A Thesis

Presented to

The Faculty of the Department of Kinesiology

San José State University

In Partial Fulfillment

of the Requirements for the Degree

Master of Arts

by

Peter Maravitch

December 2017

The date of your thesis should always be the date of the semester in which you graduate. May 2019, August 2019, December 2019
Do not forget the language below:

The Designated Thesis Committee Approves the Thesis Titled

FULL TITLE OF MASTER'S THESIS
CENTERED, IN ALL CAPS, NOT BOLDED, IN A 12-POINT FONT, AND SINGLE SPACED IF MORE THAN ONE LINE

by Again, lowercase "b"

Richard Shermer

APPROVED FOR THE DEPARTMENT OF PHILOSOPHY

SAN JOSE STATE UNIVERSITY

August 2017

Use highest degree for each committee member. If public member and a degree is not known, use title, e.g., President

James Dawkins, Ph.D. Department of Philosophy
Michael Hitchens, Ph.D. Department of Philosophy
Mark T. Clemens, MFA Director of Marketing, Steamboat Express Writer’s Guild, Inc.

Note that committee members' names and their affiliations are lined in block format. If a department exceeds one line, it should be finished as shown above, in single-space
ABSTRACT

REQUIREMENTS FOR A SAN JOSE STATE UNIVERSITY ABSTRACT WHOSE TITLE IS LONGER THAN ONE LINE, WHICH MEANS THAT IT IS SINGLE SPACED

note lowercase "b" by Pavel Datsyuk

The abstract should look like this one. It must be indented 0.25 inch and consist of a single paragraph. The maximum length is one page. It can contain no literature citations or figure citations, nor can it contain any statements that would require a citation. Thus one cannot simply leave off the author name and/or date from a statement that would normally require them. The abstract should summarize every aspect of the body of text of the thesis or dissertation. It is common for students to summarize only the introduction, but that is insufficient. Therefore, include the scope and purpose of the investigation, as it appears in the Introduction. The methods should then be summarized, usually in a sentence or two. Important results come next followed by the most substantial conclusions.

Biggest common error that students make is not summarizing their results or conclusions
ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

The SJSU Master's Thesis Guidelines are the result of the efforts of many individuals. First, thanks are due to the numerous students of SJSU who have provided input on the information of value to them. Second, great appreciation is due to Drs. Pamela Stacks and David Bruck, whose dedication to SJSU students and commitment to establishing an electronic thesis submission system resulted in our current system of submission and review.

More recently, the efforts of Cheryl Cowan, the Graduate Studies Associate who takes on all functions of a Thesis and Dissertation Coordinator, and former Thesis Coordinator Alena Filip, in the Office of Graduate Studies, are commended. Cheryl's involvement and efforts at helping students to be informed and prepared are noteworthy. Lastly, additional thanks are due to the thesis reviewers, who remain anonymous, and to all faculty who have found ways to help students succeed.

Follow correct formatting (paragraph indent, top, bottom, and side margins) however you do have the freedom to use this space for non-scholarly writing.

NOTE: This is the first page that has a page number. Make sure (1) that you use Roman numerals for all front matter pages, that the font of the page number is the same as your thesis, and that you have suppressed page numbers i-iv.
TABLE OF CONTENTS

List of Tables ........................................................................................................................... vii
List of Figures ............................................................................................................................ viii
Introduction ................................................................................................................................. 1
Literature Review ......................................................................................................................... 5

declaration
Title of Your Manuscript Here ......................................................................................................... 10
Materials and Methods .................................................................................................................. 11
Participants ...................................................................................................................................... 12
Recruitment ................................................................................................................................... 12
Domestic students ......................................................................................................................... 14
International students ................................................................................................................. 14
English speaking ........................................................................................................................... 15
Non-English speaking .................................................................................................................... 15
Evaluations ..................................................................................................................................... 16
Data analysis .................................................................................................................................. 19
Results ........................................................................................................................................... 24
Individual data ............................................................................................................................... 25
Group data .................................................................................................................................... 27
Discussion ..................................................................................................................................... 30
Limitations ..................................................................................................................................... 35
References ..................................................................................................................................... 40
Implications for Practice ................................................................................................................ 45

Literature Cited .............................................................................................................................. 50
Appendices .................................................................................................................................... 55
Appendix A: Title ............................................................................................................................ 55
Appendix B: Title ............................................................................................................................ 52
LIST OF TABLES

Table 1. First sentence of the first table in body of text................................. 50

Table 2. First sentence or sentence fragment of the second table in body of text, shown precisely as it appears in the text in every detail (note that this entry is single spaced). ........................................................................................................ 60

Table 3. Include every table in order, and use another page if needed............ 72

Table 4. Make sure to skip lines between table entries, but single space within each entry............................................................................................................... 74

Table 5. Notice how the page numbers line up with the dots leading to them.... 78

Table 6. Sometimes you have a very long description or title that you think you can fit into the column that describes the table or figure. It doesn't! Wrap the excess to the next line. Do not put text in the page number column.
LIST OF FIGURES

Figure 1. First sentence of the first figure in body of text............................... 52

Figure 2. First sentence or sentence fragment of the second figure in body of text, shown precisely as it appears in the text in every detail (note that this entry is single spaced)........................................................................ 62

Figure 3. Include every figure in order, and use another page if needed........ 73

Figure 4. Make sure to skip lines between figure entries, but single space within each entry.................................................................................................. 77

Figure 5. Notice how the page numbers line up with the dots leading to them...... 79

Note that different style guides will use Figure 1, Figure 1.1., Fig. 1. Use whichever form your style guide recommends. However, do not put the word "Figure" and "Page" number above either of these columns regardless of what style guide you use. This is true for tables as well.

Structurally, (single-space each entry, double-spacing between entries, columnar format) the List of Tables and List of Figures are similar with this EXCEPTION: In many style guides, the title of a table is in title case, while the description of a figure is in sentence case.

sentence case: The dog jumped over the rope.
title case: The Dog Jumped Over the Rope.
Full caps: THE DOG JUMPED OVER THE ROPE.
LIST OF ABBREVIATIONS

CUCA – Cornell University’s College of Agriculture
DOD – US Department of Defense
ELHS – East Lansing High School
RNA - ribonucleic acid
snRNA – small nuclear ribonucleic acid
SI units – System of International Units (Système international d’unités)

Do not forget that all foreign languages are in italics
References

What sources? Also, NO LIVE LINKS!

Regardless of style guide, all entries in Works Cited or References, each entry should be single spaced and double-spaced between entries.
REFERENCES

