GE/SJSU Studies Category: English 22 fulfills the lower division GE requirement in Arts and Letters (C2)

Course Description

Students will examine works of literary fantasy and science fiction to understand them as expressions of human intellect and imagination; to comprehend their historical and cultural contexts; and to recognize their diverse cultural traditions. Both contemporary and historical works will be studied.

Course Theme

American and British Fantasy and Science Fiction: Frontiers of Time and Space

"In England, 100 miles is a long way. In America, 100 years is a long time. In England, you have to go back [in time] to find [a good story]. In America, you have to drive to find it.”—Neil Gaiman

During this course we will examine texts that explore the frontiers of the imagination in both fantasy and science fiction. As British fantasy author Neil Gaiman has observed, the British tend to be more successful fantasists due to their comparatively long mythic history, while American writers have excelled in the genre of science fiction, due in part perhaps from an inherited historical ideal to explore the frontier. And yet, as we will discover, there are exceptions to this understanding in both cases. Additional themes of subgenre, gender, and diverse voices will also be explored.

Course Format: Online & Asynchronous

This course adopts an online delivery format. Although this course is asynchronous and does not require a weekly meeting, it is required that students check in weekly to view lectures and complete assignments. Pre-recorded lectures will be posted weekly on Canvas. To keep pace with the course, students are required to view the lectures online in a timely manner in order to gain mastery of the material. While viewing the recorded lectures, students are strongly recommended to listen carefully, pay attention, and take notes just as you would in an in-person class. To best view and access the online content, students must have consistent, reliable, high-speed internet access, using a PC or MAC or other compatible device. Please note that it is the student’s responsibility to check for compatibility. Technical issues will not be considered a valid excuse for failure to view lectures or submit assignments on time. That being said, students who diligently seek help from technical support and communicate clearly with me will be allowed a grace period to resolve difficulties.

Canvas & MYSJSU Messaging

As this course is held entirely online, announcements will be made weekly to provide current information to students in the course. You are responsible for regularly checking with the messaging system through MySJSU on Spartan App Portal http://one.sjsu.edu to learn of any updates.

Course materials such as syllabus, handouts, notes, assignment instructions, etc. can be found on the Canvas

For help with using Canvas see Canvas Student Resources page (http://www.sjsu.edu/ecampus/teaching-tools/canvas/student_resources)

Other technology requirements: ZOOM

You will be required to create a Zoom account to participate in one-on-one conferences and group discussions.
Creation of a Zoom account is free of charge.

GE Learning Outcomes (GELO)

As a GE Humanities course, this course shall give students the opportunity to:
a. examine various works of the human intellect and imagination in the form of texts and theories;
b. understand the historical and cultural contexts in which specific works were created; and
c. recognize the accomplishments of and issues related to diverse genders and cultures reflected in such texts.

Upon successful completion of a C2 course, students should be able to:
1. analyze and understand works of philosophical and humanistic importance, including their temporal and cultural dimensions;
2. explore and articulate their own subjective aesthetic and intellectual responses to such texts;
3. analyze and assess ideas of value, meaning, and knowledge, as produced within the humanistic disciplines; and
4. research and write effective analyses of works of the human intellect and imagination.

Course Learning Outcomes (CLO)

In addition to the General Education Learning Outcomes, English 22 has the goals of enlarging students’ awareness of the possibilities of language and literature to enrich their lives, and to find pleasure as well as challenge in the activity of interpretation—to see interpretation as a creative response to the stimulus of the works being read and discussed. Thus, upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

1. Respond creatively to literary texts.
2. Compare and contrast a work’s effectiveness when it is translated from one genre (book) to another (film).

Course Requirements and Assignments

NOTE: “Success in this course is based on the expectation that students will spend, for each unit of credit, a minimum of 45 hours over the length of the course (normally three hours per unit per week) for instruction, preparation/studying, or course related activities, including but not limited to internships, labs, and clinical practica. Other course structures will have equivalent workload expectations as described in the syllabus.”

In other words, expect to dedicate about 10 hours per week to this course. See breakdown of grading and assignment descriptions below.

Course assignments (described in detail below) will consist of four module quizzes, one essay, one team project, one adaptation project, weekly “side quests” (participation credit), and one final exam.

Grading Information

Student progress will be assessed by means of essays and exams, along with a team project and some shorter assignments (Side Quests). Students will receive assignment sheets and rubrics—posted to Canvas and discussed in lectures—that will outline the specific expectations of the assignments. Students will receive written feedback on assignments along with a letter grade based on a 10-point scale per assignment. As this is an online class, students are encouraged to stay in regular contact with the instructor with regard to any questions about assignments or class expectations.
Specific grading criteria for assignments are indicated in the descriptions. Late papers and make-up exams must be arranged with the instructor. By department policy, in all English Department Courses, instructors will comment on and grade the quality of student writing as well as the quality of ideas being conveyed. All student writing should be distinguished by correct grammar and punctuation, appropriate diction and syntax, and well-organized paragraphs. The Department of English reaffirms its commitment to the differential grading scale as defined in the SJSU Catalog ("The Grading System"). Grades issued must represent a full range of student performance: A = excellent; B = above average; C = average; D = below average; F = failure.

Determination of Grades

Grades are determined on a 100-point scale, as follows:

15 points = 3 Module Quizzes at 5 points each
10 points = Short Essay (to be completed after Module 1)
15 points = Team Project (to be completed after Module 2)
20 points = Diversity Project (to be completed after Module 3)
20 points = Side Quests (Participation Badges; 20 minimum required)
20 points = Final
100 points total

Grading Scale:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Grade</th>

<tbody>
<tr>
<td>A</td>
<td>90-100</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>B</td>

<td>70-79</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>D</td>
<td>60-69</td>
</tr>
<tr>

</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

This course must be passed with a D- or better as a CSU graduation requirement.

Description of Assignments

Module Quizzes (15 points; 3 quizzes at 5 points each)

Module quizzes will be taken online in Canvas and will be available during a seven day window at the conclusion of each module (see schedule for details). Once the window is closed, no one may take the exam except with a university approved excuse (illness, etc.) Module quizzes will consist of 10 questions at one half point (0.5) each. Module quizzes will contain a selection of matching, multiple choice, short answer questions. Study guides and practice quizzes will be available. (GELO 1)

Short Essay (10 points total; 4 pages, or approx. 1000 words required)

Students will demonstrate their ability to critically evaluate literature and defend a position in a critical essay. Some additional research will be required and essays must quote from credible academic sources with citations. Successful essays will have a clear thesis, present ideas in an organized, logical, and coherent form, and use Standard English grammar, punctuation, spelling, and usage. Formal assignment prompts and grading rubrics will be distributed at the time the essays are assigned. (GELO 2, 3)

Team Project (15 points total; approx. 1000 words required, but may vary)

Design a Wizard School.

Working in teams of three or four, students will brainstorm and design their own wizard school. Wizard school designs may be inspired by but are expected to be creatively different from Harry Potter’s Hogwarts and Ged’s Roke. Student teams will be expected to set up a regular meeting schedule to discuss a project plan, assigned roles, and expected outcomes. Student teams may utilize email, phone calls, and Zoom to conduct their meetings.
depending on individual schedules. Students will be graded individually on their roles as a team member and their contribution to the overall project. Grading criteria will include: 1) analysis of overall project; 2) analysis of contribution to project; 3) analysis of another group project. Formal assignment prompts and grading rubrics will be distributed at the time the project is assigned. (GELO 1, CLO 1)

Diversity Project (20 points total; 4 pages, or approx. 1000 words, but may vary)

Diversify a Sci-Fi or Fantasy Text for a Film Adaptation.

Students will select one text from the course reading list to diversify and pitch as a film adaptation of their own design. To pitch the adaptation of the selected text, the student will write a synopsis, establishing the setting, and then describe the main characters physically, emotionally, and intellectually. Cast each character with a real TV or Film actor with consideration to cross-gender and diverse casting. What stylistic or artistic choices would you make as the director of this film? Especially consider what different choices you could make if this text has already been adapted to film. Grading Criteria: 1) Original adaptation idea with clear synopsis of original text and what the adaptation will do differently, 2) Vivid description of characters and casting choices, 3) Vivid description of setting and filming locations, 4) Correct formatting and language usage and style, 5) Justification of creative choices—especially with regards to the importance of diversity in today’s media, 6) Images or original artwork. Formal assignment prompts and grading rubrics will be distributed at the time the project is assigned. (GELO 4, CLO 2)

Side Quests (Participation Badges; 20 minimum required for 20 points)

Each week students will be given the opportunity to complete “Side Quests” to earn participation credit, as well as other rewards. Side Quests will consist of a selection small activities in which the student may demonstrate additional knowledge or skills based on the current module’s assignments. The completion of one Side Quest = one badge. Over the 16 week semester, students are required to achieve 20 badges to earn participation credit, or 20 points. However, students may earn more badges to gain additional rewards, such as raising a quiz or essay grade. Activities include: illustrating a text, watching a TED Talk, responding to a scholarly article, attending a Zoom meeting, and more. See Side Quests in Canvas for more details. (GELO 1-4, CLO 1-2)

Final Examination (20 points)

The Final Exam will be taken online in Canvas and will be available during a seven day window during Finals Week. Once the window is closed, no one may take the exam except with a university approved excuse (illness, etc.) The Final will be cumulative and consist of a random selection of questions from the Module 1-3 quizzes. The Final will contain a selection of matching, multiple choice, short answer questions. A study guide will be provided. (GELO 1, 4)

Online Classroom Protocol

Email and Electronic Communication Etiquette

For this online course, we will do all of our writing in digital spaces—some formal, some informal. An important part of learning to be a successful student and writer is knowing what is appropriate in a given situation. An email to me, to any other faculty or staff member on campus, or to anyone in any position of authority must be respectful and professional in tone, should come from your official SJSU email account or Canvas message board, and should follow this sample format:

Subject: Request to schedule an appointment
A subject line is always required and should clearly and briefly represent your purpose for emailing. Emails with no subject line may be mistaken as “junk mail” and may not be read.

Dear Professor Nathanael,
*Always use a formal address, such as Professor, Dr., Ms., Mr. Never use the person’s first name unless you have been given explicit permission to do so. Never use informal address like “Hey, Prof!”

I am a student in your ENGL 22 class, and I would like to schedule an appointment with you to discuss my essay draft. I am having trouble with my thesis statement and hope to get your help in clarifying it. Are you available to meet this Wednesday afternoon?

*State your question, concern, or request briefly and clearly, using standardized English. Maintain a polite, respectful tone and avoid using exclamation points, emoticons, texting abbreviations, or coarse language. Avoid asking questions that are answered on the syllabus or assignment sheet, such as “When is our paper due?” or “What is our homework for tomorrow?” Emails that are not professional in style or tone, or that ask questions that are clearly answered on the syllabus or assignment sheets, may be ignored.

Thank you,

*Use a formal closing, such as “Sincerely,” “Respectfully,” “Thank you,” or “Best regards.”

Martha Jones

*Always sign your full name at the end of your email. Include your student ID and course number as a courtesy if you are not messaging from Canvas.

Such permission allows the recordings to be used for your private, study purposes only. The recordings are the intellectual property of the instructor; you have not been given any rights to reproduce or distribute the material. Where active participation of students or guests may be on the recording, permission of those students or guests should be obtained as well. Course material developed by the instructor is the intellectual property of the instructor and cannot be shared publicly without his/her approval. You may not publicly share or upload instructor generated material for this course such as exam questions, lecture notes, or homework solutions without instructor consent.

Academic Integrity

Students should know that the University’s Academic Integrity Policy is available on the university website. Your own commitment to learning, as evidenced by your enrollment at San Jose State University and the University’s integrity policy, require you to be honest in all your academic course work. Faculty members are required to report all infractions to the office of Student Conduct and Ethical Development. Instances of academic dishonesty will not be tolerated. Cheating on exams or plagiarism (presenting the work of another as your own, or the use of another person’s ideas without giving proper credit) will result in a failing grade and sanctions by the University. For this class, all assignments are to be completed by the individual student unless otherwise specified. If you would like to include in your assignment any material you have submitted, or plan to submit for another class, please note that SJSU’s Academic Policy F06-1 requires approval of instructors.

Peer Connections
Peer Connections offers free mentoring, tutoring, and supplemental instruction services for students at SJSU. Peer Educators are students just like you; they understand the triumphs and challenges of being a student at San José State University.

1. The Peer Connections locations on campus are currently closed due to the pandemic, and we know that it may be challenging for you to get the resources/support that you may need. Therefore, Peer Connections has pushed forward our plans for online/virtual tutoring and mentoring, so you can now meet with your tutor and/or mentor online.
2. If you’d like to schedule an appointment to meet with your tutor/mentor online, you can do that from Spartan Connect. Learn more about appointment scheduling options here.
3. If you need to contact Peer Connections, please e-mail us at peerconnections@sjsu.edu. We will be checking voicemail, but e-mail is currently the fastest way to reach us. We will be answering e-mails as quickly as possible during business hours (Monday-Friday 9-5pm).
