As the new Executive Director for Associated Students, I am honored and excited to lead an organization with a 118-year history steeped in social justice, advocacy and providing quality programs and services to the San José State University community.

As we move forward with this new chapter of our history, we will develop a strategic plan that will align us with the learning outcomes of the Division of Student Affairs and the University. We will analyze the programs and services that we provide to ensure we are operating efficiently and providing students with the highest quality of service.

Student government is finalizing a new senate-based leadership model that will increase leadership opportunities for students and allow us to impact more of the campus community. Moving student government into the new Student Union will strategically place us in the heart of campus making our leaders more accessible to their peers.

Associated Students mission is to represent SJSU students and continually improve the quality of educational opportunities and experiences. As we move onward, Associated Students will continue to work diligently to be good stewards of student fees and represent the voice of the students at all levels. We will continue to provide students with opportunities to have a rich and rewarding experience at SJSU. I am enthusiastic about what the future holds for Associated Students and San José State University and look forward to many years of impacting the SJU community.

Spartan Up!

Hello Spartans!

I must say, it has been a tremendous pleasure, honor, and responsibility to serve as the Associated Students President & CEO. This past year has all been about moving forward and onward.

From our logos to our leadership, it surely was a year of transition for our organization, as exemplified by our Interim Executive Director, Kelli Williams Reid, who so ably served A.S. at such a critical time. It was also apparent again when I transitioned from Vice President to President in the spring semester.

Highlights from the year are broad and varied. The Campus-to-the-City initiative was realized with the banners throughout downtown and the first Spartan head symbolically imprinted on the intersection of 9th Street and San Fernando to declare that this is "Spartan Territory" to all who pass. Special thanks to past President Nicholas Ayala (2013-2014) and Mykel Jeffrey, three-term Board member, for their hard work with the University and City of San José on that project. A.S. also hosted its first-ever Spartan Showcase to show off all of the great work our student organizations do with A.S. funding.

We spent a significant amount of time reviewing and reassessing our financial practices and policies to reaffirm our commitment to the sensible stewardship of student fees. This year, we also renegotiated our lease cost for our Student Union spaces, which opened up tens of thousands of dollars in our 2015-2016 budget. The Governance Restructure for Equity, Advocacy & Transparency (G.R.E.A.T) Ad Hoc Committee developed a new proposal for the model for the A.S. Restructure Project that we intend to implement by the 2016-2017 school year. We reformed our Election Regulation Manual to streamline and garner more popularity during election cycles.

In the spring, we conducted a Student Success Fee Survey to gather feedback on how to best utilize the controversial funds from students, which ultimately led to a unanimously-approved Board resolution, a better sense of priorities for the fee and a commitment from the administration to freeze the fee at its current level. Special thanks to all who helped in the creation of the survey, particularly then Interim Vice President of Student Affairs, Dr. Renee Barnett Terry, who supported A.S. throughout the entire year.

In keeping with the theme of onward, we successfully led a search for a permanent Executive Director which resulted in the hiring of Ms. Tari Hunter Wimbley. I am so thrilled to see her settle and grow into her role with Associated Students. I have no doubt that she will be pivotal in shaping the legacy of A.S. with future student leaders.

I am so proud of the work that has been done, and I hope you will recognize the impact that Associated Students has made at SJSU during the 2014-15 year.

Thank you, and Spartan Up!
2014-2015 A.S. BOARD OF DIRECTORS

SJSU Student Government

Associated Students takes great pride in the sixteen student leaders elected each year to represent and advocate for SJSU students. The organization thanks and recognizes the 2014-2015 Board of Directors for their hard work and dedication to their fellow Spartans.
GOVERNMENT

Highlights

The 2014-2015 A.S. Board of Directors was essential in providing leadership to the organization, the allocation and disbursement of A.S. funds, and the creation and implementation of programs and services to improve campus and community life.

The Board collaborated within and outside of the SJSU community—through its nine departments, its internal committees and volunteers, with university, divisional, departmental and organizational leaders—to address and achieve student success.

OVERCOMING A CHALLENGE

In Fall 2014, the Board handled a very sensitive personnel matter with integrity and care. The organization rose to the challenge by increasing its financial transparency, collaborating even more closely with the Board and staff, liaising with student and campus representatives, and improving overall stability. During this time, Kelk Williams Reid moved into the position of Interim Executive Director to help steer the organization.

A SEAT AT THE TABLE

To strengthen relationships within the campus, increased participation from the Board of Directors in the Academic Senate allowed for a stronger voice and platform for A.S. in the discussion of important campus issues that impact students. More directors also became involved in university executive search committees, including the recruitment for the Deputy Provost, Vice President of Student Affairs, and Vice President of University Advancement, among others.

G.R.E.A.T. AD HOC COMMITTEE

The Governance Restructure for Equity, Advocacy and Transparency Committee pledges to bring greater student representation by introducing a 28-member student senate. This implies a restructuring of the A.S. Board, Bylaws and the Elections Regulation Manual.

INTERNAL REFORM AND A NEW EXTERNAL AUDITOR

The Board instituted reforms to internally strengthen Associated Students. A review of budget policies was implemented. Professional staff and the Board worked collaboratively in the development and the subsequent approval of budgets for each A.S. department. A new external auditor was hired to strengthen internal controls and increase trust and transparency. The Board also worked at better clarifying the organization’s Bylaws. This included the establishment of a line of succession for all executive positions. The A.S. Board was led by President Cary Danes in Fall 2014, with Aaron Miller officially taking over the role of A.S. President in Spring 2015.

REVISING THE ELECTION REGULATIONS MANUAL (ERM)

The ERM is the governing document for A.S. student elections. Mykel Jeffrey, Director of Internal Affairs, revised the document, with approval from the Board, to increase the number of campaigning events, extended the voting period to a full week versus the previous period of just a few days, and further defined the roles of the officers in the Students’ Election Commission (SEC).

INAUGURAL SPARTAN SHOWCASE

Student organizations showcased how A.S. funding helped members meet organizational goals. A.S. Controller Brandon Marquez, who created and spearheaded the event, worked with the A.S. Finance Committee and volunteers to stage the well-attended showcase. The showcase also helped to welcome the visiting accreditation team from the Western Association of Schools and Colleges (W.A.S.C).

FREE SCANTRONS

Calina Owens, Director of Business Affairs, worked with the A.S. Operations Committee to make free scantrons available. Students may pick up limited quantities at A.S. House, Print Shop, General Services Center and Computer Services Center.

STUDENT FOOD INSECURITY

A 2014 San José State University Food Access Survey revealed that one out of every three SJSU students skips a meal because of the extra monetary expense. In August 2014, the Student Hunger Committee was formed to address this vital student issue. Victor Hernandez, 2014-2015 A.S. Director of Rights & Responsibilities, was a leading advocate for the Hunger Initiative, which included several donation drives, an awareness campaign for student hunger, and food shelves becoming available on campus. Hernandez continues to work with the Student Hunger Committee as an alum. The Student Hunger Committee is a collaboration of members from A.S. Government, A.S. César E. Chávez Community Action Center, Counseling Services, University Chapel, Financial Aid, Housing, Spartan Shops, Student Affairs, Student Health Center, University Advancement, and current SJSU students.

“...one of the most challenging years A.S. has ever faced. We successfully weathered the storm through the hard work of students and staff alike in order to stay true to our mission!”

- Josh Romero

2014-2015 Director of Faculty Affairs
The Student Success Excellence and Technology Fee (SSETF) was introduced in 2012 after being approved by an alternative consultation process, a process later ruled problematic by the CSU Board of Trustees. It subsumed the previous Instructional Related Activity Fee and Miscellaneous Course Support Fee with the intention to provide a variety of evidence-based student support programs for academic support, professional development, technology upgrades, and lab/classroom renovation. The goal of the fee is to improve graduation rates of all students.

This year, the A.S. Board of Directors worked with the university to fully understand the fee and its allocation, and to implement a survey in Spring 2015 to poll students about SSETF. A total of 1,350 undergraduate and graduate SJSU students took the survey, with the results as follows: 36% were in favor, 30% were neutral, and 34% opposed when asked if they would be willing to pay an additional $20 per semester. For more about the survey and SSETF, visit the new A.S. webpage at http://tinyurl.com/SSETFsjsu.

ELECTIONS FOR INCOMING 2015-2016 A.S. BOARD

The voluntary Student Involvement Representation Fee (SIRF), which goes into effect Fall 2015, is paid by students at $2 per semester. The monies are collected by the California State Student Association (CSSA) and used to support its student leadership, involvement, governance and advocacy programs at the state level. This year, Associated Students worked with CSSA to begin educating students about the fee, its purpose and also that students may opt out of the fee, which can be done by logging into their MySJSU account.

Whether students will want to factor $2 into their overall level of support for the fee. As a result of their work, the Board approved a resolution, produced an informational video, and the fee for Fall 2015 was ultimately unbundled for transparency and reduced by $2 per semester. For more about the resolution, survey and SSETF, visit the new A.S. webpage at http://tinyurl.com/SSETFsjsu.

Available to graduate and undergraduate students receiving financial aid grants, the program provides a voucher worth $60 per student towards textbook rentals on a first come, first serve basis.

LIBRARY POLICY CHANGE
A total of 944 signatures were collected in a petition by SOUL (Save Our University Library) and Associated Students to modify the new Library Policy. The result ensures that information—in both print and electronic formats—is always accessible and kept up-to-date for the purposes of students’ academic research and various curricular undertakings.

DIVERSITY DAY APRIL 30TH
In celebration of uniqueness, identity and culture, the A.S. Programming Board, led by its Director, Kelsey Kilpatrick, staged performances and speeches on Tower Lawn. The city government of San José officially declared April 30th as Diversity Day. The goal of Diversity Day is to promote a larger, less defensive and far more positive light on diversity at the university.

TOBACCO-FREE SJSU
Associated Students played a pivotal role in making SJSU a tobacco-free campus. The question was put forward to the student body during the elections cycle where nearly 80 percent voted in favor of the campaign.

CAMPUS-TO-THE-CITY
On September 15, 2014, a large Spartan head decal was installed at the intersection of San Fernando and 9th Street. In Spring 2015, forty two banners were installed along the length of 4th, 7th, and 10th Street. This initiative, started by former A.S. President Nick Ayala (2013-2014), showcases Spartan pride in the downtown area and aims to increase safety.

A.A. ANNUAL REPORT

2014-2015
A Commitment to Community Involvement and Social Justice

The César E. Chávez Community Action Center (CCCAC) offers students a powerful way to get involved in the community through service learning and social justice programs. In 2014-2015, the department staged collaborative events with the campus to feature high-profile social justice personalities and advocates, including Supreme Court Justice Sonia Sotomayor and activist Angela Davis. Raj Dayaev from Silicon Valley De-Bug and the Albert Cobarrubias Justice Project was the featured speaker at the 2014 Legacy Rally.

The Center is led by Maribel Martinez, herself a past Associated Students President, working in collaboration with student program assistants and an active base of volunteers. Late last year, Mark Batcheler joined the team as Community Garden Manager, leading up to the opening of the new A.S. Campus Community Garden in March 2015.

Student program assistants received various accolades throughout the year recognized with the SJSU Provost Award for Service. The department also conducted presentations at the Campus Compact Continuums of Service Conference, as well as the Job and Education Development Initiative (JEDI).

SHARING OUR STORIES

“Strive for College has allowed me to improve my leadership skills. It helped me to become a better teacher as I helped a student map out his college plan when he had no initial plan. I was able to better my relationship with this student and with high school students in general, as this age group is not my strong point. Ultimately, this student told me how much my planning had helped him in his plan for his future.”

– Strive for College volunteer

“I liked seeing the monuments.”

“We truly appreciate your hospitality and generosity of spirit in giving our students a positive experience.”

“The library was amazing — I didn’t know that we can use it or about the secret bookcase.”

– Comments about a Legacy Tour from teacher Margot and eighth graders from Campbell Middle School

“I really liked learning about the history and activism at San José State.”

– Eighth grader from Campbell Middle School
An Organic Garden for the SJSU Community

The A.S. Campus Community Garden was created to provide students with access to healthy food and a space for volunteering and learning. The organic garden offers seasonal fruits and vegetables. Volunteers and visitors are guided on all aspects of gardening, including weeding, fertilizing, planting, and harvesting. A program within the A.S. César E. Chávez Community Action Center, the garden opened in March 11, 2015 as part of a larger initiative to address student food insecurity at San José State University.

“...I did not have a meal plan and was spending a ton on produce every week. I was able to stock up on organic onion, garlic, strawberries, and carrots. I also learned a lot about soil, crops, and harvesting; this is knowledge I hope to bring to my family, friends, and my own garden one day.”

– Maribel Martinez on getting the garden off the ground with garden manager Mark Batcheler
Several significant changes will take effect in Associated Students’ Transportation Solutions (T.S.) department, led by department manager Eyedin Zonobi, by Fall 2015. Most importantly, the Eco Pass—an iconic sticker allowing students to ride the Silicon Valley Transportation Authority’s (VTA) bus and light rail—will be discontinued and merged with the Clipper Card format to create what is now known as the Eco Pass Clipper Card. The Clipper Card is a widely used Bay Area transit pass that allows users to load funds onto the card and pay electronically at transit stops and stations, as opposed to purchasing cumbersome paper tickets. For San José State students, staff, and faculty, the Clipper Card comes preloaded with the Eco Pass feature, so no money is required to use VTA’s services. Additionally, the Eco Pass Clipper Card functions the same as standard Clipper Cards in its ability to hold funds and transit passes specific to other transit operators such as BART, Caltrain, and SF MUNI.

The same forward-thinking mentality that brought about the Eco Pass Clipper Card transition also led to advancements in the bicycle culture at San José State. Firstly, Transportation Solutions was awarded a $15,000 grant by the Bay Area Quality Management District that will be used to add 120 bike racks to campus in Fall 2015, which will increase the capacity needed to satisfy bike parking demand. Secondly, the U-Lock Exchange Program entered a subsequent round of funding this year, culminating in the provision of 150 Kryptonite-brand bike locks through a partnership with University Police Department Parking Services. These bike locks have been proven to significantly deter bike theft, which has been instrumental in creating a safer cycling environment at San José State.

In terms of community outreach, an event called Ride-to-School Day now occurs once per month. This event allows T.S. to engage students in a dialogue over alternative transportation benefits and the detrimental impacts of single-occupancy vehicle use. Ride-to-School Day is co-organized with the Environmental Resource Center SJSU.

Transportation education was also promoted through a number of new Transit 101 workshops. These roundtable-type sessions were held to help educate the SJSU community on how to use the Eco Pass on VTA, ride transit safely, access transit times and station locations using mobile apps, and other topics related to creating a transit-savvy campus. Transportation Solutions also visited the International House to communicate transportation options to international students.

The department in numbers:

- 50,500 Eco Passes distributed to the campus community
- 3,430 cars taken off the road per day in favor of other transit options
- 90,552 vehicle miles reduced in travel
- 220 new social media followers gained from July 2014 and August 2015
- 50 workshop and tabling events to reach freshman, transfer and graduate students
- 50,000+ hits on the T.S. website
- 300 trip plan requests from the student population

CAMPUS RECREATION

Increased Participation and Diversified Programming

A.S. Campus Recreation serves thousands of students each year. Activities provide a reprieve from a student’s busy daily routine by way of outdoor adventures, team sports and fitness programs. In 2014-2015, the department continued to expand its scope and reach by making rest & recreation activities and growth opportunities even more diversified and available to students. Programs reached more on-campus housing, international, transfer and non-traditional students. Campus Recreation also focused on leadership and student development as new staff assistants and students were trained at all levels to build a quality program.

LOOKING FORWARD

Last year, the lack of space was a challenge for Campus Recreation. The Spartan Complex (SPX) remained under construction, while at the Sport Club, Campus Recreation lost storage space as well. Overall, the department had to be creative with programming and maximizing available space. Today, the team looks forward to expanding programming with the re-opened SPX. The A.S. staff also looks forward to the new recreation center scheduled to break ground in the near future.

A Look Back at a Year of ‘Spartastic’ Events

The Associated Students’ Events Team continued to engage the SJSU community by staging much-anticipated annual events such as Fire on the Fountain, Spartan Squad Kickoff, Love for the Troops, Crafternoon and Music Mayhem. In 2014-2015, the department presented or participated in at least 32 events.

A.S. Marketing & Events, led by department manager Bradyn Miller, is a team of 12 people, each member specializing either in events, graphic design or marketing. The synergy of the team helps support important endeavors such as the annual elections for A.S. Student Government and the Student Leadership Gala, a collaboration amongst different departments and organizations within the Division of Student Affairs.

The department also hosted the 2nd Annual Transfer Student Mixer, an event designed to help foster inclusivity and belonging for transfer students. This year, the mixer saw an increase in attendance from international and commuter students.

The department in numbers:

- 157,156 number of times the monthly A.S. Spartan Scoop e-newsletter was read
- 8,350 approximate number of students who attended A.S. events (not including events hosted in collaboration with other campus departments or organizations)
- 4,000 (approx.) number of Spartan Squad t-shirts distributed
- 4,300 (approx.) free meals served at events

9 YEARS OF SPARTAN SQUAD

The official athletic booster program of SJSU encourages students to cheer on Spartan football, volleyball, basketball, soccer and cross country, among other teams. Associated Students actively maintains the program to rally Spartan spirit! A.S. launches a yearly competition amongst students to design the Spartan Squad t-shirt. Thousands of shirts were distributed at different sporting events.

AN INFUSION OF EVENTS FROM THE A.S. PROGRAMMING BOARD

One committee under Student Government is the Programming Board, which was led by 2014-2015 Director of Programming Affairs, Kelsey Kilpatrick. Student-at-large committee members and a host of volunteers created special events such as Diversity Day, Trashion Fashion Show and Glow Big or Go Home, a nighttime on-campus 5K run. A huge success was the A.S. Haunted House, which saw more than 1,000 students walk through the A.S. House to get spooked!

91% of surveyed participants agreed: “Events on campus make me feel more connected to SJSU and/or enrich my college experience.”

Associated Students had 274 employees in 2014-2015, with 80 percent of the workforce comprised primarily of students. In addition to the nine A.S. departments, the organization was made even stronger with strategic support from the Human Resources and the Information Technology Systems teams. The synergy within and amongst the departments, not only in day-to-day interactions, but also at organization-level events and programs, such as Professional Development Day, A.S. Staff Recognition and the SJSU Above & Beyond Service Awards, is what propels the A.S. organization onward!
A challenge to the A.S. Computer Services Center (CSC) early in the fall 2014 semester was to relocate to the new Student Union. This meant 70 computers, 3 large multi-function printers and other equipment had to be moved in a week’s time. The team went the extra mile to ensure that services were up and running for students. A well-attended and enjoyable activity was the grand opening event at the Student Union. Over 300 students won prizes and learned about the departments and services A.S. offers. The CSC introduced the computer build project, where student staff gained even more confidence and knowledge by assembling 25 personal computer units. The Center also provided technological resources to departments and student organizations such as the SJSU Career Center, International Gateway, Gaming Club and the Ethiopian Club.

ACCOLADES AND RECOGNITIONS

The staff at the CSC focuses on customer service. User surveys were returned with overwhelmingly positive feedback. This year, the Center also received a Commitment to Service thank you letter from CSU Chancellor Timothy P. White. University Human Resources also presented its Above & Beyond Award to Kevin Tran, Assistant IT Manager to the CSC.

CHILD DEVELOPMENT CENTER

A Focus on Connected Learning, Supervision and Care

The A.S. Child Development Center (CDC), led by department director Maria Davis, is an innovative early childhood education and care program for infants, toddlers, and preschoolers. The Center is open to San José State University student parents, faculty and staff, as well as the local community. Started in 1972, the Center serves 110 children per day through a philosophy and curriculum inspired by the Reggio-Emilia approach.

BIGGEST IMPACTS

• Providing high-quality education and care so student parents can achieve educational goals
• Providing to SJSU students a laboratory, observation, project, research and service learning site to fulfill academic requirements
• Providing employment, community service and volunteer opportunities for student groups and individual students
• Providing childcare subsidies to low-income student parents who otherwise would be unable to attend college

ACCREDITED EARLY CHILDHOOD EDUCATION

The CDC maintains the highest standards in early childhood education and care, and is accredited by the National Association for the Education of Young Children (NAEYC). The Center is also licensed by the California Department of Social Services and operates under the guidelines established by the California Department of Education. Beginning in Fall 2014, the Center started offering yearly vision, hearing, and dental screenings for all children at no charge. In Spring 2015, the CDC was awarded the highest-tiered quality rating of “5” for California Department of Education state preschool sites in Santa Clara County. The CDC is one of the few early childhood programs in the area to offer infant care to low-income families. SJSU academic departments that utilize the CDC for student assignments include: Child and Adolescent Development, Nursing, Music, Linguistics, Occupational Therapy, Audiology, Nutrition, Environmental Science, Health Science, and many others.

ONWARD

The CDC began full internal kitchen service in Summer 2015. The Center serves nutritious home cooked breakfast, lunch and snacks five days a week. There will also be additional focus on relationship-building and mentoring student assistants to create a stronger professional community at the Center.

THE DEPARTMENT IN NUMBERS

• Increased capacity in 2014 from 100 to 110 children per day
• Re-licensed Center in 2014 to accommodate 24 infants (increased from 12), 32 toddlers (increased from 24) and reduced preschool from 64 to 54 children
• 15 additional days of operation added (from 223 to 238 days per year)
• 85 SJSU students are employed by the Center and each work up to 20 hours per week

GENERAL SERVICES CENTER

A One-Stop Shop for Reliability and Convenience

Despite moving to its new offices in the east wing of the Student Union, A.S. General Services Center (GSC) kept its focus on the continued handling of the campus organization trust accounts and A.S. accounting services. The GSC has dedicated considerable time and resources to review policies, keeping in compliance with CSU rules and regulations. The department, led by manager Shawn Chan, also updated its training manual and documentation for the front desk support staff, thereby helping to ensure consistent student support.

The A.S. Board voted to add new software to increase transparency and accessibility of expense transactions for all A.S. departments.

This year, the GSC staff also worked closely with Transportation Solutions to help distribute 50,500 Eco Pass VTA stickers to faculty, students and staff.

ONE-STOP SHOP

In addition to the usual services—check cashing, money orders, PG&E payments, notarization, fax and mail drop-off services—the department took pride in the following offerings:

PRINT SHOP

Here When You Need Us for Quality Print Jobs

A majority of student organizations that benefit from A.S. funding use the A.S. Print Shop for printed projects. The department processed about $10,000 worth of funding requests for fliers, banners, and invitations for their fundraising events and programs on campus and in the greater community.

THE PRINT SHOP FAMILY

Priding itself on being “here when you need us” and providing the highest quality service to students, the Print Shop is mainly operated day-to-day by student employees. Manager Paul Lee has worked for A.S. for more than 29 years to create a family environment and opportunity for students to learn the ins and outs of running a small business. With supervision from long-time assistant manager of 16 years, Kevin Lowe, the team continues the legacy that Paul has created.

The Print Shop plans to move its operations into the Student Union in Spring of 2016.

THANK YOU, PAUL!

The Associated Students family whole-heartedly thanks Paul Lee for his lifelong contributions and commitment to students, staff, and the campus community. Paul went on medical leave a few weeks after the school year concluded.

He hopes that others can learn from his experience and invites you to visit his Facebook page at: https://www.facebook.com/paulleesjsu?fref=ts

Keep up your positive spirit, Paul. You are greatly missed!
