GE C2 Course Description

Courses in Arts & Letters should give students knowledge and understanding of significant works of the human intellect and imagination. Students will examine the interaction of analytical and creative processes in the production and perception of such works, and the significance of the historical and cultural contexts in which the works are created and interpreted. Courses should enable students to participate in social and cultural communities associated with artistic and literary endeavors, enriching their personal and professional lives.

English 1B Course Description

General Course Description

English 1B is a writing course that focuses on argumentation and analysis. Through the study of literary, rhetorical, and professional texts, students will develop the habits of mind required to write argumentative and critical essays. Particular emphasis is placed on writing and reading processes. Students will have repeated practice in prewriting, drafting, revising, and editing, and repeated practice in reading closely in a variety of forms, styles, structures, and modes.

Section-Specific Course Description

Often there exists a fine line between science and madness. Discovering an answer to a compelling mystery can lead to brilliance and fame or to the loss of the thing that makes us human in the first place. Students will read both nonfiction and fiction that convey past narratives of science, jump off from discussions of specific scientific breakthroughs, and explore the implications for the future of science. We will use two creative authors, Amir Aczel and Umberto Eco, to explore this theme: namely, The Mystery of the Aleph and Foucault's Pendulum, but also we will read selected essays that enhance this exploration.

English 1B Learning Outcomes and Course Content

GE A3 Learning Outcomes (GELOs)
Students will demonstrate, orally and in writing, proficiency in the Area of A3 Learning Objectives. Students will be able to:
Learning Outcome 1 (GELO1)	Locate and evaluate sources, through library research, and integrate research through appropriate citation and quotation.
Learning Outcome 2 (GELO2)	Present effective arguments that use a full range of legitimate rhetorical and logical strategies to articulate and explain their positions on complex issues in dialogue with other points of view.
Learning Outcome 3 (GELO3)	Effectively locate, interpret, evaluate, and synthesize evidence in a comprehensive way in one's ideas.

English 1B Course Learning Goals (CLOs)
Upon successful completion of the course, students will be able to:
Learning Goal 1 (CLO1)	Discuss complex ideas clearly, logically, persuasively.
Learning Goal 2 (CLO2)	State a clear position while taking into account other points of view, integrating both qualification and rebuttal as appropriate.
Learning Goal 3 (CLO3)	Identify the different kinds of argument and the kinds of evidence appropriate to each one.
Learning Goal 4 (CLO4)	Integrate research logically and ethically; analyzing, interpreting, synthesizing, and documenting information and ideas gleaned from reliable sources.
Learning Goal 5 (CLO5)	Use appropriate paragraph and essay conventions to organize arguments into clear, readable logical sequences that are both coherent and persuasive.
Learning Goal 6 (CLO6)	Control syntax, grammar, and punctuation to develop prose that is readable, logical, and clear.

English 1B Course Content

Diversity: SJSU studies include an emphasis on diversity. Students will engage in integrated reading and writing assignments to construct their own arguments on complex issues (such as diversity and ethnicity, class and social equality) that generate meaningful public debate. Readings for the course will include writers of different genders and from different socio-economic classes.

Writing: Students will write a series of essays informed by research and articulating fully developed arguments about complex issues. Assignments emphasize those skills and activities in writing and thinking that produce the persuasive argument and the critical essay, each of which demands analysis, interpretation, and evaluation. Writing assignments give students repeated practice in prewriting, drafting, revising, and editing. This class requires a minimum of 6000 words, at least 4000 of which must be in revised final draft form. Assignments include in-class writing as well as revised out-of-class essays. Students will receive frequent evaluations of their writing from the instructor. Evaluative comments will be substantive, addressing both the logic of the argument and the quality and form of the writing. Comments will encourage and acknowledge student success as well as note problems and suggest ways to improve.

Oral: Students will complete oral communication assignments. These assignments may include individual presentations; group presentations; group, team, or dyadic (group of two persons) discussions; debates; and similar speaking events. Evaluative comments for these assignments, addressing issues of both content and presentation, will substantively remark on the logic of the argument as well as the presentation's delivery.

Reading: English 1B will be an intensive reading and writing course. Students will read a variety of literary, rhetorical, and professional works of the human intellect and imagination. Secondary materials will be read to help situate the historical and cultural contexts in which the primary texts were created. Readings will also include useful models of writing for academic, general, and specific audiences.

Research: English 1B will include a library orientation conducted or approved by a trained librarian to introduce the library and basic research strategies that students will need to complete upper-division coursework, including locating materials, using them effectively (e.g., quoting, paraphrasing, summarizing), and citing them properly.

Class size: Enrollment shall normally be limited to 25 students.

Phone: (408) 808-2096

English 1B Section-Specific Requirements and Assignments

SJSU classes are designed such that in order to be successful, it is expected that students will spend a minimum of forty-five hours for each unit of credit (normally three hours per unit per week), including preparing for class, participating in course activities, completing assignments, and so on. More details about student workload can be found in University Policy S12-3 at <http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/S12-3.pdf>.

Written Assignments

AB Assignments: Students will write 10 single entries about a source related to their essay topics over the course of the semester to provide practice analyzing and using sources effectively.

Short Writing Tasks

Students will be assigned short tasks to facilitate writing essays and revision process.

Formal Writing Assignments

Students will write four formal essays: a contextual analysis, a classical argument, a rhetorical analysis, and a persuasive argument. Each essay will go through at least one revision before receiving a grade. Students will complete a number of informal and formal writing assignments.

Reading

In addition to being an intensive writing course, English 1B is a reading course. Reading is a crucial component of the class, as one must read effective writing to become an effective writer. The assigned readings must be completed by the beginning of each class session, and all discussions and assignments will be based on the reading material. It will be impossible to be a successful student in this course if the daily reading is not completed before class time.

Class Participation

Class participation is important to this class. We will share ideas and sources as well as write some discussion conclusions to share with others.

Reading Quizzes

Quizzes may be given. They may not necessarily be given on the dates of the syllabus. They will be based on readings and lectures.

Multimodal Presentation

As a culminating course activity, students will present in support of or in opposition to an issue discussed in class. Presentations must contain visual, written (power point), and audio design elements.

To help frame your reading of each text, consider the following questions:

1. What conditions help to shape the reception of the writer's theory?
2. What educational philosophies (teaching, learning, student identity) are promoted?
3. How do we understand the context of contemporary issues such as literacy and orality, new electronic technologies, gender issues, and multiculturalism?
4. How do writers conceive the writing process in general and argumentation in particular?

Assignment Word Count, Learning Goals, Grade Percentage, and Point Value of Assignments

Final Grade will be determined as follows:

Extra Credit – Maximum 50 Points Applied to Participation Points – at no point can extra-credit points be used in lieu of an assignment

Grading Policy

Requirements for particular assignments will vary, but in all cases essay grades will reflect the paper's effectiveness, which is broken down into three major areas: 1) content (this includes maturity and sophistication of thought); 2) organization; and 3), expression.

All assignments, quizzes, and exams are graded on a traditional A-F scale. The following are the criteria by which essays are typically evaluated in first-year writing courses:

English 1B Grading: A - F / Points 1000 - 0

Completing this GE Area with a grade of C or better (C- not accepted) is a graduation requirement. The Department of English reaffirms its commitment to the differential grading scale as defined in the SJSU Catalog (“The Grading System”). Grades issued must represent a full range of student performance: A = excellent; B = above average; C = average; D = below average; F = failure.

Points Framework - Maximum 1000
A	=	930 plus	B-	=	800-829	D+	=	670-699
A-	=	900-929	C+	=	770-799	D	=	630-669
B+	=	870-899	C	=	730-769	D-	=	600-629
B	=	830-869	C-	=	700-729	F	=	600 minus

In the English Department courses, instructors comment on and grade the quality of student writing as well as the quality of the ideas being conveyed. All student writing should be distinguished by correct grammar and punctuation, appropriate diction and syntax, and well-organized paragraphs.

Academic Standards for Assessment

The “A” essay will be well organized and well developed, demonstrating a clear understanding and fulfillment of the assignment. It will show the student’s ability to use language effectively and to construct sentences distinguished by syntactic complexity and variety. Such essays will be essentially free of grammatical, mechanical, and usage errors.

The “B” essay will demonstrate competence in the same categories as the “A” essay. The chief difference is that the “B” essay will show some slight weakness in one of those categories. It may slight one of the assigned tasks, show less facility of expression, or contain some minor grammatical, mechanical, or usage flaws.

The “C” essay will complete all tasks set by the assignment, but show weaknesses in fundamentals, usually development, with barely enough specific information to illustrate the experience or support generalizations. The sentence construction may be less mature, and the use of language less effective and correct than the “B” essay.

The “D” essay will neglect one of the assigned tasks and be noticeably superficial in its treatment of the assignment – that is, too simplistic or too short. The essay may reveal some problems in development, with insufficient specific information to illustrate the experience or support generalizations. It will contain grammatical, mechanical, and/or usage errors that are serious and/or frequent enough to interfere substantially with the writer’s ability to communicate.

The “F” essay will demonstrate a striking underdevelopment of ideas and insufficient or unfocused organization. It will contain serious grammatical, mechanical, and usage errors that render some sentences incomprehensible.
