Faculty Web Page

Copies of the course materials such as the syllabus and major assignment handouts may be found on my faculty web page at <http://www.sjsu.edu/people/Linda.Mitchell>. If you navigate to the English 103 page, you can find links to additional grammar resources and electronic copies of class handouts. (Not live until I take a workshop course.)

Course Description

Welcome to English 103! This course provides a survey of the growth and structure of Modern English including its phonology, morphology, syntax, and semantics. Material in the course will also focus on some recurring problems of “usage” and/or “correctness,” regional and social varieties of English, language development, and the historical development of English, especially as it affects the language today.

This class is one of the course options for English majors. It is a required course for English majors preparing for a single-subject teaching credential and for students preparing to enter a multiple-subject teaching credential program.

The material taught in this course will help improve your own writing, and it will demonstrate the diverse ways that grammar can be taught in the classroom. This course will be challenging, but I am here to help you. Please do not hesitate to see me or visit a tutor at the on-campus Writing Center for extra help. If you keep up with the daily work in this class, you will do well. If you get behind on the assignments, you will have difficulty catching up.

Student Learning Objectives

Department Objectives

In the Department of English and Comparative Literature, students will demonstrate the ability to

- SLO 1 read closely in a variety of forms, styles, structures, and modes, and articulate the value of close reading in the study of literature, creative writing, and/or rhetoric;
- SLO 2 show familiarity with major literary works, genres, periods, and critical approaches to British, American and World Literature;
- SLO 3 write clearly, effectively, and creatively, and adjust writing style appropriately to the content, the context, and the nature of the subject;
- SLO 4 develop and carry out research projects, and locate, evaluate, organize, and incorporate information effectively;
- SLO 5 articulate the relations among culture, history, and texts.

Class Objectives

Successful students in this course will demonstrate the ability to

- write clearly and effectively on the sentence-level;
- understand the development and variations of the English language;
- correct and identify sentence-level errors in their own writing;
- gain knowledge of the English language to the extent that they can articulate the rules and execution of English grammar to others;
- develop an enduring interest in language;
- understand morphology, etymology, and phonology;
- demonstrate the ability to diagram sentences effectively;
- develop awareness of form versus function;
- identify parts of speech, rules of punctuation usage, and sentence construction.

Class Tips/Strategies

- Be prepared for a heavy workload. This course is difficult.
- Arrive a few minutes early and get into the mindset for class. Think about what you want to get from the class that day. Let go of outside distractions. Have texts and notebook on your desk when class starts.
- Read the “Chapter Preview” and “Chapter Goals” at the beginning of each section; read the “Summary” and learn the “Key Terms” at the end of each chapter.
- Create flash cards and form study groups.

- Keep up with new material presented in each class (the same as you would when you are learning math or a foreign language).
- Do the designated exercises before coming to class. Doing them after the discussion is not nearly as effective in understanding and retaining the material.
- Make a list of questions when you do your homework and ask them in class if they are not covered.
- Be prepared to look at the rules of grammar from new perspectives. Language is not always an absolute, and some standards of “correctness” have changed over time.
- Attend every class session. Absences affect your grade because you are not in class to learn and/or reinforce material as we discuss it. We also do in-class exercises.
- Understand underlying concepts—do not simply memorize the material!
- Seek out extra help when you need it. If you are not earning the grades that you want, you can change your performance in the class. Visit the Writing Center in Clark Hall 126 for writing specialists trained in English 103 material. Appointments are difficult to get, so plan ahead.

Required Texts and Materials

- Klammer, Thomas, et al. Analyzing English Grammar, 7th Edition
- Course Reader. It will be delivered to class by Maple Press. Approx. $22 to $23.

Course Content

Reading

In English 103, there will be reading from Analyzing English Grammar assigned on a daily basis. This material will form the basis for our study of Modern English, so it is crucial that you complete every reading assignment by the beginning of each class period. These readings will be the foundation for exams, quizzes, class activities, group discussions, and homework assignments. To succeed in this class, you must do the reading in advance.

Semester Project

A major semester project is due toward the end of the semester. You will either (1) create lesson plans on language and/or linguistics if you are planning to enter a teaching credential program, or (2) do a professional portfolio if you are interested in another career field (e.g. journalism, editing, marketing, creative writing, technical writing, law, or grant writing). As the semester progresses, I will provide more detailed information regarding this project. This final project will not be accepted late. The semester project is worth 20% of your course grade (200 points).

Exams and Quizzes

Exams and quizzes will cover the major concepts presented both in-class and in Analyzing English Grammar. Dates for the quizzes and exams are noted on the class schedule. Tests and quizzes cannot be made up unless you have contacted me in advance. If you simply do not show up on the day of a test or quiz, you will receive a “0” on the assignment. If extenuating circumstances apply, please contact me as soon as possible (before the quiz or test date) in order to make necessary accommodations. There will be five quizzes throughout the semester, worth 15% of your course grade (150 points). There will be five exams (including the final); the exams are worth 50% of your class grade (500 points total).

Class Work, Participation, and Homework

For all class sessions, you will be assigned exercises to complete from the Klammer text; you may also be responsible for other handouts that are assigned as homework. You will find that there is a correlation between completing the day-to-day work and earning desirable test scores. The exams are based on the textbook exercises, so you will be at a distinct advantage if you do the daily work. We will complete daily work in class that goes toward your participation grade; you will not be able to complete these assignments if you are not present in class. I expect you to attend class daily, come on time, and stay for the full class period. Absences and/or tardiness will affect your grade because of missed work and participation.

In addition, class participation does not simply mean that you are physically present in class. You are required to have all class materials (including your Klammer book and your course reader) on your desk for each class, contribute to discussions, actively listen to your peers, and take notes. Turn off cell phones or put them on silent mode during the class period; put them in your backpacks. You will lose all participation points for the day if I see your cell phone (this especially includes text messaging—I do see you!). This behavior is both rude and unprofessional. Laptop computers and tablets are not used during class time unless you have a documented need for a computer as a note-taking tool.

Workshop days and homework assignments are worth 10% of your grade (100 points). Participation in class is worth 5% of your grade (50 points).

Grading Breakdown and Policies

Late Policy

I am a prompt person, so I expect the same from you. While I will accept work up to one week after the due date, it will be graded down significantly. For each calendar day that your work is late, it will be graded down one full letter grade. If the assignment is turned in after the class period on the assigned due date, it will be graded down half a letter grade. After one week, I will no longer accept the assignment. If extenuating circumstances apply for any class work, you must contact me before the due date in order to request an extension or make necessary accommodations. Turn in your work on time to avoid late penalties.

Departmental Grading Policy

The Department of English reaffirms its commitment to the differential grading scale as defined in the official SJSU Catalog (“The Grading System”). Grades issued must represent a full range of student performance: A = excellent; B = above average; C = average; D = below average; F = failure.

In English Department courses, instructors will comment on and grade the quality of student writing as well as the quality of the ideas being conveyed. All student writing should be distinguished by correct grammar and punctuation, appropriate diction and syntax, and well-organized paragraphs.

University Policies

Academic Integrity

Your commitment to learning is evidenced by your enrollment as a student at San José State University. The academic integrity policy of the university, located at <http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/S07-2.htm>, requires you to be honest in all your academic course work. Faculty members are required to report all infractions to the office of Student Conduct and Ethical Development. The Student Conduct and Ethical Development website is available at <http://www.sjsu.edu/studentconduct/>. Instances of academic dishonesty will not be tolerated. Cheating on exams or plagiarizing (presenting the work of another as your own, or the use of another person's ideas without giving proper credit) will result in a failing grade in this course and sanctions by the university.

Campus Policy in Compliance with the American Disabilities Act

If you need course adaptations or accommodations because of a disability, or if you need to make special arrangements in case the building must be evacuated, please make an appointment with me as soon as possible, or see me during office hours. Presidential Directive 97-03 requires that students with disabilities requesting accommodations must register with the Disability Resource Center (DRC) at <http://www.drc.sjsu.edu/> to establish a record of their disability.

Add/Drop Policy

Students are responsible for understanding the policies and procedures about add/drop, grade forgiveness, etc. Refer to the policies in the catalog for the current semester at <http://info.sjsu.edu/static/catalog/policies.html>. Add/drop deadlines can be found on the current academic calendar at <http://www.sjsu.edu/calendars>. The late drop policy is available at <http://www.sjsu.edu/aars/policies/latedrops/policy>. Students should be aware of the current deadlines and penalties for dropping classes. Information about the latest changes and news is available at the “Advising Hub” at <http://www.sjsu.edu/advising/>.

SJSU Writing Center

The SJSU Writing Center is located in Clark Hall, Suite 126. All Writing Specialists have gone through a rigorous hiring process, and they are well trained to assist all students at all levels within all disciplines to become better writers. In addition to one-on-one tutoring services, the Writing Center also offers workshops every semester on a variety of writing topics.
