Licensed Professional Clinical Counselor (LPCC)-Preparation Information

For students who began the EDCO program AFTER 8/1/2012

The Department of Counselor Education (EDCO) has been reviewed and accepted by the Board of Behavioral Services (BBS) verifying that our program is in compliance with California State law.

In this informational packet, you will find:

- Terminology
- How is being licensed beneficial?
- Steps to become an LPCC
- Educational Requirements
- Applying to become a PCCI (post-graduation)
- Exams
- Internship Requirements
- Frequently Asked Questions
- Memberships/Networking

TERMINOLOGY

- LPCC – Licensed Professional Clinical Counselor
- PCCI – Professional Clinical Counselor Intern
- Practicum – Supervised counseling (fieldwork) completed before degree (individual, group, families)
- Internship – Supervised counseling completed after degree
- Direct Client Hours – Hours spent face-to-face with clients
- Indirect Hours – Hours spent not with clients; case management, supervision, completing notes, planning for sessions, communicating with other professionals about clinical work

HOW IS BEING LICENSED BENEFICIAL?

- Broader scope of practice integrating socioemotional, academic, and career
- Can practice in a variety of settings including schools, mental health agencies, VA facilities, jails, private practice, hospitals, and many more; not where you practice it's how you practice
- Eligible for jobs comparable to LMFTs, LCSWs
- Reimbursement by Medi-Cal and insurance
- Lends credibility to you as a mental health professional
- Competitive for jobs in medical and nonprofit sectors (provides job stability amidst budget concerns)
- Transferable between states (may need to take additional steps, but being licensed in one state often expedites licensure in other states)

STEPS TO BECOME AN LPCC

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Q: What if I am missing courses required for the LPCC-Preparation?

A: As long as you have met the minimum core content areas required within the degree, you can remediate the missing full course(s) either through a BBS-approved provider: <http://calpcc.org/graduate-course-providers>

Q: Can I get all of my courses signed off by EDCO/SJSU even though I am missing a core content course or am currently taking it outside of EDCO?

A: No. We need to verify that all coursework has been completed before we (EDCO/SJSU) can sign off on it.

Q: I already graduated from EDCO. Can I still apply for the LPCC?

A: Yes. To be eligible for the LPCC, you must have completed the minimum requirements within your degree: (a) 10 of the 13 core content areas; (b) 6 units of 292; (c) 15 units of advanced coursework; (d) MA degree must contain at least 60 units. As of 2017, law and ethics (EDCO 232), diagnosis (EDCO 282), and assessment (EDCO 283) must be completed within the degree and cannot be remediated.

Q: What if I did not complete the minimum requirements before I graduated?

A: Unfortunately, your degree is not eligible for licensure.
