Course Description

English 1A is the first course in SJSU's two-semester lower-division composition sequence; it provides an introduction to baccalaureate-level composition, with attention to the "personal voice" and personal experience, on the one hand, and the more formal attitudes and demands of writing at the university (expository and argumentative essays), on the other. Students will develop college-level reading abilities, rhetorical sophistication, and writing styles that give form and coherence to complex ideas and feelings.

What is Different about this section of English 1A?

The book FLOW, and the quotes, videos, and audio sources used in this class are intended for adult audiences. The vocabulary will be both technical and academic. The topics will be multi-layered and include philosophical, scientific, and industry-related points of view.

This course, these two sections (40 and 50) will end in an annotated table of contents (TOC); and a reflection on your writing process and progress as a final exam. You will not take the final exam.

My goal for this class is that the work in this class encourages both self analysis and critical examination of issues—through:

- Writing essays and journaling in class,
- Revising essays while referring to markup notes
- Updating the matrix, tracking your own issues and strong points
- Group presentations on:
 - 1) Chapters in the required reading
 - 2) What you read in Flow
- The Annotated Table of Contents
- The final reflection Essay

Course Goals and Student Learning Objectives

Course Goals

By the end of this semester you shall demonstrate your writing competence in complete essays that reveal college-level proficiency in all of the following:

- Clear and effective communication of meaning.
- An identifiable focus, tailored to a particular audience and purpose (argumentative essays will state their thesis clearly and show an awareness, implied or stated, of some opposing point of view).
- The ability to perform effectively the essential steps of the writing process (prewriting, organizing, composing, revising, and editing).
- The ability to explain, analyze, develop, and criticize ideas effectively.
- Effective use within their own essays of supporting material drawn from reading or other sources.
- Effective organization within the paragraph and the essay.
- Accuracy, variety, and clarity of sentences.
- Appropriate diction.
- Control of conventional mechanics (e.g., punctuation, spelling, reference, agreement).

NOTE: This is not to say that you arrived on campus without many of these competencies—this class may be an opportunity for you to further improve these objectives.

Student Learning Objectives:

These 4 areas of writing expertise are what your essays will be evaluated on:

- SLO 1: Students shall demonstrate the ability to read actively and rhetorically (for instance: knowing what strategy is used, what the purpose is and how the author achieves this, who the author is-level of expertise, and who the intended audience is)
- SLO 2: Students shall write complete essays that demonstrate the ability to perform effectively the essential steps in the writing process (prewriting, organizing, composing, revising, and editing).
- SLO 3: Students shall write complete essays that demonstrate the ability to express (explaining, analyzing, developing, and critiquing) ideas effectively.
- SLO 4: Students shall write complete essays that demonstrate the ability to use correct grammar (syntax, mechanics, and citation of sources) at a college level of sophistication.
- SLO 5: Students shall write complete essays that demonstrate the ability to write for different audiences.(your fellow students and the instructor)

Classroom Protocol

You will come to class on time--both awake and willing to engage. Respect yourself and your fellows by contributing in every way you can to your own education. Bring your books, the essays or presentations you are working on, and your binder with course handouts to every class! Electronics are allowed if not abused. No texting, or sleeping allowed ☹️*

Make doctors' appointments for days you don't have class!

Assignments and Grading Policy

Grading: A-F. This class must be passed with a C or better to move on to CORE GE Area C3 and to satisfy the prerequisite for English 1B. A passing grade in the course signifies that the student is a capable college-level writer and reader of English.

Grades will be assigned by percentage of all work required

A = 95- 100	A- = 89- 94
B+ = 86- 88	B = 82- 85	B- = 79- 81
C+ = 76- 78	C = 72- 75	C- = 69- 71
D+ = 66- 68	D = 62- 67	D- = 59- 61

1A Final Assignment:

Instead of a final exam, you will write a critical reflection at the end of the class. Think of it as a scientific study of your progress as a writer over the next four months. Remember, writing is a process. Collecting your work and then reflecting on that work is part of the process. The final assignment is designed to get you thinking about your specific challenges, your strategies for improvement, your successes and failures, and your goals for the future. Every writer, no matter how accomplished, has room for improvement. You will review your returned essays and write a brief reflection for each one in an annotated TOC to be turned in at the end of the class. This assignment is your culminating experience. This course does not have a final exam.
