

Presents

THE FIRST CHAMP CONFERENCE ON HEALTH AND AGING

1pm – 4pm, Friday, April 27th, 2012

Martin Luther King Jr. Library, SJSU

PRELIMINARY PROGRAM

12:30 – 1:00 Registration

1:00 – 1:20 Welcome

Sang E. Lee, Ph.D., Interim Director, CHAMP

Charles Bullock, Ph.D., Dean, College of Applied Sciences and Arts, San José State University

Ellen Junn, Ph.D., Provost, San José State University

1:20 – 2:20 Concurrent Sessions

Session I

Session Chair: Sadhna Diwan, Ph.D., School of Social Work, San José State University

Alternative strategies to understanding degenerative bone disorders: A call for new skeleton collections

Elizabeth Weiss, Ph.D., Department of Anthropology, San José State University

(Re)Negotiating state/federal responsibility to provide Medicaid community-based attendant services

Brian R. Grossman, Ph.D., Department of Health Science, San José State University

Session II

Session Chair: Kasuen Mauldin, Ph.D., Department of Nutrition, Food Science and Packaging, San José State University

Osher Life-Long Learning Institutes: A university-like setting for mature learners

Bette Felton, Ph.D., Professor Emeritus, CSU East Bay & Director, Osher Life-Long Learning Institute at CSU East Bay

“Brain Boost”: A community-based cognitive stimulation program

Xeno Rasmusson, Ph.D., Department of Human Development, CSU East Bay

Yvette Denham, B.A., CSU East Bay

Promoting cognitive and communicative wellness in persons with stroke and dementia
Nidhi Mahendra, Ph.D., Department of Communicative Sciences & Disorders, CSU East Bay
Ellen Bernstein-Ellis, M.S., Director, Aphasia Treatment Program, CSU East Bay

2:20 – 2:30 Break

2:30 – 3:20 Concurrent Sessions

Session III – Panel Presentation

Session Chair: Caroline Fee, M. A., Department of Nutrition, Food Science and Packaging,
San José State University

Tri-valley fitness fall prevention programs in a multicultural community dwelling

Cathy Inouye, Ed.D., Department of Kinesiology, CSU East Bay

Leticia Malavasi, CSU East Bay Faculty

Marlene Peterson, Senior Support Program for the Tri-Valley (SSPTV) Executive Director

Carol Garberson, SSPTV Retired Wellness Services Director

Lynn Pidoli, Exercise Leader

Nicole Yarwasky, Graduate Intern

Session IV- Panel Presentation

Session Chair: Daryl Canham, Ed.D., School of Nursing, San José State University

Teaching future providers about aging and dementia: Combining reflective evidence-based practice, multiculturalism, and service learning

Nidhi Mahendra, Ph.D., Department of Communicative Sciences & Disorders, CSU East Bay

Karen Fremont, Josie Heckenberg & Emily Dionne, Speech-Language Pathology Graduate

Students & Research Assistants, Aging & Cognition Research Clinic, CSU East Bay

3:20 – 3:55 Student Poster Presentations

The uncertainty of aging: Physical and mental health needs of seniors 85 years and older living in the Tenderloin

Kathleen Gali, B.A., Liseli Mulala-Simpson, B.Sc., Alexandra Geary-Stock, M.S.W.,

Department of Health Education, San Francisco State University

Challenging representations of old women in U.S. films: Ageism revealed

Rochelle Goldman, M.A., Department of Women's Studies, San Francisco State University

When the young walk in elderly shoes: Embodiment, perspective-taking, and social distance

Eric Splan, Tyler Allen, James McGraw & Avi Ben-Zeev, Psychology Department, San Francisco State University

Breakout Sessions by Special Interests

Community collaboration

Facilitator: Brian Grossman, Ph.D., Department of Health Science, San José State University

Educational strategy/pedagogy

Facilitator: Caroline Fee, M. A., Department of Nutrition, Food Science and Packaging, San José State University

Research in multicultural context

Facilitator: Michael Kibarow, Ph.D., Department of Communicative Disorders and Sciences, San José State University

3:55 – 4:00

Closing Remarks

Greg Payne, Ph.D., Associate Dean, Research, College of Applied Sciences and Arts, San José State University

Note: The program, including presenters, topics & times, is subject to change.

*This event is sponsored by the Dean's Office, College of Applied Sciences and Arts.

COLLEGE OF APPLIED
SCIENCES AND ARTS