George W. Minns was here at SJSU when it all began. In 1857, the lawyer-turned-teacher and passionate advocate for education became the first principal of Minns’ Evening Normal School, the institution that evolved into San José State University. But the story doesn’t end there. As the country and the nation tore itself apart during the Civil War, Minns traveled back and forth to the past, delivering lectures and advocating for education across the country. Now, nearly 160 years later, Minns is making his first-ever time travel journey to see for himself the legacy that he left behind. Join us as Minns sits down for an on-stage conversation with Hollywood heartthrob Marty McFly. In addition to sharing previously unknown details about the beginnings of SJSU, Minns will also offer fascinating insight into his personal life during the 19th century, from his student days at Harvard to Gold Rush-era California and the outbreak of the Civil War. Students: This is an experience you do not want to miss.

A compelling image demands attention. It also provides context and supports the text. If you have the chops to create an impactful image, give it a shot. You may also search our photo library (go.sjsu.edu/photographylibrary) for evocative images that capture the theme of your event. If you need clarity on how to effectively choose and use images, check out page 12.

Don’t forget to include an image caption with the name of the photographer or artist!
