Econ 1B: Principles of Economics—Microeconomics, Fall 2021, Section 10, 10:45 AM –12:00 PM
Course Format
In-person classes and exams.

Course Goals and Student Learning Objectives (SLO)
The goal is to promote both economic understanding and application (Econ SLO 1 & 2). Specifically, students are expected to gain familiarity with analytical methods and model-based argument; and relationships between verbal, graphical, mathematical and statistical representations of economic ideas and analysis (Econ SLO 1.3).

Course Learning Outcomes (CLO)
Upon successful completion of this course, students should have an understanding of the principal ideas in microeconomics, including

- why incentives matter (law of demand; law of supply; rational decision makers weight marginal costs versus marginal benefits; the power of self-interest)
- opportunity cost (sunk costs; production possibilities; the free-lunch fallacy; tradeoffs in consumption and production; grains from interpersonal and international trade; comparative advantage)
- supply and demand (understanding the S&D model as a representation of individual choices in exchange based on individual preferences, knowledge and circumstances; ability to examine current events using S&D tools; movement versus shift; welfare analysis)

Texts/Readings

Textbook
Our textbook is Tyler Cowen and Alex Tabarrok, Modern Principles: Microeconomics. The fifth edition (2021) is the most recent and costs more, but the buy-back price is higher. If you're short of money, buy the fourth edition (2018), third edition (2015) or even the second edition (2013), but avoid the first edition (2010), which is significantly different. Or you may prefer to rent the e-text. (Please note that I customarily refer to the chapter numbers, and I’ll be sure to mention where they differ between editions.)

Make sure that you are buying the Micro and not the Macro text. I’ve had students buy the wrong book. Of course, you would never do that!

And be aware that anyone can access the authors’ website Marginal Revolution University at http://www.mru.org for free. Why not check it out this weekend?

Other Readings
I distribute handouts that I expect you to read alongside the textbook.
Course Requirements and Assignments

“Success in this course is based on the expectation that students will spend, for each unit of credit, a minimum of 45 hours over the length of the course (normally three hours per unit per week) for instruction, preparation/studying, or course related activities.” More details about student workload can be found in University Policy S16-9, Course Syllabi at http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/S16-9.pdf.

There are three components to your grade: three examinations (60%), your twenty best quizzes (20%), and a writing assignment (20%).

The three exams consist very largely, if not entirely, of multiple-choice questions created by your instructor. The two shorter exams on Tuesday, September 28, (worth 15%) and Tuesday, November 2, (worth 20%) emphasize what we have covered in the previous four weeks. The final exam on Thursday, December 9, 9:45 AM – 12:00 PM is comprehensive but with a major emphasis on what we have covered since the second exam.

There are at least 25 objective quizzes worth 20%. Each quiz is worth one point, allowing students to drop or miss at least five quizzes. Quiz scores are calculated pro rata so that 10/10 on a quiz is worth one point, and 5/10 is worth half-a-point. There are no make-ups for any quizzes.

Many quizzes, including the first four, are based on my lectures. Others are based on chapters from Cowen and Tabarrok, Modern Principles: Microeconomics, and test your knowledge of key concepts. And one quiz is based on a video Adam Smith and the Wealth of Nations that we watch together in class after the first exam.

The writing assignment (details TBA) is worth 20%, and is due by 6 PM on Tuesday, November 9. The Writing Center is there to help you. http://www.sjsu.edu/writingcenter/

Classroom Protocol

Class attendance is not mandatory and will not directly affect a student’s grade. However, students who miss several classes, in addition to dropping quizzes, will very likely consign themselves to doing extremely poorly on their examinations. I therefore strongly encourage students to attend fully every class.

Please note that the university is closed for Labor Day (Monday, September 6), Veterans Day (Thursday, November 11), and the Thanksgiving Holiday (on Wednesday, November 24 the campus is open but it is a non-instructional day, and on Thursday-Friday, November 25-26, the campus is closed).

Consent for Recording of Class and Public Sharing of Instructor Material

University Policy S12-7, http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/S12-7.pdf, requires students to obtain instructor’s permission to record the course.

“Common courtesy and professional behavior dictate that you notify someone when you are recording him/her. You must obtain the instructor’s permission to make audio or video recordings in this class. Such permission allows the recordings to be used for your private, study purposes only. The recordings are the intellectual property of the instructor; you have not been given any rights to reproduce or distribute the material.”

“Course material developed by the instructor is the intellectual property of the instructor and cannot be shared publicly without his/her approval. You may not publicly share or upload instructor generated material for this course such as exam questions, lecture notes, or homework solutions without instructor consent.”
Academic integrity

Your commitment as a student to learning is evidenced by your enrollment at San Jose State University. The University’s Academic Integrity policy, located at https://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/F15-7.pdf, requires you to be honest in all your academic course work. Faculty members are required to report all infractions to the office of Student Conduct and Ethical Development. The Student Conduct and Ethical Development website is available at https://www.sjsu.edu/studentconduct/

Instances of academic dishonesty will not be tolerated. Cheating on exams or plagiarism (presenting the work of another as your own, or the use of another person’s ideas without giving proper credit) will result in a failing grade and sanctions by the University. For this class, all assignments are to be completed by the individual student unless otherwise specified. If you would like to include your assignment or any material you have submitted, or plan to submit for another class, please note that SJSU’s Academic Policy S07-2 requires approval of instructors.

Campus Policy in Compliance with the American Disabilities Act

If you need course adaptations or accommodations because of a disability, or if you need to make special arrangements in case the building must be evacuated, please make an appointment with me as soon as possible, or see me during office hours. Students with disabilities requesting accommodations must register with the Accessible Education Center (AEC) at https://www.sjsu.edu/aec/students/register-with-aec/index.php to establish a record of their disability.
