Course Description

ENGL 100A serves as alternative satisfaction of the WST requirement if passed with a C or better (C- or lower will not satisfy the WST). Prepares students for 100W through drafting, feedback, and revision to demonstrate writing competency. Develops ability to analyze written genres used in the students' chosen disciplines and to write analytical and reflective essays.

Course Goals

ENGL 100A is designed with the goal of preparing you to succeed in 100W, in other upper division classes, and in your profession. The course offers intensive practice in prewriting, drafting, revising, and editing academic writing. You are asked to research, analyze, and reflect on various kinds of writing and to produce a minimum of 5,000 words, including a rhetorical analysis, a report about writing in your chosen discipline, and five critical reflective journal entries on a book-length work of fiction and instructor-selected readings.

Reading

- The Alchemist (25th Anniversary Edition), by Paulo Coelho, available at Spartan Bookstore and elsewhere. ISBN: 9780062315007
- Readings as assigned on Canvas
- Student-selected research materials

Technology Requirements

Canvas: We will be using Canvas throughout this course.

Login URL: <http://sjsu.instructure.com>. Please note that the URL should NOT have the “www” at the start of the address like many other websites. It is recommended that you visit the eCampus Canvas website at <http://www.sjsu.edu/at/ec/canvas/>, which offers a number of Quick Start Learning Guides to help you navigate Canvas tools. Also, detailed guides can be found at <http://guides.instructure.com/>.

Username: your SJSU 9-digit ID number.

Password: Self-generated password for your SJSUOne account

Turnitin.com: We use Turnitin.com for the main writing assignments. The turnitin software is already embedded within Canvas, so you do not need an additional password to access turnitin.com.

Course Requirements and Assignments

This is a portfolio-based writing class. Your final grade for the course will be based on scores given to your portfolio and your final exam.

Eligibility points: During the first 13 weeks of the semester, you will earn eligibility points for each required assignment or activity and for participation. The maximum number of points is 100. You must have at least 70 points to be eligible to submit your portfolio and take the final exam. If you have not earned the minimum of 70 points by the end of the 14th week of the semester, you will receive an F in the class and you will not be able to submit your portfolio.

The points you receive prior to submitting your portfolio and the feedback you receive from your instructor on your drafts are intended to ensure that you have a complete portfolio, strong participation in the class, and improvement in your writing through feedback and drafting. The points you receive during this time will not be calculated as part of the final grade. They are simply an entry ticket that allows you to submit your portfolio and take the final exam.

Final grade: In the final weeks of the semester, you will assemble your portfolio, write a brief cover letter, and compose an in-class final essay. Your final grade is based on the scores given to your portfolio and final exam by two readers: the portfolio accounts for 70 percent, the final exam 30 percent (see grading rubric and scale below). To receive a C or higher for this course, you must earn a score of at least 70 percent (out of 100) on your portfolio and final exam combined.

After the portfolio and final exam are scored, the instructor may choose to petition a low-pass portfolio or final exam for a higher score if she or he believes the score is inaccurate. To be considered for such a petition, the student must be in good standing in the course and have excellent, consistent participation in all classroom activities. Students who fail the portfolio may, on the recommendation of the instructor, have one more opportunity to revise during finals week.

University Credit Hour Requirement

Success in this course is based on the expectation that students will spend, for each unit of credit, a minimum of 45 hours over the length of the course (normally three hours per unit per week with one of the hours used for lecture) for instruction or preparation/studying or course related activities including but not limited to internships, labs, clinical practica. Other course structures will have equivalent workload expectations as described in the syllabus.

Assignment	Description	Word count	Assessment
Rhetorical Analysis Essay	For this assignment you analyze a piece of professional writing in your major or field or work, describing the rhetorical strategies that were used by the author and how these strategies contribute to the purpose of the document.	1,500	Maximum 25 eligibility points
Discipline Investigation Essay	In this assignment, you write a report about working in your major field. This report describes an interview you will have with a professional in your chosen field; you also write about information you collect from at least two outside sources (articles), following appropriate citation and reference styles (APA or MLA).	1,500	Maximum 25 eligibility points
Five Critical Reading Reflection Journals	During the semester, you will read sections of a full length work of fiction, The Alchemist , by Paulo Coelho, and other readings selected by your instructor and respond to this reading in a series of required reflective journals. Most of these will be timed essays written in class. At the end of the semester, you will include these journals in your portfolio.	2,000	Maximum 25 eligibility points
Cover Letter	This is a one- or two- paragraph letter to readers of your portfolio in which you explain which of the two above assignments (RA or DI) is your best work and why.	200-300	Maximum 5 eligibility points
Homework, quizzes, and participation	Your instructor determines how to assign these points to your class work and participation (see pp. 2, 3, 6).		Maximum 20 eligibility points
	By the end of the 13th week, you must have earned at least 70 points by doing all of the above work, including drafts, peer editing, revisions, etc. If you have not earned at least 70 points, you will not be allowed to submit your portfolio and you will receive an F for the course.		Maximum 100 points; minimum 70 points
Portfolio	The portfolio must include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• A clean, final draft of the cover letter (200-300 words)</li> <li>• A clean, final copy of two main assignments (at least 3,000 words) of revised, polished writing (see above);</li> <li>• First and intermediate draft of each of the two main writing assignments which show instructor's comments and/or a rubric marked by the instructor;</li> <li>• Five CRR journals.</li> </ul>	3,200 words of final, polished writing	Evaluated by two readers according to scoring rubric. Worth 70% of grade.
Final Exam	A timed, in-class essay, common across all sections of 100A.  Portfolio Submission and Final Examination: Thursday, April 28, 2022	500 words	Scored by two readers according to scoring rubric. Worth 30% of grade.

Determination of Grades

ENGL 100A is graded A-F only. CR/NCR is not an option, as “credit” in 100A does not satisfy the WST requirement: Grade C or higher fulfills this requirement. Further, no “incomplete” grades are given in this course. To receive full credit, assignments must be completed on time by the posted due date. Please note that no unexcused late work will be accepted. If you cannot make a deadline, you must contact me BEFORE THE DUE DATE.

Classroom Protocol

Writing can be a solitary enterprise, but the critical thinking and habits of mind that go into such work can be developed and enriched in community. Thus, it is imperative that you attend class every day and participate in class activities and discussions. Class participation entails: (1) demonstrating that you've completed the readings, (2) contributing to discussions, and (3) completing in-class assignments and activities. Electronic resources such as laptops, tablets, and phones may be used during class only to compose select assignments, or access course materials on Canvas. Please be sure that social media and other distractions not related to our course pursuits are turned OFF during class.

University Policies

Per University Policy S16-9, university-wide policy information relevant to all courses, such as academic integrity, accommodations, etc. will be available on Office of Graduate and Undergraduate Programs' Syllabus Information web page at <http://www.sjsu.edu/gup/syllabusinfo/>"

IMPORTANT COURSE POLICIES

You are encouraged to use the tutoring services on campus, but all work in ENGL 100A is expected to be your own. If the instructor has reason to believe otherwise, he or she has the right to require additional evidence that the work is your original writing.

Statement of Plagiarism: The LLD and English Departments would like to emphasize that we adhere strictly to the rules against plagiarism as set forth in the SJSU Catalog. The Catalog defines plagiarism as follows:

1. Plagiarism. At SJSU, plagiarism is the act of representing the work of another as one's own (without giving appropriate credit) regardless of how that work was obtained, and submitting it to fulfill academic requirements. Plagiarism at SJSU includes but is not limited to:
2. The act of incorporating the ideas, words, sentences, paragraphs, or parts thereof, or the specific substance of another's work, without giving appropriate credit, and representing the product as one's own work; and
3. Representing another's artistic/scholarly works such as musical compositions, computer programs, photographs, paintings, drawing, sculptures or similar works as one's own.(available at <http://info.sjsu.edu/static/catalog/policies.html> - Student Responsibilities - Discipline – Policy on Academic Dishonesty – 1.0 Definitions of Academic Dishonesty)

Should a student plagiarize in any ENGL 100A course, the instructor will report the student to the University's Office of Student Conduct and Ethical Development. Also, points will be deducted from the assignment/course depending on the severity of the policy violation.

How to avoid plagiarism. It is not always easy to recognize whether you are legitimately citing the work of others or whether you have "crossed the line" into plagiarism. To become acquainted with what plagiarism is and how to avoid it, the following SJSU website offers definitions, policies, and links to useful websites offering guidelines in plagiarism prevention. Students are fully accountable for understanding these policies. <https://libguides.sjsu.edu/plagiarism/how-to-avoid-plagiarism>
