

How to Earn a MS Degree in Materials Engineering at SJSU?

GETTING STARTED

Program Details

- 30 units for degree
- 5 core MatE courses*
- 3-4 elective courses
- 2-3 research project courses
- Graduate classes are in the evening for convenience of working students

Students without a BS in Materials Engineering need several additional undergraduate courses*

See details at.

<https://www.sjsu.edu/cme/programs/materials-engineering-ms/>

APPLICATION DETAILS

Prerequisites

BS Degree in Materials Engineering

or closely related engineering (Chemical, Mechanical) OR science (Chemistry, Physics)

G.P.A. of 2.7 or above

in last 60 units of BS Degree

International BS Degrees require an English Test, such as TOEFL

Average Program Length

2 years, full-time
with BS Materials Engineering Degree

Working students can use approved project at their company for their research project

DEADLINE

Domestic applicant:

July 1, 2020 for Fall 2020

International Applicant

May 1, 2020 for Fall 2020

International students living in the US can use a domestic application

For details and application:

<http://www.sjsu.edu/graduateadmissions/>

Questions:

contact Dr. Melanie McNeil,

Graduate Coordinator, melanie.mcneil@sjsu.edu