

CCS 50th Anniversary Celebration Series

Chicana and Chicano Studies Scholars Transforming Higher Education

Panel Discussion Featuring Graduates of the MAS Master's Program

Friday, April 26 | 3:00-5:00pm | MLK 225

Please join the department of Chicana and Chicano Studies (formerly Mexican American Studies) as we celebrate our 50-year legacy at San José State University. We'll hear from a panel of distinguished graduates who are building careers as higher-ed faculty across a range of institutions, shaping the next generation of Chicana/o Studies scholars. Light refreshments will be served.
