ENGL 1A Course Description

As Americans, we tend to see the rest of the world's culture through the lens of our understanding of what culture is; an understanding allowed to us by our first-world privilege. In this class, we will explore the themes of sustainability, creativity, and global citizenship through the lens of cultural diversity in California, and on a larger scale, in America. The class will be divided into three units: Ethnic Culture, Gender Culture, and Class Culture. We will use articles about current issues to explore the ideas of different types of culture. We must ask ourselves how can our individual culture affect our understanding of what culture is? How can we use our personal privileges to understand and empathize with others? In this course, you will examine these questions and express your findings clearly and coherently.

English 1A is an introductory writing course that will help students understand the writing process and the goals, dynamics, and genres of written communication. Through interpretation and analysis of texts, students will develop clear thinking and effective writing that give form and coherence to complex ideas. Students will practice these skills by writing for various audiences and rhetorical situations.

ENGL 1A Learning Outcomes (CLO)

Upon successful completion of the course, students will be able to

- communicate meaning clearly and effectively;
- identify focus, tailored to a particular audience and purpose;
- perform effectively the essential steps of the writing process (prewriting, organizing, composing, revising, and editing);
- explain, analyze, develop, and criticize ideas effectively;
- use within an essay supporting material drawn from primary and secondary sources, including appropriate citations;
- organize individual paragraphs and entire essays;
- construct sentences with accuracy, variety, and clarity;
- use appropriate diction and tone;
- control conventions of written English (e.g., punctuation, spelling, reference, agreement).

GE Area A2 Course Description

ENGL 1A fulfills the written communication general education requirement. Courses in GE Area A2 cultivate an understanding of the writing process and the goals, dynamics, and genres of written communication, with special attention to the nature of writing in the university. Students will develop college-level reading abilities, rhetorical sophistication, and writing styles that give form and coherence to complex ideas and feelings. A passing grade of C or better signifies that the student is a capable college-level writer and reader of English.

GE A2 Learning Outcomes (GELO)

In addition to the learning objectives stated above, ENGL 1A also measures the learning goals of GE Area A2. Upon successful completion of the course, students will be able to

1. demonstrate the ability to read actively and rhetorically;
2. demonstrate the ability to perform the essential steps in the writing process (prewriting, organizing, composing, revising, and editing) and demonstrate an awareness of said performance;
3. articulate an awareness of and write according to the rhetorical features of texts, such as purpose, audience, context, and rhetorical appeals;
4. demonstrate the ability to integrate their ideas and those of others by explaining, analyzing, developing, and criticizing ideas effectively in several genres;
5. demonstrate college-level language use, clarity, and grammatical proficiency in writing.

ENGL 1A Course Content

Diversity: SJSU studies include an emphasis on diversity. Students will engage in integrated reading and writing assignments to construct their own arguments on complex issues that generate meaningful public debate. Readings for the course will include writers of different genders and from different socio-economic classes.

Writing: Writing assignments shall give students repeated practice in all phases of the writing process: prewriting, organizing, writing, revising, and editing. This class requires a minimum of 8000 words, at least 4000 of which must be in revised final draft form. Because in-class writing is valued and students should be able to perform well in timed writing situations, at least two essays shall be written in class. In addition, ENGL 1A classes require multiple out-of-class essays.

Reading: The reading in this class is comprised of readings from Writing Today and articles about current issue. You are expected to apply what you learn from WT to the assigned articles, whether it be ways to read critically or using what you read in your own writing.

Required Texts and Materials

All required texts will be uploaded on Canvas.
Laptops to read articles and do work in class.

ENGL 1A Course Requirements and Assignments

SJSU classes are designed such that in order to be successful, it is expected that students will spend a minimum of forty-five hours for each unit of credit (normally three hours per unit per week), including preparing for class, participating in course activities, completing assignments, and so on. More details about student workload can be found in University Policy S12-3 at <http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/S12-3.pdf>.

The following are the criteria by which essays are typically evaluated in first-year writing courses:

An “A” essay is organized and well-developed, demonstrating a clear understanding and fulfillment of the assignment, written in a unique and compelling voice. It will show the student’s ability to use language effectively with a solid command of grammar, mechanics, and usage.

A “B” essay demonstrates competence in the same categories as an “A” essay, but it may show slight weakness in one of these areas. It will respond to the topic suitably and may contain some grammatical, mechanical or usage errors.

A “C” essay will complete the requirements of the assignment, but it will show weaknesses in fundamentals, such as development. It may show weakness in mastery of grammar, mechanics, usage, or voice.

A “D” essay will neglect to meet all the requirements of the assignment or may be superficial in its treatment of the topic. It may lack development or fail to stay on topic. It may contain grammatical, mechanical, and/or usage errors that interfere with reader comprehension.

An “F” essay does not fulfill the requirements of the assignment.

Requirements for particular assignments will vary, but in all cases essay grades will reflect the paper’s effectiveness, which are broken down into three major areas: content (this includes maturity and sophistication of thought), organization, and language. All assignments, quizzes, and exams are graded on a traditional A-F scale.

Note: Students must receive a C or higher to pass the course

Late Policy: For the major assignments, unexcused late work will automatically be knocked down two full letter grades. (i.e. A C+ is the highest you can get.) I will not accept late work if it’s more than two calendar days after the due date. Requests for extensions will be treated case-by-case. Inform me at least 48 hours in advance.

Smaller take-home assignments (reading responses, outlines, etc) will not be accepted at all if late. In-class work will also not be accepted late. Those points will be docked from your participation.

Assignment Format: All outside assignments should be typed and in 12-point font, one-inch margins, in Times New Roman font, and MLA format. In-Class assignments should be in blue or black ink. No pencil!

Classroom Protocol

Participation: If you are not in class, you cannot participate. Participation includes coming to class prepared, asking thoughtful questions, listening to your classmates and instructor, and contributing to the class discussion. Points will be given based how well you do these things. Participation does not include sleeping, studying for another class, or asking for repeated instructions.

Attendance: If you miss a class, it is your responsibility to contact a classmate. Do not contact me asking what you missed. All the readings and assignments are on the syllabus as well as Canvas. This is a college course. If you miss a class, you are missing valuable information. Arrive on time and stay until the end of class. Arriving late or leaving early will result in a loss of participation points.

Electronics: Laptops are required for all class sessions during which there is no in-class essay. Obviously, you shouldn’t be on Facebook, Tumblr, Instagram, etc. Phones should not be used at all. If I see you looking down at your lap, I will assume you are texting. Participation points will be deducted.

Food: Drinks are permitted. “Quiet” snacks that do not interfere or disrupt class are also permitted. Do not bring whole meals or anything with a crunch or a smell. Clean up if you spill something.

Consideration: As we will be discussing many topics of sensitivity, remember to be considerate. The classroom is a safe place for everyone to express and explore ideas. Be respectful, even if you do not agree with someone's opinion. Do not antagonize.

Students are encouraged to familiarize themselves with SJSU's policies and practices pertaining to the procedures to follow if and when questions or concerns about a class arises. See University Policy S90-5 at <http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/S90-5.pdf>. More detailed information on a variety of related topics is available in the SJSU catalog, at <http://info.sjsu.edu/web-dbgen/narr/catalog/rec-12234.12506.html>. In general, it is recommended that students begin by seeking clarification or discussing concerns with their instructor. If such conversation is not possible, or if it does not serve to address the issue, it is recommended that the student contact the Department Chair as a next step.

 - It is suggested that the greensheet include the instructor's process for granting permission, whether in writing or orally and whether for the whole semester or on a class by class basis.
 - In classes where active participation of students or guests may be on the recording, permission of those students or guests should be obtained as well.
- “Course material developed by the instructor is the intellectual property of the instructor and cannot be shared publicly without his/her approval. You may not publicly share or upload instructor generated material for this course such as exam questions, lecture notes, or homework solutions without instructor consent.”
