Course Description

Our class will explore the circulation of ideas and people across the Atlantic and the formation of distinctly British and American literary traditions from the late 17th century to the middle of the 19th century. We will pay special attention to the transatlantic slave trade, communication networks, and conceptions of the nation.

Success in this course is based on the expectation that students will spend, for each unit of credit, a minimum of 45 hours over the length of the course (3 hours per unit per week) for instruction or preparation/studying or course related activities. Because this is a 4-unit course, students can expect to spend a minimum of twelve hours per week preparing for and attending classes and completing course assignments.

NOTE: This course includes the following 1-unit enhancement: Increased course content and collateral readings, including additional research and writing. You will select and read a nineteenth-century novel American or British novel, develop a research plan, and write a research paper.

Course Format

Remote lecture, discussion.

Canvas and MYSJSU Messaging

All course materials are on the course homepage on Canvas. You are responsible for regularly checking with the messaging system through MySJSU on Spartan App Portal (<http://one.sjsu.edu>) to learn of any updates.

Course Learning Outcomes (CLO)

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

CLO 1: Read closely in a variety of forms, including poetry, the early novel in English, and the short story and articulate the value of close reading in the study of literature.

CLO 2: Show familiarity with major British and American literary works and genres from the period of 1680 to 1860.

CLO 3: Write clearly, effectively, and creatively, and adjust writing style appropriately to the content, the context, and nature of the subject and in a range of forms, including in-class writings, a proposal, annotated bibliography, and a research-backed interpretive essay.

CLO 4: Develop and carry out an extended research project, locate, evaluate, organize, and incorporate information effectively.

CLO 5: Articulate the relation between particular texts and their cultural, historical, and geographical contexts.

CLOs 1, 2, and 5 will be acquired via the reading assignments and class participation, while CLOs 2-5 will be acquired and demonstrated through each and every one of the written course assignments.

Course Requirements and Assignments

Explication Assignment, 9/19: 5% [CLOs 1-3, 5]

Midterm, 10/7: 15% [CLOs 1-3, 5]

Research Proposal and Annotated Bibliography, 10/30: 10% [CLO 3-4]

Research Paper (5-7 pages), 12/5: 25% [CLO 3-4]

Final Exam, 12/? : 20% [CLOs 1-3, 5]

Discussion Board Posts: 10% [CLOs 1-2, 5]

Participation: 10% [CLOs 1-2, 5]

Quizzes: 5% [CLO 2]

See Appendix A: Grading Policy for further information

Research Proposal and Annotated Bibliography: Your proposal should describe the question you hope to answer about a nineteenth-century American or British novel we didn't read in class and list five peer-reviewed sources in an annotated bibliography. See prompt for more details.

Research Paper: Your research paper (about a nineteenth-century American or British novel we didn't read in class) should be five to seven pages in length, and include a "Works Cited" with at least three library sources (academic books or journal articles). It should be written in clear, correct English with logical paragraph breaks, an introduction that frames your argument, and a conclusion. Appropriate use of textual evidence from the novel and from your research are key to successful research papers. See the prompt for more details.

Required Watching and Posting

I will post all lecture videos to Canvas. Before class, watch the video lecture about the text(s) for that day and then post to the discussion board (you can ask a question about the lecture or the text(s), make an observation, or respond to another student). Quizzes will cover information from lecture videos and from the readings.

Classroom Protocol

Every student will come to class prepared for a critical discussion. Every student will read all of the assigned readings, come to every class meeting, engage with the texts and participate in the discussion, offer interpretations, ask and answer questions, and be respectful to other students. Please email me if you are unable to attend. There will be 5 pop quizzes on the reading throughout the semester. You cannot make them up.

Remote education requires flexibility; in order to facilitate an active and productive learning environment, please follow these guidelines: 1. If you have a webcam, please have it turned on. 2. Use the chat to ask and answer questions. 3. Use your microphone to ask and answer questions.

Paper Regulations

Write your papers in double-spaced 12pt. Times New Roman font, and format them according to MLA guidelines. The OWL site produced by Purdue (<http://owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/resource/557/01/>) provides good examples of MLA citations. Late papers will be marked down 1/3 letter grade per day (including weekends).

Office Hours and Email Policies

I encourage you to meet with me during my virtual office hours to receive assistance on assignments and papers, and ask me questions. You can email me if you are unable to meet me during my designated hours.

Plagiarism Policy

If you plagiarize, you will receive an automatic 0 grade. Please make sure you cite your sources using proper MLA format! See Appendix B: Academic Honesty.

University Policies

Per University Policy S16-9 (<http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/S16-9.pdf>), relevant university policy concerning all courses, such as student responsibilities, academic integrity, accommodations, dropping and adding, consent for recording of class, etc. and available student services (e.g. learning assistance, counseling, and other resources) are listed on Syllabus Information web page (<http://www.sjsu.edu/gup/syllabusinfo>), which is hosted by the Office of Undergraduate Education. Make sure to visit this page to review and be aware of these university policies and resources.

A: Grading Policy

The following statement has been adopted by the Department of English for inclusion in all syllabi: In English Department Courses, instructors will comment on and grade the quality of student writing as well as the quality of ideas being conveyed. All student writing should be distinguished by correct grammar and punctuation, appropriate diction and syntax, and well-organized paragraphs. The Department of English reaffirms its commitment to the differential grading scale as defined in the SJSU Catalog ("The Grading System"). Grades issued must represent a full range of student performance: A = excellent; B = above average; C = average; D = below average; F = failure.

In written assignments for English 60, this scale is based on the following criteria:

A [90-92=A-, 93-96=A, 97-100=A+] = Excellent: The "A" essay is articulate and well developed with fluid transitions and a clear and persuasive use of evidence, which is drawn from the literary text itself, lecture materials (when appropriate), and research materials. An "A" essay contains a fresh insight that teaches the reader something new about the subject matter.

B [80-82=B-, 83-86=B, 87-89=B+] Above average: The "B" essay demonstrates a good understanding of its subject, a clear and persuasive use of evidence, a certain level of ease of expression, and solid organization. However, it usually lacks the level of originality and creativity that characterizes the insight found in an "A" essay.

C [70-72=C-, 73-76=C, 77-79=C+] = Average: The "C" essay makes a good attempt at all the assignment's requirements. It has a reasonable understanding of its subject matter but its ideas are frequently simplistic or over-generalized. The writing style is also more bland and repetitive than the style shown by "A" and "B" essays and it often contains flaws in grammar, punctuation, spelling and/or word choice. It may also use textual evidence out of context.

D [60-62=D-, 63-66=D, 67-69=D+] = Below average: The "D" essay is poorly organized and generally unclear. It has inappropriate or inadequate examples, is noticeably superficial or simplistic, and/or contains some serious mechanical and grammatical problems. A "D" essay may also reveal some misunderstanding of the assignment requirements.

F = Failure: An "F" essay has not addressed the requirements of the assignment and is unacceptable work in terms of both form and content.

Appendix B: Academic Honesty

“San José State University defines cheating as the act of obtaining credit, attempting to obtain credit, or assisting others to obtain credit for academic work through the use of any dishonest, deceptive, or fraudulent means.”

“San José State University defines plagiarism as the act of representing the work of another as one’s own without giving appropriate credit, regardless of how that work was obtained, and submitting it to fulfill academic requirements.”

For full definition, see <http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/F15-7.pdf>
