Course Theme
Money is complicated:
• Do the wealthy have a larger obligation to give back to society than do the classes below them?
• How should I be investing my money?
• Is it impolite to inquire about how much a person earns?
• Are there a set of rules for the wealthy and another set for everyone else?
• Are your spending habits a reflection of your values?
• What does it mean to be middle class in America?
• How can we have both unprecedented wealth and record-level poverty?
• Why do I have to pay taxes?
• Is mixing money and family ever a good idea?
• Is capitalism a good thing?
• Do the poor deserve to be poor?
• Do the rich deserve to be rich?
• How would you rate your financial literacy?
• Who should pay for dinner?

This semester’s ENGL 1A will explore all things money.

A Note About Fall 2021
As we transition back to in-person learning, the health and safety of SJSU’s community continues to be of paramount concern. As such, our course this semester will be conducted entirely online. While this format sometimes presents challenges, please continue to be patient and respectful of me and your classmates. I am looking forward to an exciting and engaging class.
Required Materials

All books are available in an electronic edition (e.g. Kindle), though pagination may vary from print editions.

Books:

Writing guide:

Any edition of The Everyday Writer will suffice.

Technology Requirements

Students are required to have an electronic device (e.g. laptop, desktop, or tablet) with a camera and built-in microphone, as well as a reliable Wi-Fi connection. The University has a free equipment loan program (sjsu.edu/learnanywhere/equipment/index.php) available for students.

Course Description

English 1A is an introductory writing course that helps students understand the writing process and the goals, dynamics, and genres of written communication. Through interpretation and analysis of texts, students learn to think clearly and write effectively as they give form and coherence to complex ideas. Students practice these skills by writing for various audiences and rhetorical situations.

Course Content

- Diversity: SJSU studies include an emphasis on diversity. You will engage in integrated reading and writing assignments to construct your own arguments on complex issues that generate meaningful public debate. Readings for the course will include writers of different genders and from different socio-economic classes.
- Writing: Writing assignments will give you repeated practice in all phases of the writing process: prewriting, organizing, writing, revising, and editing. This class requires a minimum of 8000 words, at least 4000 of which must be in revised final draft form. Because in-class writing is valued and you should be able to perform well in timed writing situations, at least one essay will be written in class. In addition, ENGL 1A classes require multiple out-of-class essays.
- Reading: In addition to being an intensive writing course, ENGL 1A is also a reading course. Reading is a crucial component of the class, as one must read effective writing to become an effective writer. During the semester, you will read a variety of rhetorical and professional works on the art and craft of persuasive language.
- Multimodal: You will be presenting your arguments orally to class both as an individual and as part of a group.

General Education Learning Objectives (GELO)

Upon successful completion of the course, you will be able to:
1. Read actively and rhetorically

ENGL 1A, FALL ’21

DH DE LA O, 2
2. Perform the essential steps in the writing process (prewriting, organizing, composing, revising, and editing) and demonstrate an awareness of said performance
3. Articulate an awareness of and write according to the rhetorical features of texts, such as purpose, audience, context, and rhetorical appeals
4. Integrate your ideas and those of others by explaining, analyzing, developing, and criticizing ideas effectively in several genres
5. Demonstrate college-level language use, clarity, and grammatical proficiency in writing

University, College, or Department Policy Information
University-wide policy information relevant to all courses, such as academic integrity, accommodations, etc., can be found at sjsu.edu/gup/syllabusinfo/index.html.

Department Grading Policy
Requirements for particular assignments will vary, but in all cases essay grades will reflect the paper’s effectiveness, which are broken down into three major areas: content (this includes maturity and sophistication of thought), organization, and expression. All assignments, quizzes, and exams are graded on a traditional A-F scale.

The following are the criteria by which essays are typically evaluated in first-year writing courses:
- An "A" essay is organized and well-developed, demonstrating a clear understanding and fulfillment of the assignment, written in a unique and compelling voice. It will show the student’s ability to use language effectively with a solid command of grammar, mechanics, and usage.
- A "B" essay demonstrates competence in the same categories as an "A" essay, but it may show slight weakness in one of these areas. It will respond to the topic suitably and may contain some grammatical, mechanical or usage errors.
- A "C" essay will complete the requirements of the assignment, but it will show weaknesses in fundamentals, such as development. It may show weakness in mastery of grammar, mechanics, usage, or voice.
- A "D" essay will neglect to meet all the requirements of the assignment or may be superficial in its treatment of the topic. It may lack development or fail to stay on topic. It may contain grammatical, mechanical, and/or usage errors that interfere with reader comprehension.
- An "F" essay does not fulfill the requirements of the assignment.

Standards for Presentation of Work

Eauzone

I maintain the EauZone (eauzone.blogspot.com) as a centralized location for general class information, including assignments. It also contains an easy-to-reference archive of the course work. In addition, this website will be the location of the course’s eReader (eR). These Web articles may be required to complete some assignments. You will utilize this site, not Canvas, for most course information.

On the homepage, click on "ENGL 1A: The Bottom Line" under "Fall 2021 Courses" to be routed to our course’s page.

Course Policies

General:

- I am happy to call you by whatever name you prefer, but please be consistent. For example, if your name is John Wilson, but you go by Jack, then use "John (Jack) Wilson" on all assignments. Also, remember that preferred names can be set in Canvas using these instructions: sjsu.edu/registrar/docs/Preferred_name_setting.pdf.
- I am also happy to use your preferred pronouns. Simply notify me as early in the semester as possible—and I apologize in advance if I occasionally slip up (because I inevitably will).
- As soon as possible, upload a clear profile photo to your Canvas and email accounts. This is especially important given our online-only setting.

Grades and grading:

- Ordinarily, you could expect sentence-level corrections for each of the hard copy essays you submitted. However, such corrections in Canvas are cumbersome. Instead, expect (often lengthy) end-notes in the comments section of your essays.
- There is a participation component to your grade. It could mean the difference between letter grades. To receive all or most of these points, it is important that you actively engage in the classroom experience (e.g. frequently ask questions and/or comment). Simply attending class is not sufficient to garner full points, as they are based on active participation, not attendance.
- There will be no extra-credit opportunities this semester.
- Check Canvas for your most up-to-date grades.

Assignments:

- All writing assignments are due on the dates indicated on EauZone, which contains the most up-to-date schedule and information.
- Submit late assignments (via Canvas) no later than the following class after the due date. They will be lowered one letter grade. Canvas submissions will be closed one week after due date.
- Without prior notification, missed presentations cannot be made up. If you must miss your presentation date, make prior arrangements with me.
- All assignments will be uploaded via The Eauzone and Canvas.

Zoom practices and etiquette:

- Though you are not required to appear on camera for this or any other class, you are highly encouraged to do so. Being on camera helps you not only feel more engaged with the class environment, it also helps me and your classmates get to know you better.
For those times your camera is off, you must have a clear profile photo uploaded into your Zoom account—instruction can be found here: ischool.sjsu.edu/account-set.

Whenever you are on camera, please dress appropriately.

Always keep yourself on "mute" when not speaking.

To comment or ask a question, please speak aloud or use the "raise a hand" feature—the "chat" feature will typically be turned off.

Please do not private message me during class as it can be very distracting. Instead, message me afterwards.

All classes will be recorded and will be posted to Canvas.

University policy (S12-7) requires consent from all individuals who appear in a class recording. If you do not wish to be identified in a recording, feel free to utilize the "anonymous option," but please notify me beforehand.

Please obtain permission from me before recording any class session. Note that any personal recordings are strictly for private use and cannot be shared with anyone outside of class.

Email:

In order to streamline communications, email me at daniel.hendeldelao@sjsu.edu ONLY. Please do not contact me via Canvas.

In your email, indicate your section number in the subject line, or somewhere in the body. This helps me reply to your email in a timelier manner.

Due to the high volume of email I receive daily, it may take me a day (or more) to respond.

Unless it affects your presentation, there is no need to contact me if you miss class.

If you are absent, please do not message me to ask what you missed. You should have the contact information of at least two other classmates. They should be able to fill you in on any relevant information. If you still have a question, then feel free to contact me.

Course Work

Class sessions will employ a combination of lectures, group discussions, presentations, and writing workshops that will cover a range of activities, including analyzing, interpreting, outlining, revising, and editing.

All essays should:

- Range from 250 words (approx. 1 page) to 750 words (approx. 2 ½ pages), depending on the assignment
- Be in MLA Style
- Unless otherwise noted, always include a works cited*

*Your works cited may be inserted directly after the end of your essay—it does not need to start on a separate page.
