines from a conversation overheard, a letter to or from a friend, an interesting text or e-mail sent or received, newspaper/magazine articles, etc. If English is not your first language, use the language with which you are most comfortable. The only stipulation is that you must record something every day. This project will provide a means for you to trace and preserve your thought processes and ideas.

Reading, writing, and discussions will be significant to your understanding of the subject matter. You will be expected to take them seriously. They will count as 20% of your final grade. Journals will be checked periodically (dates listed in the Course Schedule) and graded at the end of the semester. More instructions will be provided on Canvas, in terms of how to submit this assignment.

Required Texts/Readings

Textbook is recommended, but not required. You will need it to successfully pass 1 test, and the book will be a useful reference tool. We will discuss this more in class. Talk with me before you purchase the book. Other options are available for you. Demos will be given in class and links to online tutorials will be provided. But if you are the sort of person who likes referring to a handbook, the book below is excellent.

Adobe Photoshop CC for Photographers: 2018 1st Edition

ISBN-13: 978-1138086760

ISBN-10: 1138086762

Author: Martin Evening.

Available through Amazon: Soft Cover for $34.21 (& cheaper used options), or $48.63 on Kindle

Ebay sometimes has cheaper options too.

Other Readings

In addition to your technical readings, readings of a more philosophical, cultural, and/or theoretical nature will be made available on Canvas for you for each assignment, along with study questions to which you will provide a response for credit.

Other technology requirements / equipment / material

1. Reminder: You MUST have your own laptop computer to take this course. Macs are preferred and will make life easier, since demos are given on a Mac.
2. Reminder: You must have the latest edition of the Adobe Creative Suite. As an SJSU student the software is FREE! For this course you will need Adobe Photoshop, Premiere Pro and possibly Lightroom, if you already use it to organize your images. Link to download your free software: <https://www.sjsu.edu/ecampus/software-tools/teaching-tools/video-creative/adobe/students.php>
3. You will need plenty of room on your laptop hard drive (at least 40 GB), a good size usb drive, and/or an external hard drive or cloud storage space for work space and file storage.
4. Paper will be provided for you, if you print in the lab. If you print at an outside print service, prices vary widely, depending on company, size and number of your prints. Try to print on campus, if at all possible.
5. Canned air: strongly recommended for scanning - if you use the lab.
6. White cotton gloves: strongly recommended for handling paper during printing, matting, framing, etc.
7. Large cardboard/plastic tube or large artist portfolio for transportation of digital prints – strongly recommended.
8. Presentation materials – cost varies widely depending on what you choose and size and number of images. I have reduced physical presentations of your work to only two assignments this semester, given our current situation. Still, you could easily spend $100 +. If you are creative and plan ahead, less expensive presentation options are possible. Last minute solutions tend to be costly.

Equipment Checkout: For students enrolled in Photography courses, or Photo majors working on BFA exhibitions, the checkout procedure is now managed through the following link: <https://photo.sjsu.edu/facilities/equipment-rental/> Equipment will be picked up and returned at the Photo checkout window on the 4th floor of Duncan Hall. If you need help, let me know. You may also checkout some equipment from the Instructional Resource Center (IRC). The checkout process is online: <https://www.sjsu.edu/it/services/academic-tech/equipment-loaning/index.php>

Course Requirements and Assignments

For the past two semesters I have reduced serious assignments in this course from four to three. Everything takes longer on Zoom. Though we will be holding some class meetings in person, I will continue with this reduced schedule this semester. I have added in-class exercises to help you refine your skills. Your three serious projects will be graded based upon Concept (strength of ideas communicated), Technique (technical proficiency) and Presentation (quality and appropriateness of the way you chose to present your work, considering your concept - number and size of images, matted, framed, alternative presentations, etc.). Project grades will be an average of the three areas, meaning your work must be exceptional in all three to achieve an "A+."

"Success in this course is based on the expectation that students will spend, for each unit of credit, a minimum of 45 hours over the length of the course (normally three hours per unit per week) for instruction, preparation/studying, or course related activities, including but not limited to internships, labs, and clinical practica. Other course structures will have equivalent workload expectations as described in the syllabus."

Class Participation

The best way to develop your skills and concepts is to be present and actively participate. Your participation in the form of regular involvement is not only strongly suggested but mandatory. Your voice is critical to the success of this class. 20% of your final grade will be based on your overall class participation. For serious illness or family emergencies resulting in multiple missed days, appropriate documentation will be required. Habitual tardiness and/or early departures usually result in a lower class grade due to missed, graded activities and loss of information. If you are experiencing extenuating circumstances it is your responsibility to make me aware of your situation at the time of missed or late work.

Zoom Participation

I will start each Zoom session at 12:15 pm, to allow you to settle in and talk among yourselves. Class will begin promptly at 12:30 pm. Find a quiet, private place in your home for your Zoom class sessions. I am asking that you have your cameras turned on, unless there is a special reason why you cannot do so, in which case, you must let me know at the start of the semester. It will help us build a better class dynamic if we are all present, engaged, and can see one another. Dress in presentable clothing, so that you will feel comfortable on camera. If there is background noise in your environment, your microphone should be silenced until you are ready to speak. If your camera is consistently turned off, there is no sign of your activity in the "Chat" feature, and/or it is obvious that you are engaged with other activities, such as texting or working on other class work during our class, expect serious deductions in your Class Participation grade. If you are a naturally quiet person, try using the "Chat" feature. There are also opportunities to interact within smaller groups.

Classroom Protocol

Students are expected to be punctual, to remain for the duration of the class, and to remain actively engaged during all class meetings. Cell phones, laptops (when not specifically asked to use them) or other devices that detract from full attention should be turned off, put away and/or silenced.

Final Examination or Evaluation

Our Final Exam is scheduled by SJSU to take place Tuesday, December 14th, 12:15 to 2:30 pm. Please note that this is a different day of the week and slightly different time than usual. Make appropriate arrangements now, so that you will be available to meet on this day. A portion of your final work will be due on this day. Participation is mandatory, per SJSU regulations: “Faculty members are required to have a culminating activity for their courses, which can include a final examination, a final research paper or project, a final creative work or performance, a final portfolio of work, or other appropriate assignment.” University policy S17-1

Grading Information

Determination of Grades

The work created in class will be evaluated based on the following criteria.

- A Outstanding: thoughtful and intelligent ideas presented in a clear, organized, and engaging manner; among the very best.
- B Above Average - Good: the ideas are interesting and successfully presented; shows potential, but not necessarily distinctive; roughly equal in quality to the work completed by other students.
- C Average - mediocre: achieves minimum requirements of the assignment, but not particularly clear, nor ambitious. Quality of work is below that of most other projects submitted. May be above average idea presented in incomplete state.
- D Unsatisfactory: does not satisfy the minimum requirements of the assignment; generally unsatisfactory in terms of quality and clarity. Usually sloppy, incomplete and or late work.
- F You didn't submit an assignment.

Numeric grade equivalents - Detailed Letter Grade Rubric

A plus = 100 to 97 points
A = 96 to 93 points
A minus = 92 to 90 points
B plus = 89 to 87 points
B = 86 to 83 points
B minus = 82 to 80 points
C plus = 79 to 77 points
C = 76 to 73 points
C minus = 72 to 70 points
D plus = 69 to 67 points
D = 66 to 63 points
D minus = 62 to 60 points
F = 59 points or lower

Course Grade

There are 100 points possible for this course. Your course grade will be based on 3 serious projects: 10% for the first and 20% for the last two (50% total), two in-class assignments (10% total) class participation (20%) and reading and writing assignments (20%). To break this down, 60% of your grade will be based on your visual projects, 40% on Class Participation and Reading/Writing assignments, which means that you should take Class Participation and Reading/Writing assignments seriously. Take risks, break the rules, speak your mind, take yourself and your work seriously and it will pay off in ways you cannot presently foresee.

Grade Reduction for missed Critique days

Critiques are one of the most important learning experiences associated with this class. I expect you to attend all critique days, even if you don't have work to show. A class of this size requires two days of critique. You must attend both to earn full credit for your own assignment. Failure to do so will lower your assignment grade by a half letter for each missed critique day, and could affect your Class Participation grade as well. I will be much more likely to accept excuses for late work if you attended the critiques. Your voice is important to the success of this class. Notify me if you are experiencing serious difficulties that may cause your absence during critique days.

Make Ups and Late Work

It is your responsibility to make up missed class sessions or late work. If you must miss a class, please send me an e-mail before class so that I may let you know what you will be missing. I will not be recording this course. Absences often result in missed in-class work, and a reduction for class participation, though I do not grade on attendance alone. Talk to me if you are having problems. I make exceptions for legitimate, documented excuses.

Guidelines for Letters of Recommendation

1. You should give me (or any professor) 30 days minimum forewarning for letters of recommendation (not counting holidays or breaks during which you should not assume that I will be writing letters).
2. I will not be likely to grant last minute requests, though it's always worth a try, in emergencies.
3. It should go without saying that you should be a student who did very well in the class/es you took with me.
4. All pertinent information and documents necessary for the letter should be emailed to me.
5. If hard copies are required, stamped, addressed envelopes for each recipient should be included.
6. I strongly suggest that you schedule a brief meeting during my office hours to discuss the purpose of the letter at the time of your request. I am happy to write letters of support for all who follow these guidelines.

Consent for Recording of Class (Zoom included) and Public Sharing of Instructor Material

University Policy S12-7, <http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/S12-7.pdf>, requires students to obtain instructor's permission to record the course and the following items to be included in the syllabus:

- "Common courtesy and professional behavior dictate that you notify someone when you are recording him/her. You must obtain the instructor's permission to make audio or video recordings in this class. Such permission allows the recordings to be used for your private, study purposes only. The recordings are the intellectual property of the instructor; you have not been given any rights to reproduce or distribute the material."
  - It is suggested that the greensheet include the instructor's process for granting permission, whether in writing or orally and whether for the whole semester or on a class by class basis.
  - In classes where active participation of students or guests may be on the recording, permission of those students or guests should be obtained as well.
- "Course material developed by the instructor is the intellectual property of the instructor and cannot be shared publicly without his/her approval. You may not publicly share or upload instructor generated material for this course such as exam questions, lecture notes, or homework solutions without instructor consent." Information regarding this policy can be found at: <https://www.sjsu.edu/curriculum/courses/syllabus-info.php - consent-recording>

University Policies - General Expectations, Rights and Responsibilities of the Student

Per University Policy S16-9, relevant university policy concerning all courses, such as student responsibilities, academic integrity, accommodations, dropping and adding, consent for recording of class, etc. and available student services (e.g. learning assistance, counseling, and other resources) are listed on Syllabus Information web page (<https://www.sjsu.edu/curriculum/courses/syllabus-info.php>). Make sure to visit this page to review and be aware of these university policies and resources.

Dropping and Adding

Tuesday, August 31st: Last day to drop courses without an entry on student's permanent record (D).

Wednesday September 8th: Last day to Add courses and register late (A).

For more information regarding add/drop policies see the Dropping and Adding section at <https://www.sjsu.edu/gup/syllabusinfo/#Adding%20and%20Dropping>

Important Upcoming Deadlines (yellow highlight indicates Zoom meeting; blue highlight indicates on-campus meeting):

Today, 8/23 (Zoom meeting)

1. Your writing assignment “The Color of Light – Sunrise/Sunset” is already on Canvas. You should find it there and read the guidelines now. It is due a little more than a month from today, Monday 9/27.
2. Take a look at the Profiles Assignment on Canvas. Your completed pdf file will be due uploaded to Canvas Wednesday 8/25 (next class meeting). Please read instructions for this below before you save and upload. You will need to RENAME the document when you save your additions.
3. Construct the journals that you will be using over the weekend. Journals are due Monday, 8/30
4. Complete in-class writing assignment @ end of class – due today before you leave.
5. You will be presenting your past work on Wednesday, 8/25. Arrive prepared to do this. Our next class meeting will be on-campus in IS 219.

For Wednesday 8/25 (on-campus meeting)

1. Have profiles electronically filed out and uploaded to Canvas before the start of class - Use the interactive pdf doc. provided. Make sure to RENAME your profile (using your own last name). I will be uploading them today to one file folder so that all of you have access to them on Canvas. If you don't rename your file, it will cause confusion, and could cause files to write over one another. This is your first assignment that counts toward reading/writing points and it's an easy one, so take it seriously.
2. Bring your past work to share with the class – a credit/no credit assignment - counts toward class participation points. You may either bring physical work or screen share electronic imagery, in which case you will need digital versions of whatever you plan to show.
3. Your first reading and answers to study questions will be due Mon. 8/30.
4. Make sure you attend class again, or you could be dropped. If you can't attend for some reason, you need to let me know AHEAD OF TIME (not after you miss class).

For Monday 8/30 (on-campus meeting)

1. Have Journals purchased (or physically or electronically constructed) by today – your first photos and entries from the weekend should be in them...a credit/no credit assignment - counts toward reading/writing points. Upload them to Canvas, using the instructions provided.
2. First reading due today. Remember to upload your written responses to study questions in the "Reply" section of the Reading assignment on Canvas.
3. Have Profiles read by today. They were available for you on Canvas by the end of the day on Weds. 8/25. Start thinking about who you might like to work with. The deadline for choosing partners will be Weds. 9/01 (next class), when you will begin to work with them.
4. Your second reading and answers to study questions will also be due Weds. 9/01.
5. First Assignment will be introduced today - due Mon. 9/20 (it's on Canvas now).

For Wednesday 9/01 (on-campus meeting)

1. Second reading due today. Remember to upload your written responses to study questions in the "Reply" section of the Reading assignment on Canvas.
2. Today is your deadline for choosing partners. Your team will begin work on the first assignment today. First assignment is due Monday 9/20.
3. Introduction of first assignment continues, followed by first technical demos.

I look forward to working with all of you.
