Course Description

Introduction to Creative Writing (English 71) is a 3-unit lower-division course designed, adopted, implemented, and administered by the Department of English & Comparative Literature at San Jose State University in accordance with the University's General Education Program Guidelines to fulfill Core General Education requirements in the Letters area of Humanities & the Arts. Also note that this course is an elective in the English major and Creative Writing minor. It is a pre-requisite for taking upper division Creative Writing workshops.

In this course, we will read, discuss, and write poetry, creative non-fiction and short fiction. The course will be taught using a combination of reading, discussion, written responses, and writing workshops. In the discussion, contemporary and historical published works will be closely read and analyzed. In the writing workshops, creative work written by class members will be analyzed and critiqued for revision. Written responses will display analytical acumen, personal sensibility, and serious engagement with the text.

Prerequisites: I recommend at minimum the completion of English Composition 1A or equivalent. Excellent composition skills are the basis for any Creative Writing.

Departmental Student Learning Objectives

In the Department of English and Comparative Literature, students will demonstrate the ability to: (SLO's)

1. read closely in a variety of forms, styles, structures, and modes, and articulate the value of close reading in the study of literature, creative writing, and/or rhetoric;
2. show familiarity with major literary works, genres, periods, and critical approaches to British, American and World Literature;
3. write clearly, effectively, and creatively, and adjust writing style appropriately to the content, the context, and the nature of the subject;
4. develop and carry out research projects, and locate, evaluate, organize, and incorporate information effectively;
5. articulate the relations among culture, history, and texts.

English 71 Course Goals:

Students enrolled in Introduction to Creative Writing will learn to:

- 1) Decipher and understand the form and content of assigned literary works;
- 2) Comprehend the historical and cultural contexts of assigned literary works;
- 3) Recognize the accomplishments of and issues related to writing by men and women representing diverse cultural traditions;
- 4) Acquire through both individual and collaborative/workshop efforts of a written and oral nature the skills necessary for reading, discussing, analyzing, interpreting, and—most importantly—emulating and writing works of poetry, creative nonfiction, and short fiction;
- 5) Communicate such skills with clarity and precision;
- 6) Develop an appreciation of literary works as expressions of human intellect and imagination, and as representations of diverse human cultures;
- 7) Develop the ability to write literary works that express intellect and imagination and that represent diversity in human cultures;
- 8) Respond to literature through clear and effective communication in both written and oral work;
- 9) Read and respond to texts with both analytical acumen and personal sensibility;
- 10) Appreciate how literary works illuminate enduring human concerns while also representing matters specific to a particular culture;
- 11) Write works of poetry, creative nonfiction, and short fiction that are of interest and value to the writer, to other students in the course, and to a diverse reading audience.

Required Texts/Readings: ALL texts and materials listed are required for class participation. BRING THEM to each class.

Textbook

- Imaginative Writing, 4th Edition (only). Burroway, Janet; ISBN 13: 978-0-321-92317-2
- Course Reader (purchased from Maple Press after first class)

Other equipment / material requirements required

- 1 Mead Composition Book, College Ruled. (Marble) This course ONLY
- 1 double-pocket folder: This course ONLY
- Stapler: All work stapled before class
- Regular internet access
- The ability to print 6 copies of assignments for workshop, often 24pages/workshop.

Classroom Protocol

Come to class on time; don't check or send texts while in class; use common sense and collegial behavior. College students are adults; behave like one. Please do not eat in class.

Assignments and Grading Policy

WRITING AND WORKSHOP Each student will revise and submit the following new writing. This includes bringing copies for workshop and participating in workshop. (SLO #3, 4)

Self-Portrait Diagnostic Incoming, outgoing. (2)

Creative Nonfiction: Memoir piece (approximately 4 linked vignettes)

Short-short (<500 words)

Setting Sketch (2 pages)

Fiction: Short story (approximately 4 pages, 1-2 scenes)

Character Sketch (2 pages)

Conversion piece (2 pages)

Poetry: 3 poems (English Sonnet; Ghazal; Free Verse). Poems to be presented in a final, revised Portfolio at the end of the semester with a 2 page Reflection.

Daily Reading: Selections chosen from our texts, visiting authors, and selected outside material are required not only for your success in this class, but your success as a writer.

Regular written responses are required. (SLO # 1, 2, 5)

Journal: You are required to keep a well-organized journal/notebook in which you will do assigned creative writing activities inside and outside class. You will also record your responses to the assigned readings here. You are urged to write down quotes from your readings that you may want to share with your classmates. You can also use your journal to develop drafts of new material or simply to react to what is working in your imagination as you respond to ideas and work presented by others in the course. Your notebook is due as indicated on the syllabus. You will be graded on the quality and quantity of your entries. (SLO #1, 2, 3, 5)

2 Literary Event Response Papers: You must attend two literary events this semester on or off campus. Write a 2 page paper that focuses on your response to each event and correlation to what you've learned in class: What did you like and why? What did you learn? What surprised you and why? What did you find interesting and why? What questions did it raise? Would you attend a similar event again? Why or why not? Etc. At the top left of your paper list the title of the event, and the day, time and location. (SLO #1, 3, 5)

Active Classroom Participation: see definition at "Grading" (SLO #1, 2, 5)

Poetry Reading: Each student will give an in-class performance/reading from their final poetry packet at the end of the semester. (SLO #1, 2)

Assignment Format

All prose assignments handed in (except the journal/notebook) should be typed 12 pt. font and double-spaced with page numbers. Poetry is single spaced. Multi-page assignments must be stapled. Your name, my name, the assignment title, and the date single-spaced should be included at the top Left of the first page(MLA format). Failure to adhere to these simple regulations will damage your grade in the course. Please buy a stapler. (LO 3, 5)

Class Workshop Procedures: For each unit (poetry, fiction, nonfiction) the class will divide into groups of approximately five students each. These will serve as your workshop groups. Your workshop group will consist of different students each unit, so you will get to read work by all of your classmates. Every time you turn in a piece of your work, you will bring enough copies for everyone in your workshop group and your teacher and yourself (six copies, usually). We will critique the pieces at home (writing directly on the manuscripts) and discuss them in workshop groups during the following class period. At the end of the discussion, you will get to keep the marked-up copies of your work. I have zero tolerance for late arrival to Workshop: you will be asked to leave. (LO 1)

Extra Credit Attending ONE additional approved author reading with written response. (LO 2; diversity) Extra credit will not change a grade from failing to passing. Counts as one quiz.

Grading:

Grades will be based on your level of participation, completion of assignments, and the quality of writing you do. I also review your engagement with the workshop process. In-class writing is part of most class meetings and comprises part of your grade.

ENGLISH DEPARTMENT GRADING STATEMENT: In English Department courses, instructors comment on and grade the quality of writing as well as the quality of ideas being conveyed. All your writing should be distinguished by correct grammar and punctuation, appropriate diction and syntax, and well-organized paragraphs.

Grades given conform to the English Department and university grading policy. The Department of English is committed to the differential grading scale as defined in the official SJSU Catalog (“The Grading System”). Grades issued must represent a full range of student performance: A = excellent; B = above average; C = average; D = below average; F = failure.

Creative writing, though subject to the instructor's individual interpretation, can be evaluated according to general standards used to determine how well a piece of writing “works.” These include: 1) Textual and/or technical competence and eloquence. 2) Imaginative risk. 3) Energy and freshness of language. 4) Effective use of metaphor and other forms of figurative language. 5) Clarity and precision of detail. 6) Capacity for mixed feelings and uncertainty. 7) Effective use of grammar, syntax, rhythm; also meter, rhyme, and other elements of poetic style and form. 8) Naturalness and believability. 9) Appropriateness of style to subject. 10) Compelling audience interest.

A: Creative writing that receives an “A” is likely to:

- Fulfill all assignment requirements
- Demonstrate complex, unique and/or insightful approach
- Function well as a whole
- Demonstrate engaging voice
- Incorporate strong word choices
- Incorporate, where appropriate, striking imagery
- Lack clichéd or over-used language
- Incorporate unusual/unique associations that fit the tone of the piece
- Lack spelling and punctuation errors, typos, etc.

B: Creative writing that receives a “B” is likely to:

- Fulfill the assignment requirements
- Demonstrate insightful approach
- Function generally well as a whole

Demonstrate a generally engaging voice
Incorporate some strong word choices
Use some concrete imagery
Mostly lack clichéd or over-used language
Mostly lack spelling and punctuation errors, typos, etc.

C: Creative writing that receives a “C” is likely to:

Meet the assignment requirements
Be derivative of other works
Not completely function as a whole (some parts may be underdeveloped)
Incorporate some strong, and some weaker, word choices
Lack concrete imagery
Include clichéd or over-used language
Have some spelling and punctuation errors, typos, etc.

D: Creative writing that receives a “D” is likely to:

Not fulfill the assignment requirements
Not function as a whole
Be a cursory response that demonstrates lack of motivation and/or poor understanding of the assignment

F: No response.

(Note: Graded assignments will be based on this criteria, which will be discussed in class. All assignments, graded and non-graded, will receive written feedback from instructor based on this criteria, as applicable.)

Final grades in this section will be the product of the following factors based on a 4pt scale where 4=A:

- Fiction* 20%
 - Poetry* 20%
 - Non-fiction* 20%
 - Journal 20%
 - Class participation*, Quizzes, Conference, 20%
- Poetry Reading, Self-Portraits, and Event Papers

*Full participation in scheduled Workshop effects BOTH genre grade and participation grade

Active Participation equates to engaging in class discussion, asking questions, and completing work done outside of class, including homework, reader responses, and close reading. In-class exercises and quizzes also make up the participation grade.

A –fully engaged; provides regular and helpful questions and comments

B –active listening; occasional, pertinent questions and comments

C –attentiveness questionable, little questions or comments posed (cont’d)

D –unprepared for class, disengaged

F –regularly absent, both physically and mentally

A minimum of one meeting in my office, scheduled by YOU, is required during the semester before the last full week of classes. (see below)

GOOD teacher/BAD teacher: Attendance and Classroom Policies

Meet with Me! I'm hanging out in my office hours just for YOU! Try and come in throughout the semester to discuss your prose and poetry. An appointment is recommended even during office hours so you don't have to wait around. Take advantage of some one-on-one time.

Late Work. Late work receives a reduction of 1 grade if turned in at the next class session. Anything later will be graded an "F." If the paper is turned in after the class period on the assigned due date, the essay will be graded down half a letter grade. If you are sick or have to miss class for any other reason on the day something is due, arrange to have a classmate turn it in if you do not want a grade reduction. For extenuating circumstances, I must be contacted before the due date to consider an extension.

No Work by Email. No work in my mailbox. No exceptions. I do not accept work by email or in my campus mailbox. If you need to miss a class session, ask a classmate to turn in your classwork and to collect handouts and assignments for you. Otherwise, turn in the paper as "late" next class session.

Your Responsibility If You're Absent. If you miss class, contact a classmate to get notes, assignments, etc. It is your responsibility to figure out what's going on and to show up prepared the next class session. Please do not ask me to do extra things for you if you choose not to come to class.

Always bring your journal and required texts to class. These are required for participation. If you're not prepared to contribute to the class, be prepared to be asked to leave for the day.

Homework format: (this includes all written work outside the Journal)

- * All work must be typed, double spaced
- * Use a 12-point Times Roman font
- * Use standard MLA essay heading format.
- * Papers must be single-sided for the teacher (but copies for classmates for peer revision may be double-sided)
- * Staple your papers BEFORE class. I do not accept unstapled work.(no paper clips, bent corners)

Academic integrity: In a word, PLAGIARISM: DON'T DO IT

Your commitment, as a student, to learning is evidenced by your enrollment at San Jose State University. The University Academic Integrity Policy S07-2 at <http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/S07-2.pdf> requires you to be honest in all your academic course work. If you plagiarize, you will fail the assignment and possibly the course.

Faculty members are required to report all infractions to the office of Student Conduct and Ethical Development. The Student Conduct and Ethical Development website is available at <http://www.sjsu.edu/studentconduct/>.

Be Fully Present No electronic devices are to be on/used/visible during class.

Infractions will result in being dismissed from class.

Student Technology Resources (Optional)

Computer labs for student use are available in the Academic Success Center located on the 1st floor of Clark Hall and on the 2nd floor of the Student Union. Additional computer labs may be available in your department/college. Computers are also available in the Martin Luther King Library. More information found here <http://www.sjsu.edu/at/asc/>

Peer Connections (Optional)

The Learning Assistance Resource Center (LARC) and the Peer Mentor Program have merged to become Peer Connections. Peer Connections is the new campus-wide resource for mentoring and tutoring. Our staff is here to inspire students to develop their potential as independent learners while they learn to successfully navigate through their university experience. Students are encouraged to take advantage of our services which include course-content based tutoring, enhanced study and time management skills, more effective critical thinking strategies, decision making and problem-solving abilities, and campus resource referrals. In addition to offering small group, individual, and drop-in tutoring for a number of undergraduate courses, consultation with mentors is available on a drop-in or by appointment basis. See the Peer Connections website for more information <http://peerconnections.sjsu.edu/>

SJSU Writing Center (Optional)

The SJSU Writing Center is located in Room 126 in Clark Hall. It is staffed by professional instructors and upper-division or graduate-level writing specialists from each of the seven SJSU colleges. Our writing specialists have met a rigorous GPA requirement, and they are well trained to assist all students at all levels within all disciplines to become better writers. The Writing Center website is located at <http://www.sjsu.edu/writingcenter/about/staff/>.

ENGL 71: Introduction to Creative Writing
WRITING DIAGNOSTIC PROMPT

Instructions:

Read the writing sample directions below:

1. Read the poem "Self-Portrait" by Adam Zagajewski (aloud if possible).
2. Notice the details included in the poem. Make a list of them.
3. Notice the order and organization of details; how they are arranged in the text.
4. Write a poem or a 250-500 word prose piece that is your self-portrait, modeled on the Adam Zagajewski poem. Select specific details for your self-portrait as Zagajewski has done, arranging them in such a way as to reveal interesting things about yourself.
5. Save your response in a Word file labeled "Your Name: Pre-Course Writing Sample."
6. Put your student number on the top left-hand corner of the page. DO NOT PUT YOUR NAME ON THE PAGE CONTAINING THE TEXT OF YOUR SELF-PORTRAIT.
7. Print 2 copies.
8. Attach a cover sheet to your self-portrait assignment containing your name, SJSU ID number, date, and the section number of the course.

DUE: _____ (Must be typed using a readable font, such as Times New Roman)

SELF PORTRAIT

Between the computer, a pencil, and a typewriter half my day passes. One day it will be half a century.
I live in strange cities and sometimes talk with strangers about matters strange to me.
I listen to music a lot: Bach, Mahler, Chopin, Shostakovich.
I see three elements in music: weakness, power, and pain.
The fourth has no name.
I read poets, living and dead, who teach me tenacity, faith, and pride. I try to understand the great philosopher—but usually catch just scraps of their precious thoughts.
I like to take long walks on Paris streets and watch my fellow creatures, quickened by envy, anger, desire; to trace a silver coin passing from hand to hand as it slowly loses its round shape (the emperor's profile is erased).
Beside me trees expressing nothing but a green, indifferent perfection.
Black birds pace the fields,
waiting patiently like Spanish widows.
I'm no longer young, but someone else is always older.
I like deep sleep, when I cease to exist, and fast bike rides on country roads when poplars and houses dissolve like cumuli on sunny days.
Sometimes in museums the paintings speak to me and irony suddenly vanishes.
I love gazing at my wife's face.
Every Sunday I call my father.
Every other week I meet with friends,
thus proving my fidelity.
My country freed itself from one evil. I wish another liberation would follow.
Could I help in this? I don't know.
I'm truly not a child of the ocean,
as Antonio Machado wrote about himself, but a child of air, mint, and cello and not all the ways of the high world cross paths with the life that—so far—belongs to me.

—Adam Zagajewski (translated by Clare Cavanagh)
