Core Classes for the graduate program include:

- Econ 104 – Math for Economics
- Econ 201 – Micro Theory
- Econ 203A – Research Methods
- Econ 205 – Writing Public Policy
- Econ 202 – Macro Theory –or– Econ 235 Monetary Theory

The remainder of the program (approximately 5-6 electives) is extremely flexible. These classes should be chosen in consultation with the graduate advisor so they can be tailored to your individual career goals. Classes chosen by someone who wishes to work in public policy, for example, may be quite different than classes chosen by someone interested pursuing a Ph.D. on economics. Students may, with pre-approval from the graduate advisor, take up to two classes in other disciplines.
