

College of Business Peer Leaders

As the peer advisors of the college, peer leaders draw on personal experience and professional training to mentor other business students to and through opportunities that will enrich their college experience.

The founders of the Peer Leader Program have also created a phone application with business students in mind. Check out the web version <http://www.cob.sjsu.edu/app/index.html>.

Ever felt lost, confused, or nervous to ask about something? We've been there! We can help with:

- Major choice and registration
- Connecting you to Business programs, scholarships, internships, and other opportunities based on your interests
- Directing you to appropriate resources
- Time management, stress management, study skills and other life skills
- Tips on class success, job or internship success
- Critiquing resumes or interview practice
- Adjusting to SJSU life and navigating through the university
- Recommendations to enrich your college experience

Whether you want to ask a quick question or want personal advice about anything; or if you simply want a friendly peer to talk to:

Come visit us and get your questions answered!
