

I. A.S. Committee Meetings

A. Academic Affairs

- Reviewed Draft of the Open Letter Advocating Against Online Proctoring Services. Bringing this letter to the next meeting on November 18th as an action item, would like to remind the Board and campus community that our meetings are public and we welcome your feedback.
- Also went over how to incorporate University policy or strategic plans in said letter, infographics, and the petition via google form.
- Trend among College Representatives: Deans would like to work with AS to address concerns ranging from concerns with virtual learning, ethnic studies, club fairs, and advising.

II. University Committee Meetings

A. Curriculum and Research

- Curriculum: Discontinued Hospitality, Tourism, and Event Management Concentration, moved to BS Business Administration. We did not address the concern regarding the lecturers and their job security, that is considered a Union (California Faculty Association) Issue. Discontinued Minor in Hotel and Restaurant. Approved the Change from MA to MA in Science Education.
- Policy: Discussed the accessibility policy, trying to create more concrete language regarding the funding mandate and the issue of enforcing this requirement. Paused the conversation regarding the new Ethnic Studies Requirement until there is messaging from the Chancellor's Office. Feedback regarding the draft of the Executive Order was due November 2nd.

B. Undergraduate Studies

- Curriculum: Conditionally approved the Sports Journalism Minor (concern regarding the process of how to declare the minor). Approved the name change from General Engineering BS to Interdisciplinary Engineering BS. Approved the PE Waiver for Business Administration, Hospitality, Tourism, and Event Management. The change from Earth Science BA to Earth System Science BS was discussed but is being brought back to committee at a later date.

III. Additional Meetings/ Activities

A. Academic Senate

- Meeting was solely regarding the budget, with presentations from the Vice President for Administration and Finance, Charlie Faas and Provost and Senior Vice President of Academic Affairs, Vincent Del Casino.
- Asked about the $4.3 million savings that the Strategic Sourcing Team helped achieve, the current plan with Athletics (in relation to Fresno State cutting 3 sports to save revenue), and the plan with programs and if any would be expected to be cut.

- Highlights: The CSU is not planning any furloughs for 2020/2021 and SJSU is not planning any layoffs (layoffs do not include part time faculty). Expecting consistent enrollment projections.
- B. Meeting with Associate Dean of Undergraduate Education, Dr. Melinda Jackson
- Discussed the different Student Surveys regarding the Virtual Learning Experience that her team and AS (President Delgadillo and I) are planning to ensure there is no survey fatigue and that we limit overlap.
- C. Met with Director Mata
- Discussed the marketing projects and posting schedule for Academic Affairs related graphics.
- D. Media Training
- The AS Board met with Strategic Communication and Marketing.
- E. Met with Student-at-Large Lin, Director Chuang, Director Acosta, Director Pama
- Discussed the plans for the incentives for the upcoming AS events for International Education Week.
- F. Met with Government Admin Assistant Riggins
- Discussed the history of the AS restructure and the reasoning behind the current membership for the Academic Affairs committee.
- G. Student-at-Large Welcome and Training
- Spoke about Associated Students' history and position on campus. Introduced Student-at-larges to board members present and did a quick overview of Robert's Rules. Committees then broke up with respective chairs, Academic Affairs discussed their specific purpose and duties as outlined in the AS Bylaws.
- H. Student Basic Needs Webinar
- Attended to see what other campuses in California were doing to address Student Hunger and Houselessness.
- I. SJSU Campus Master Plan Stakeholder Interview
- Director Jones-Trammell shared this opportunity with me to share my perspective on the issues surrounding the makings of a Campus Master Plan.
- J. Presidential Election Response Planning
- Attended a meeting with campus partners to discuss our plans for elections and post-elections events or services to support the campus community during these ambiguous and trying times.
- K. Met with Director Jones-Trammell
- Discussed our plans for the Post-Election Decompression Spaces we were hosting. Finalized graphics and slides at this meeting.
- L. Met with Director Walker and Professor Mary Currin-Percival

- I discussed with Professor Currin-Percival the intentions of the AS Post-Election Decompression Space events. We finalized the ways in which SJSUVotes! as well as Professor Mary Currin-Percival and Professor Garrick Percival would be involved.
- M. Elections Decompression Space/Training and Check-in with Staff and AS Board Members
- Finalized the schedule for the different days we were hosting the space. Walked through any last minute concerns we had and ensured we were all prepared for the events!
- N. Met with Director Acosta and Director Chuang regarding International Education Week
- Focused on the marketing graphics, incentives, google forms, and the activities for the events.
- O. Post Election Decompression Space
- Attended the two sessions on Nov 3rd and Nov 4th. We have another planned for Nov 9th from 9am-7pm! Hope to see the campus community and AS Board members present on Monday.
- P. 1-on-1 with College Representative Reyes, College of Humanities & the Arts
- Discussed his upcoming meeting with Associate Dean Svorou and created the Google Form Petition for the Advocacy against Online Proctoring Services.
- Q. 1-on-1 with Leadership & Government Coordinator Samantha Quiambao
- Shared updates about what I have been working on and focused on plans for upcoming events.

IV. Liaisons

- A. Dr. Nikos Mourtos, President of California Faculty Association at SJSU
- CFA is currently focusing on how to deal with online teaching and learning due to COVID-19. This new environment has taken a toll on Faculty and added to their respective workloads. There are also issues with hiring and firing grievances that CFA is trying to address (labor issue).
 - Also discussed: the lack of inclusion of Faculty in the running of the University, the involvement of lecturers in CFA, different exam pedagogies and the reasoning behind each.
- B. Dr. Thalia Anagnos, Vice Provost of Undergraduate Education
- Scheduling a follow up to our first meeting.
- C. Dr. Marc d'Alarcao, Dean, College of Graduate Studies
- Still looking for a College Representative for the College of Graduate Studies. In the meantime, I will continue to communicate with Dr. d'Alarcao.

I. A.S. Committee Meetings

- A.S. Academic Affairs: The majority of this committee meeting was dedicated to gathering information for the draft of the letter of concern regarding proctoring softwares. It was determined that the letter should be sent to President Papazian, Provost Del Casino, Deans of SJSU, Department Chairs of SJSU, and Academic Senators. The latter half of the meeting consisted of sharing gathered research and ideas for potential graphics to be posted on A.S. social media platforms.
 - Transformation 2030: College rep. Britney Ortiz and I gathered information on the SJSU 10-year strategic plan. The information gathered is intended to give a better understanding of the University's priorities. The information can be found here: Transformation 2030.
 - Infographic: College rep. Amer Mriziq and Nina Chuang led the efforts to create an infographic and shared their ideas. The image consisted of a drain to signify how student's privacy was going down the drain.
- A.S. Internal Affairs committee: In this meeting, committee members reviewed a student-at-large application and began going over article 5 of the ERM. It was determined that the committee would focus on recommending edits for the Elections Regulation Manual before the end of the semester and would postpone editing the A.S. Bylaws. The reason being that the SEC (Student Election Committee) needs to see an updated version of the ERM and make recommendations accordingly.
 - To do: 1. Meet with committee advisor, Carole Dowell, to strategically plan upcoming agendas as well as hear back from legal counsel. 2. Send out email that entails the work each committee member is to be doing until we next meet. 3. Ask Christy to add the appointment of a student-at-large to the internal affairs committee on the next BOD meeting agenda.

II. University Committee Meetings

- ISA (Instruction and Student Affairs Committee): ISA committee met on Monday 11/2 and went over the waitlist policy initiative and survey findings.

III. Additional Meetings/ Activities

- The University Task Force on Community Safety and Policing met on 10/29. Members discussed dates to invite the campus community to a task force meeting, however, due to time constraints, it was determined that each member would reach out to their respective network and community. Meeting for 11/5 was canceled.
- Met with Sam for 1:1 and discussed the plan to partner with Student Conduct and Ethical Development for IG Live event.
- Met with Crystal, graphic designer for the marketing team, to discuss graphic design ideas.

- Attended the “Coffee with the Board” event on 11/3. Met the faculty working at various A.S. departments, had a lively chat and received great advice on post-grad plans.

IV. Liaisons

- Chancellor update: Joseph Castro, currently President at Fresno State, was selected as the eighth Chancellor of the CSU. He will start on January 4, 2021.
- Zahraa Khuraibet, President of the California State Student Association, updated the trustees on CSSA's projects and priorities.
 - “The CSSA Board unanimously re-adopted their 2019-20 policy agenda for the coming year. The four priorities are to
 - Enable access to housing, food, and wellness resources that promote overall student health and safety
 - Assure that the CSU is accessible, affordable, and sustainable
 - Assure the academic success and holistic educational experience of all CSU students
 - foster inclusive civic engagement for CSU students to find agency in their campus, community, and governmental affairs."
