

CASA CARHS Grants Academy Information Session!

Interested in writing a research grant?

The CASA CARHS Grants Academy is a series of specialized supports for a small group of selected faculty members who commit to writing a moderate-to-large sized grant over the course of the academic year.

Supports provided:

- Monthly informational working sessions with University grant writing specialists
- Statistical or research consultation as needed
- Mentoring by successful SJSU faculty grant-writers
- $500 incentive toward research supplies upon grant submission
- Peer support and accountability
- Detailed critical review of proposal by senior scholar in the field

INFORMATIONAL SESSION
