Course Description

English 1A is an introductory writing course that helps students understand the writing process and the goals, dynamics, and genres of written communication. Through interpretation and analysis of texts, students learn to think clearly and write effectively as they give form and coherence to complex ideas. Students practice these skills by writing for various audiences and rhetorical situations.

Section 17 Description

This section English 1A will focus our attention on popular culture using the text The World Is a Text: Writing About Visual and Popular Culture. This book encourages students to write about popular culture. A majority of your attention will be directed to popular culture (movies, tv, social media, celebrities, sports, technology, etc.) and cultural and linguistic identity.

Technology requirements

This course meets online via Zoom. We will use Canvas for instructional materials, assignments, and peer editing. Regular access to a laptop or computer with internet access. Laptops and iPads may be checked out from SJSU Student Computing Service at no cost.

Please contact the Student Technology Service Desk for any technical support.

GE Learning Outcomes (GELOs)

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

1. read actively and rhetorically;
2. perform the essential steps in the writing process (prewriting, organizing, composing, revising, and editing) and demonstrate an awareness of said performance;
3. articulate an awareness of and write according to the rhetorical features of texts, such as purpose, audience, context, and rhetorical appeals;
4. integrate your ideas and those of others by explaining, analyzing, developing, and criticizing ideas effectively in several genres;
5. demonstrate college-level language use, clarity, and grammatical proficiency in writing

Required Texts/Readings

- The World Is a Text: Writing About Visual and Popular Culture (Updated Compact Edition). Jonathan Silverman and Dean Rader. ISBN: 978-1554813797
- All additional readings will be available on Canvas

Course Requirements and Assignments

1. Fashion Essay, Rough Draft: 09/14, Revised Draft: 09/21, 100pts/10% [GELOs 1-5]
You will write a paper analyzing a fashion trend. After reading the chapter “Reading and Writing about Fashion” in The World Is a Text, you will choose an article regarding any fashion trend of your interest (clothes, cars, shoes, accessories, etc.) and analyze the purpose of the article along with including your personal opinion. Your essay needs to be two pages long and follow the MLA guidelines.
2. Music Essay, Rough Draft: 10/07, Revised Draft: 10/14, 150pts/15% [GELOs 1-5]
You will write a research paper on a first-person rap or country song. After reading the chapter “Reading and Writing about Music” in The World Is a Text, you will choose a rap or country song and research that artist. In your paper, you will compare and contrast the difference between the song and the artist’s life and decide the importance. This assignment will provide an understanding of interpretation and facts. Your essay needs to be 3-4 pages long and follow the MLA guidelines. Include a work cited page.
3. Multimodal Presentation, 11/02, 150pts/15% [GELOs 1-5]
You will create a multimodal presentation on your music essay. You can use Tumblr, WordPress, PowerPoint, or another preapproved source to present your findings to the class. You will be communicating the importance of the visual and audio effects of your presentation. Your presentation must be 5 minutes long.
4. Final Essay, 12/15, 250pts/15% [GELOs 1-5]
Our final essay will be a self-reflection essay (approximately 500-600 words) in which you argue that you have developed an understanding of the course’s learning goals (specifically GELO2) and have developed strategies for working toward those goals. An annotated bibliography of your writing will be included as evidence of your progress as a writer. This may include any writing you have done this semester along with materials that support the arguments you make in the self-reflection.

5. Discussion Board 250pts/25% [GELOs 1-5]

You will submit your reader responses through the discussion board. Your reader response is a quick response in regards to your assigned readings. Reader responses need to be posted before the start of the class and must consist of at least 150 words.

6. Participation 100pts/10% [GELOs 1,4]

Each student will need to come to class prepared and ready for discussion.

Grading Policy

Essays are evaluated and graded on the following criteria for first-year writing courses. These criteria were taken directly from the SJSU website:

- An “A” range essay is organized and well-developed, demonstrating a clear understanding and fulfillment of the assignment, written in a unique and compelling voice. It will show the student’s ability to use language effectively with a solid command of grammar, mechanics, and usage.
- A “B” range essay demonstrates competence in the same categories as an “A” essay, but it may show slight weakness in one of these areas. It will respond to the topic suitably and may contain some grammatical, mechanical or usage errors.
- A “C” range essay will complete the requirements of the assignment, but it will show weaknesses in fundamentals, such as development. It may show weakness in mastery of grammar, mechanics, usage, or voice.
- A “D” range essay will neglect to meet all the requirements of the assignment or may be superficial in its treatment of the topic. It may lack development or fail to stay on topic. It may contain grammatical, mechanical, and/or usage errors that interfere with reader comprehension.
- An “F” essay does not fulfill the requirements of the assignment.
- Late papers will be marked down 1/3 letter grade per day (including weekends).

Please Note: To pass ENGL 1A, you must earn a "C-" or higher

Grading Scale

D-	60% - 62%	600 - 629
F	>59%	>599

Extra Credit

Extra credit is available throughout the semester. The goal of the extra credit is to continue to enhance your writing skills. There are three different ways to earn extra credit:

1. The SJSU Writing Center- You can earn an extra 5 points if you attend the writing center for one of your essay papers.
2. Office Hours- Meet during my office hours with any questions you may have and you will earn an additional 5 points. My door (Zoom Window) is always open, and I encourage you to come to office hours with questions throughout the semester; however, the first visit earns the extra credit points.
3. Participation- You must be present to win. If you attend all classes, you will receive 40 points extra credit. If you miss one class, you will receive 20 points extra credit. Any additional classes missed result in forfeiting participation extra credit.

Plagiarism Policy

Cite your sources. If you plagiarize, you will receive an automatic 0 on your assignment. If you are unsure of rules in plagiarism, please visit the website Purdue OWL: Avoiding plagiarism.
