As part of the admissions process, please review the Ed.D. Leadership Program website and faculty research interests (www.sjsu.edu/edd). In the space below, please indicate possible areas that you are interested in studying or pursuing in the course of your doctoral studies. Broadly outline your thinking on potential areas for your future research and for your dissertation. To get an idea of the research topics of faculty members, please read through faculty bios that are listed on the program website. If there are faculty members whose research and scholarly interests match your interests, please indicate their names in this section.
